

WE ARE ONE: GOING OUT IN MISSION

2020 Official Journal

Minutes of the Two Hundred Thirty-sixth Session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church

September 12, 2020
Online

Because of a worldwide Coronavirus pandemic, which hit the United States in March 2020, the Baltimore-Washington Conference session was postponed until September and had to be held online. A second online session, for the laity, was held in November. The General and Jurisdictional Conferences scheduled for 2020 were also postponed.

Adopted by the Annual Conference as its official record.
Bishop LaTrelle Easterling, Presiding
Kevin Silberzahn, Secretary

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Annual Conference Session, September 12, 2020

Gathering Time

Christie Latona, Director of Connectional Ministries, greeted the assembly, saying: “Good morning, Baltimore-Washington Conference. Welcome to our opening time of gathering and worship this 236th Annual Conference Session. Usually we would offer pre-Conference workshops and Bible Studies during Annual Conference. In lieu of that and in recognition that much of our ongoing struggle results from a core identity crisis, we would like to take this moment to remind us all about who we are as people of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. You are about to experience the teaching clip from Part III of the Who Are We? Journey From Head to Heart study rooted in Luke 3: 15-17. If your congregation hasn’t been engaged in this foundational study, please plan on incorporating it soon. In 1784, Methodists gathered in Baltimore at the Christmas Conference to create what would grow into one of the most diverse expressions of faith in modern Christendom. Its early circuit riders created a movement of scriptural and social holiness that transformed a continent. Will you pray with me?” Christie then reads a prayer written by Rev. Stacey Cole Wilson.

“God of our ancestors, God with us now: we pause to acknowledge Your abiding presence. From generation to generation, You are God and You have included us in Your story of redemption, unconditional love, justice, reconciliation and peace. Thank you. You have given us the gift of Your divine breath. May we use it for Your glory. By the power of Your Holy Spirit, embolden us in this time of study, prayer, and reflection to be doers of Your Word and not hearers only. Let Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. In the Name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.”

Video: Who Are We?

Opening Worship

Worship opened with the song: For All That You Have Done by Rend Collective, to the tune Auld Lang Syne, interspersed with prayers from Rev. Dr. Kyle Durbin, Frostburg UMC, and Rev. Sherri Wood-Powe, Oak Chapel UMC.

“God of grace and God of mercy, in the story of Your great creation, we are facing what seems like a ‘forever-year’. From the mountaintops of expectation so many of us expected for our lives in this world as the ball dropped and the calendar turned from 19 to 20 just eight months ago, to the valleys so many have experienced in the wake of an unspeakable pandemic, we Your people, Your church, continue to sing Your song, knowing that in the midst of unthinkable circumstances, the goodness of Your presence has never left us, and with a renewed hope and great expectation, that goodness follows us into a promised and expected future of abundance and glory.

“God of deliverance, we offer praise, grateful that You are indeed also the God of redemption. For all of the creative and innovative ways so many have sought to keep the mission of Your kin-dom alive on earth this year as close to Your heavenly reality as possible, we admit that mistakes have been made, and many of us are wrestling with failures and regrets, both personally and communally. Still we acknowledge that no storm is strong enough to defeat Your good will for each of us, and so we continue to sing Your song of triumph and hope.

“God of new creation, Lord of resurrection and life, Spirit of transformation making all things new, we place our hope in the solid rock of Your never-ending love and presence, and so, with a renewed and reinvigorated confidence in the great plans You have for each and every one of us—our families, our friends, our churches, our Conference—for all that You have done for us and the wonderful things You hold in store for our future, we will continue to sing Your song of praise, forever and ever. Amen.”

The prayer is followed by hymn #369 from the United Methodist Hymnal: My Hope is Built, interspersed with prayer statements by youth members of the Conference, including Madison Sadler, Calvary UMC, Grace Osuji, Shiloh UMC, and two others, unnamed; and by members of the United Campus Ministries: TJ White, Maeci Curtis, Victoria Michael, and Reginald E. Morton, III.

This is followed by the closing song: The Power of One by Israel Houghton, and a closing prayer by Rev. Sherri

Wood-Powe.

Clergy Executive Session

Bishop LaTrelle Miller Easterling opened the Clergy Session with these words: “Good morning and welcome to this historic opening of the Clergy Session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. I am your chief Episcopal servant, Bishop LaTrelle Miller Easterling. During that Who Are We? video, you heard about the history that was made here in this great part of Christendom and also in Methodism. Well, beloved, we make history again. This is the first time that we will be meeting on a virtual platform. I’m so grateful for everyone that collaborated and came together to allow us to be able to meet in these unprecedented times in this new and very different way. You heard the song that was offered during worship to the tune of Auld Lang Syne, and how appropriate for it. In the spirit of where we are in our work, ‘this is a day of new beginnings, time to remember and move on, time to believe what love is bringing, laying to rest the pain that’s gone.’ But that last verse, we don’t often hear that. ‘In faith we’ll gather round the table, to taste and share what love can do. This is a day of new beginnings; our God is making all things new.’ So, as we gather in this new and different way, we know God is here with us, God is there with you, our hope is built on nothing less than Jesus’ blood and righteousness. So, we trust that God will guide us in our work today.”

David Wood, Executive Director of Good News Television (GNTV) Media Ministry, instructed the assembly on the voting procedure and carried out a test vote.

Bishop Easterling acknowledged that this is a new way for us to gather, saying: “It’s new to so many of us, and so we’re going to be gentle with one another today, we’re going to be patient with one another today, we’re going to be forgiving if we make some mistakes, if it takes a little longer to do things than would take if we were gathered at one of the hotels in our Conference. We’re going to allow one another that kind of grace to be able to do our work today effectively and efficiently.” Bishop Easterling expressed gratitude for the ways that our clergy have lived into this unprecedented and unexpected time. She then recognized the people, who were sharing the room and assisting: Rev. Tony Love, Assistant to the Bishop; Kevin Silberzahn, Conference Secretary; and Ken Humbert, Parliamentarian. She also acknowledged the moderators, who were helping: Bill Brown and Christie Latona as chief moderators with Andrew Cooney, Sarah Schlieckert, Shemaiah Strickland, Richard Willson, and Paul Johnson.

Bishop Easterling addressed a Point of Information from Deacon Julie Wilson, GBGM and Calvary UMC, regarding some Local Pastors who did not receive an email about the session. On checking, the reason is that they may not have registered. If they registered, they would have received a code to connect to the session.

Rev. Dr. C. Anthony Hunt, Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM) Chair, presented the Organizing Motion. The Motion was approved.

Rev. Dr. Hunt noted that the BOOM report would be in three parts: a Narrative Report, an Information Report, and a Voting Report. He further noted that “in accordance with the instructions of the General Council on Finance and Administration, the Business of the Annual Conference report was prepared in alignment with the beginning of the new appointment year on July 1st, 2020; therefore, all actions voted on subsequent to that date are understood as being retroactive to July 1st, 2020. Any actions taken by the Cabinet, Board of Ordained Ministry, or our officers since July 1st with regard to effective dates after that time shall be reported on the 2021 Business of the Annual Conference form.” He then presented the BOOM Narrative Report. (This report is included in the Reports section of the Journal.)

Rev. Dr. Hunt next presented the BOOM Voting Report. He noted two administrative corrections with items being moved from the Voting Report to the Information Report. It was noted that several people had been sending in editorial corrections to both the Information Report and the Voting Report. These corrections were being noted by the Conference Secretary, and both he and Rev. John Nupp would ensure that all the corrections were made in the final Report. Rev. Dr. Hunt proceeded with the items on the Voting Report, following the Business of the Annual Conference format.

Question 18 was approved. Question 20 was approved. Question 21.a was approved. Question 21.b was approved. Question 21.c was approved. Question 25 was approved. Question 26.b was approved.

Bishop Easterling addressed a Motion from Rev. Kirkland Reynolds, Chevy Chase UMC. The Motion reads: “I move that the entire class of persons being considered for Deacons and Elders Provisional status under question 28, be considered and voted upon as a class; and that, the entire class of persons being considered for full membership as Deacons and Elders in the Annual Conference under question 32, be considered and voted upon as a class.” Bishop Easterling noted that this requires a simple majority, and offered that: “The Chair does not insert themselves into the work of the Conference, but if I could address what I presume to be the spirit of this Motion, and that is that we would take these as they actually come up in the Report. And so, we would receive the Motion for the body to be able to discuss and address when we address item 28, and then the portion of the motion that addresses question 32, we would receive that when the body actually is ready to vote on and receive question number 32.”

Rev. Dr. Hunt offered an Amendment to the Motion to the effect that questions 32 and 34 be considered together. Rev. Reynolds accepted the Amendment and addressed his Amended Motion: “Friends, as an Executive Session in Annual Conference, we entrust the Board of Ordained Ministry to do the work of this body to fairly examine these candidates. The Board commits itself to a process that takes into account the various differences in backgrounds, gifts, and graces that these diverse candidates carry with them. My Motion is an affirmation of the work of the Board, the broader commitment of this Annual Conference to prayerful and deliberate discernment, and also our commitment to a fair and just process. I also note that this Motion, if adopted by the body, for both Provisional and Full Member Candidates, is the same process we used last year and in previous sessions of this Annual Conference for electing as a class. I encourage us to affirm the whole work of the Board by voting for these candidates in their classes, in addition to granting grace to our leaders, Commissioning class, and Ordination class, by using just one electronic ballot per class.”

Rev. Debbie Scott, Lovely Lane UMC, spoke for the Amended Motion, as it worked well in years’ past, helps the process, and affirms the work of BOOM.

Rev. Kevin Baker, Oakdale Church, spoke against the Amended Motion, saying: “Last year, I think voting as a class complicated some of our decisions and made it difficult to separate out some difficult issues because it was done as a class. I also think that this dishonors all of the hard work that each one of these individual candidates—I know that it makes it more expedient for us, but each one of these people have put a lot of hard work and prayer and time into their time for Ordination, and I think they deserve for us to vote on them individually.”

Bishop Easterling noted someone attempted a Motion to Call the Question, but as we had not yet had two speeches for and against, she gave the body the opportunity; however, seeing no other speeches for or against the Amended Motion, Bishop Easterling asked for a vote on a Motion to Call the Question. The Motion was approved.

Bishop Easterling then moved back to the Amended Motion, reading the part that pertains to Question 28: “I move the entire class of persons being considered for Deacons and Elders for Provisional Status under 28 be considered and voted upon as a class.” The Amended Motion was approved.

Rev. Dr. Hunt then lifted up the names, while their pictures were shown on the screen, of those being put forward for Commissioning as Provisional Deacons: Helen Ballew and William Raymond Carpenter Jr.; and as Provisional Elders: Michael Anthony Carrington Jr., Kevin Highfield, David Norton, Emily Elizabeth Bostic Skorupinski, Malaina Trice, and Samuel Tryon. He invited the body to pray upon the ministries of these people as the body considers them for Commissioning. Bishop Easterling called for a vote on these candidates. It requires a $\frac{3}{4}$ majority, and was approved. Bishop Easterling noted that “this is a significant moment in the life of these candidates, and in the life of the Annual Conference. We would normally stop to bring them back in and to celebrate them, but might we just take a moment, where we are, over this virtual platform, to celebrate this wonderful moment for these candidates as they’ve worked so hard, and the Board has worked so hard to prepare them and bring them forward. Thanks be to God.”

Rev. Dr. Hunt continued his Report. Question 29.a was approved. Question 29.b was approved.

Bishop Easterling addressed a Motion from Rev. Laura Blauvelt, Potomac UMC, to decrease the amount of time allotted for a vote from one minute to 30 seconds going forward. It is a procedural motion and not debatable. The Motion was approved.

Rev. Dr. Hunt continued his Report. Question 29.c was approved. Question 29.e was approved.

Bishop Easterling then addressed the Amended Motion presented by Rev. Kirkland Reynolds, with respect to Questions 32 and 34, the Motion being: “I move that the entire class of persons being considered for, in this instance Elder, because there are no Deacons who are coming before us, for full connection, the entire class be considered as a whole, rather than being voted upon individually.”

Rev. Debbie Scott, Lovely Lane UMC, spoke for the Amended Motion.

Bishop Easterling addressed a Motion for Reconsideration from Rev. Sarah Schlieckert, Pasadena UMC. Rev. Schlieckert, who is serving as a moderator during this session, noted that there have been some concerns from people with accessibility issues or slow internet, so moves that the body Reconsider the Motion approved earlier to move from one minute per vote to 30 seconds, instead suggesting 45 seconds. Bishop Easterling noted that the body would need to first vote on the Motion to Reconsider and then would another Motion to consider a different allotted time for voting.

Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, St. Mark UMC, who had a Point of Information, asking how many clergy are in the session and how many missed the last vote due to time constraints. There were 20 fewer votes. Bishop Easterling noted that, even if 20 people were not able to vote, there were sufficient votes that this would not make a difference in the results. She further noted that there were similar issues last year with persons, whose voting devices were not working, but the percentage would not have changed the results of a vote. Bishop Easterling instructed the body that we are now voting on the Motion to Reconsider. This is a procedural motion and is not debatable. The Motion was approved.

Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. Katie Bishop, Middletown UMC, who presented a Motion to allow 45 seconds to vote. The Motion was approved.

Bishop Easterling noted we are now back on the main Motion regarding voting on persons addressed in Questions 32 and 34 as a class. She reminded the body that we had one speech for the Motion, and asked if there were any speeches against.

Rev. Rudy Bropleh, Asbury UMC, spoke against the Motion, saying that “the Executive Session has a very important, not only right, but responsibility to vote on each candidate. The Board of Ordained Ministry does good work, but to say that we just affirm the work of the Board en bloc and vote as a group is like saying we trust the Executive Branch because they’re good people and so Congress has no oversight. It is important, especially since the persons, who come before us, that is the Executive Session, are persons who are serving or going to serve the entire Annual Conference; and, the Executive Session is the best and broadest representation of the entire Annual Conference. So, I think we ought to vote individually on persons, who come before us, and not as a block.”

Bishop Easterling noted we had one speech for and one speech against. Seeing no other speeches in the queue, Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. Amanda McMurtrey, Mayo UMC, who presented a Motion to Call the Question. The Motion was approved.

Bishop Easterling informed the body that the Motion now before us was to consider those persons listed in Questions 32 and 34 in totality and not individually, as proposed by Rev. Kirkland Reynolds. The Motion was approved.

Rev. Dr. Hunt presented those persons in Questions 32.b and 34.a being recommended for full membership in the Annual Conference and for Ordination. Rev. Dr. Hunt read the names as each person’s picture was shown on the screen: Daniel Breidenbaugh, R. Lorraine Brown (Cross), Alison Thomas DeLeo, Katie O’Hern Hamilton, Walter Daniel Jackson III, Dana M. Jones, Irance Reddix McCray, and Monica Raines. Questions 32.b and 34.a. were approved.

Bishop Easterling offered a prayer for these people, calling them saints, who are committing themselves to set-apart ministry.

Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. Joan Carter-Rimbach, John Wesley UMC, who presented a Motion to vote on the remainder of the questions in the BOOM report in a single vote with a $\frac{3}{4}$ majority needed for approval. Bishop Easterling noted that, having conferred with Chancellor Tom Starnes and Parliamentarian Rev. Ken Humbert, this Motion is in order as it sets the bar to the highest requirement, $\frac{3}{4}$ majority, for any of the remaining Questions. In answer to a Point of Information from Rev. Stephen Ricketts, Linganore UMC, Bishop Easterling noted that each Question would be read before taking a vote on them as a whole. Seeing no one in the queue to offer a speech for or against the Motion, it went to a vote. The Motion was approved.

Rev. Dr. Hunt then read the remainder of the Questions from the BOOM Voting Report, and Bishop Easterling noted that the body had agreed to move these questions in their totality. The Motion was approved.

Rev. Dr. Hunt next read the names of clergy retirees, and Rev. John Nupp then offered a prayer for and named clergy spouses and deceased pastoral leaders from our Conference. (These names are recorded in the Business of Annual Conference report.)

Rev. Dr. Hunt then moved approval of the entirety of the BOOM report as contained in the Voting Report and the Information Report. The Motion was approved.

Following concluding announcements from the Conference Secretary, Bishop Easterling thanked people for an exceptional job and concluded the Clergy Executive Session.

Plenary Session

Bishop LaTrelle Miller Easterling opened the Plenary Session of the 236th Session of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference, greeting everyone in the Precious Name of Our Lord and Savior Jesus, the Christ. She noted the historic significance of our meeting on a virtual platform, introduces others sharing the dais with her, the moderators, and GNTV Media Ministry personnel. David Wood of GNTV instructed the assembly in the voting procedure and carries out a test vote. Conference Secretary Kevin Silberzahn read the Organizing Motion and moved its approval. The Motion was approved.

Rev. Mark Gorman, Rules Committee Chair, then informed the body of changes to our Parliamentary Rules for this session to accommodate the virtual environment, and moved their approval. The Motion was approved.

A video on the Mission of Peace to India was shown, with youth calling out a new meaning of Missions, where participants immerse themselves into and learn about the culture, religion, issues, and people of the world. Bishop Easterling acknowledged the value of this type of Missions work, saying: "I really hope we were paying attention to that video, because our young people are spot on. What we have typically called mission is really more almsgiving. The definitions that they offered in that video truly begin to open up to us what it really means to be a church "in mission." It was a joy, a privilege, and an honor, for myself and my family, to travel to India with the leaders of the church, the young people, the leaders of the church today and into tomorrow. I thank God for them, and I thank God for the experience." She then noted that: "As we gather here this afternoon, others have gathered to mourn the passing, and to celebrate the life, of the Rev. Dr. Gilbert Caldwell. We understand him to be a faithful and committed clergyperson, theologian, drum major for justice, and a friend to so many of us. We typically have a Memorial Service as part of our Annual Conference gathering to celebrate the lives of those, who have transitioned from the church militant to the church triumphant, to recognize those, who've gone on from labor to reward since we gathered last. We don't have the opportunity to do that in a traditional way, and so we're going to pause right now for a moment of silence to recognize this giant of the church, but also those within our own lives in this Baltimore-Washington Conference, the saints, and we'll also thank for their living, for their witness, and for their faithfulness." After a moment of silence, Bishop Easterling offered prayer.

Bishop Easterling thanked everyone who worked to condense the agenda, noting specifically the authors of Resolutions that were to be presented at our regularly scheduled session. She acknowledged that we will plan a special session of Annual Conference, when we can once again gather in large numbers, to address these Resolutions. She then greeted Conference Lay Leader Delores Martin, who offered greetings, noted that the Laity Session will be held virtually on 14 November 2020, and thanked the District Lay Leaders for their work.

A video from the Delegation to the General Conference and the Jurisdictional Conference is then shown, affirming the delegation's support of and work toward the Northeast Jurisdiction's Call to Action for Racial Justice.

Rev. Dr. C. Anthony Hunt, BOOM Chair, presented the BOOM Narrative Report. (This report is included in the Reports section of the Journal.)

Rev. Dr. Amy McCullough, BOOM Vice Chair, introduced the Conference-wide Gender and Ministry Study, to explore how gender impacts one's call, candidacy process, appointment history, and ministry expectations and satisfaction. The Study will address not only gender, but other aspects of personhood, such as race, and will focus on both clergy and lay people. The Study will consist of an online questionnaire and in-person interviews. It will launch in January 2021 and is expected to run through June 2022. The results of the Study will be shared with BOOM, the Clergy Executive Session, and the entire Annual Conference.

Rev. Dr. Jennifer Smith, Chair of BOOM's Culture of Call Committee, reported on the Committee's work, fostering a culture of care for those who are living out their call to ministry, and seeking to encourage and go alongside those who are beginning to listen to and understand God's call to ministry. She talked about ways the Committee is working to support and care for clergy in this season.

Rev. Dr. Hunt then concluded the BOOM report, thanked Bishop Easterling for her ongoing prayers, support, and guidance of BOOM's work, and thanked Rev. John Nupp, Executive Minister for Call and Clergy Care, for his excellent leadership in managing and facilitating the perfecting of BOOM's practices for supporting clergy and those preparing for Ordained and Licensed Ministry.

Rev. Dr. Hunt next presented 16 candidates, eight (8) for Provisional Membership: Helen Ballew and William Raymond Carpenter Jr. as Deacons, Michael Anthony Carrington Jr., Kevin Highfield, David Norton, Emily Elizabeth Bostic Skorupinski, Malaina Trice, and Samuel Tryon as Elders; and eight (8) for Full Membership and be Ordained as Elders: Daniel Breidenbaugh, R. Lorraine Brown (Cross), Alison Thomas DeLeo, Katie O'Hern Hamilton, Walter Daniel Jackson III, Dana M. Jones, Irance Reddix McCray, and Monica Raines. Seeing no questions in the queue, the vote to affirm these persons was taken and was approved.

Rev. Jessica Hayden, Discipleship Council Chair, presented the Discipleship Council report. (This report is recorded in the Reports section of this Journal.)

Paul Eichelberger, Conference Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer, introduced the Stewardship report. Phil Potter, Council on Finance and Administration (CF&A) President, and Rev. Daryl Williams, CF&A Vice President, presented the CF&A report. (The full information on this report is recorded elsewhere in the Journal.) Phil presented the 2021 Budget Proposal, which includes changes to the collection rate forecast, recasting the 2021 budget to an 87.5% collection rate, which reduces the 2021 Mission Share income to $13.0M. The expense reduction resulting from this reduced collection rate is $447,000, which impacts three areas: a staff salary freeze in 2021, reduction in accelerated debt payments, and reducing building reserve payments. Phil then presented the Recommendations from CF&A. The Recommendations were approved.

Rev. Cary James, Board of Pensions Chair, then presented the Recommendations from the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits.

Bishop Easterling took two questions, one from Rev. Bonnie McCubbin, Good Shepherd UMC, and one from Rev. Rudy Bropleh, Asbury UMC. Rev. McCubbin asked if the Direct Benefit decrease from 12 percent to 11 percent will change clergy benefits. No. Rev. Bropleh asked how opting out of Social Security impacts a clergy pension of CPP benefits. Rev. Cary James replies that: "In order to receive CPP benefits and Disability benefits, it requires you to be Medicare eligible. So, if you opt out of Social Security, you are not Medicare eligible. So, it will affect your benefits in retirement."

Seeing no other questions, Bishop Easterling opened the vote on the Recommendations from the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. The Recommendations were approved.

Kim Ayres, Commission on Equitable Compensation Chair, presented their Recommendations: 1) that the base salary for the 2021 Clergy Salary Table be increased by 1.75 percent or $786, which will make the base salary $45,678; and 2) that the housing allowance be increased by 0.5 percent or $101, which will make the recommended housing allowance $20,364. Seeing no questions, Bishop Easterling opened the vote. The Recommendations were approved.

Rev. Ann LaPrade, DS, Baltimore Suburban District, presented the Resolutions to close Boring UMC of Upperco, MD, Deer Park UMC of Upperco, MD, and Saint Luke UMC of Monkton, MD. DS LaPrade talked about the life cycle of churches and the legacy of churches as part of the gift they continue to give to God's community through new ministries yet to be brought to life, which can carry forward a church's core values and beliefs. Following her reading of the Resolutions, DS LaPrade offered a prayer.

Bishop Easterling recognized Matt Sichel, Wesley UMC, who presented an Amendment pertaining solely to the Resolution for Closure of Boring UMC, adding the following to the end of the Resolution: "and should the real property of the Boring United Methodist Church be sold, the proceeds of that sale be bequeathed to the Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church (Upperco, MD) for its growing and vibrant ministry, that church being a mere 1.7 miles away, serving the exact same rural parish as had been served by the Boring United Methodist Church, the churches having been historic ministry partners for 85 years on the same circuit." Matt Sichel offers the following in justification for his Amendment: "I grew up as a member of the Pleasant Grove UMC. I took my first communion at a service that was cooperative between Boring and Pleasant Grove. I live between the two churches, I know that parish, I know their ministry, and I know that the Boring UMC and the Pleasant Grove UMC were so deeply linked with one another that the thought that the proceeds should go anywhere but to the Pleasant Grove UMC, being the last two churches that were on the Hampstead Circuit, 85 years together, doesn't make any sense to me, whatsoever. I appreciate the chance to address the Annual Conference on this. I know that the Pleasant Grove UMC is doing amazing ministry. They, on their own, took their resources to start a new worship service on Saturday night, a dinner church. It's amazing. They're reaching people that they've never reached before, and they could certainly use any money that is given out of the sale from Boring UMC. Boring, as a town, is almost getting ready to be wiped off the map. Its Fire Department was closed and merged with nearby Arcadia. Its Post Office now only exists open from about 11 in the morning until 3 in the afternoon, Monday through Friday. I don't believe that it should be a church that causes the death of a community; a church should be a part of the building of a community. So, it's my prayer that Boring UMC would be able to continue to grow its own community by serving Pleasant Grove UMC in this way."

Bishop Easterling took a question from Mittie Quinn, Dumbarton UMC, as to whether or not any of the churches that will be coming before the Annual Conference are historically African-American. They are, and that will be addressed as the churches are presented.

Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. Michael Parker, Bells and Church of the Redeemer UMCs, who spoke against the Amendment. Rev. Parker stated: "Certainly, while I am for the reinvestment into the communities of churches that are closing, I'm just concerned that this sets a precedent that may not be followed for the other churches that are closing, as there are several of us that are serving churches that are nearby some of these congregations that are closing, and if funds or sales or things like that are not being made available to all of the churches that are nearby these closing churches, singling this particular one out, to me presents a problem, not only for us now, but even down the road."

Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. Malcolm Stranathan, Westminster UMC, who spoke for the Amendment. Rev. Stranathan stated: "I had the pleasure of serving at Pleasant Grove UMC in the late 1990's, and during that time, Boring and Pleasant Grove, Piney Grove, Mt. Gilead, Patapsco, and Dover churches were all part of something called the Care-More Cooperative Parish. Together they worked communions, confirmation classes together, they served in mutual ministry, there were many activities that these congregations did faithfully, including even a senior adult ministry cooperatively. In recent years that cooperative ministry is no longer in effect; however, I think that there is a long-standing friendship between these congregations, and knowing that Pleasant Grove is still vital and active in the community, it could actually benefit from some of the proceeds from Boring, if the building is chosen to go up for sale. There is also a historic Black church in that community called Piney Grove, and I believe that if that church is still vital that they would also benefit from some of the proceeds from Boring, because once again, those two churches worked well together and are also within a mile of each other. So, I speak for Matthew's suggestion, with possibly recognizing there are other local churches in that area that would benefit from the sale of Boring.”

Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. Debbie Scott, Lovely Lane UMC, for a second speech against the Amendment. Rev. Scott stated: “I served as the Chair of Conference Trustees and don’t envy the role that our current Board is in, but I will say that there is a long, detailed, Disciplinary process for closing churches. Boring, and any other church that is on our list, that has chosen to turn its assets to the Conference, had the opportunity to make designations and have chosen not to, so I think we need to honor that, in trust that the Conference will designate those resources to the best use as we think about the future and not the past.”

Bishop Easterling took a Point of Information from Rev. Loretta Johnson, Calvary UMC, who asked if the Book of Discipline gives guidance on using the funds from the sale of a church, that they be used for supporting church ministry in the same community. John Strawbridge, Conference Board of Trustees Chair, responded that the Book of Discipline gives broad guidance that proceeds from the sale of closed churches that are in an urban setting are designated to be used in an urban setting; likewise for churches in a non-urban setting, proceeds are designated to be used in a non-urban setting. The Board of Trustees is mindful of this and works with the District Superintendents for the special use of those funds.

Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. David Deans, Glenelg UMC, for a second speech for the Amendment. Rev. Deans recalled legislation from a previous Annual Conference, in which any monies received from the sale of property be put toward new church development. He considered Matt Sichel’s Amendment concerning Pleasant Grove UMC, to be in that same vein, as it is a growing church with disciple-making and a new church or a new faith community, new church worship service on Saturday night.

Rev. Katie Bishop moved to Call the Question. The Motion was approved.

Matt Sichel presented final comments on his Amendment, stating: “I appreciate those, who have spoken for and I appreciate the difficulties that the Trustees have, when they make these decisions. I was at the closing service for Boring UMC. I know they had substantial, substantial monetary reserves that they turned around and gave to other ministries, but none of the money that they had in reserve did they give to Pleasant Grove UMC, and I know that Pleasant Grove can make great use of that money. [Rev.] Dick Harden is the pastor there; he’s done an amazing job. They’ve hired staff to handle their Saturday night worship. It’s beautiful; I’ve attended at that service twice. They’re doing phenomenal work for Jesus Christ, and I think that we would be very well in recommending the amendment that I’ve presented today.”

DS Ann LaPrade, the maker of the original Motion, spoke to the Amendment, stating: “I appreciate the spirit, in which it is made, and I, too, honor the history of churches and relationships with one another on what is now the Baltimore Suburban District. It has been a fascination to me, those relationships and to continually learn about them. I was in holy conversation with Boring UMC as the people of that congregation sat and discussed, and then determined their future, which included closure. One of the aspects of that conversation I most appreciated is that they made a determination to give a gift to the two churches, with whom, with which they have been in relationship, Mt. Gilead and Piney Grove. So, no mention was made of Pleasant Grove, but they did express appreciation to Mt. Gilead and Piney Grove, as well. And, I appreciate that sense of relationship. With respect to Pleasant Grove UMC, I affirm the ministry there, including the Saturday night service. It is unfortunate that in the midst of the pandemic, that service has had to be discontinued, and we do not know the future of that service. I had a recent conversation with the pastor about this very matter. Pleasant Grove is blessed with an endowment, which has allowed them to go forward in ministries, and I affirm that and appreciate that, and have supported them in this endeavor. However, there are many places, where this money can be used on the District that is, where they are more needed than at Pleasant Grove. Also taking into account, Boring UMC’s support. So, I am against this amendment.”

Bishop Easterling then reminded the body of the Amendment that is up for vote, adding to the end of the Resolution for Closure of Boring UMC: “and should the real property of the Boring United Methodist Church be sold, the proceeds of that sale be bequeathed to the Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church (Upperco, MD) for its growing and vibrant ministry, that church being a mere 1.7 miles away, serving the exact same rural parish as had been served by the Boring United Methodist Church, the churches having been historic ministry partners for 85 years on the same circuit.” The Amendment was not approved.

Bishop Easterling noted that one of the churches in the Baltimore Suburban closure report, Saint Luke, is an historically African-American church, and in accordance with our decision to address these churches as they are presented, she asked DS LaPrade and/or John Strawbridge to address this in regards to Saint Luke. DS LaPrade stated: "Saint Luke UMC in Hereford on the Baltimore Suburban District has had a vital ministry and significant history as an African-American congregation with roots in the Methodist Episcopal tradition, and it dates back to the 1860's. The congregation came to the decision for closure prayerfully and out of an understanding that the time had come to celebrate their legacy and pass it on. Part of their statement reads: "Our prayer is that the Conference will be able to utilize the church in a way, which will be pleasing in God's sight. May there be welcoming arms that will, in some way, bring hope to others." DS LaPrade further talked about a group set up in the Baltimore Suburban District to discern and plan how best to carry out the legacy of this church. She notes that the group consists of lay and ordained, includes African-Americans and those whose roots are in Baltimore and Harford counties. The group is looking to expand ministry to the homeless in those areas, and money from the sale of Saint Luke can be used to support this and other initiatives.

Rev. Sheridan Allmond, Conference Board of Trustees, noted that they work closely with the District Superintendents, who know the needs in their Districts.

Bishop Easterling took a Point of Information from Rev. Michael Parker, who asked if the names of the people on the group, referred to by DS LaPrade, could be shared with the body. DS LaPrade stated she did not have all the names in front of her, but that the group included: herself, Rev. Karin Walker, District Lay Leader Thea Becton, and several others.

Having addressed the concern of Saint Luke as an historically African-American church, Bishop Easterling moved to a vote on the Resolution for Closure of all three churches on the Baltimore Suburban District. The Resolution was approved.

Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. Maidstone Mulenga, who presented a Motion to the body: "I move that we cut the number of speeches for and against to two for the rest of this Annual Conference Session." He states that, with an Order of the Day at 6:00 p.m., we need to use our time diligently to accomplish all the business that is before us. Seeing no questions or speeches for or against, Bishop Easterling moved to a vote on the Motion from Rev. Mulenga. The Motion was approved.

John Strawbridge addressed Rev. Kevin Baker's earlier Point of Information asking how the money from the sale of churches presented at last year's Annual Conference was used. He stated that some of the money was used in the Baltimore Metropolitan District for Young Adult mentoring, to address gun violence, and other works of transformation. They are helping churches that have heating system and air conditioning problems, and mold from water intrusion. Further, John stated that he serves alongside the Bishop on the Missional Action Plan Committee, which is an effort by the Conference to look at areas, where we are not in full mission, where we are not representing Jesus Christ the way we should where we are not making disciples. Part of the money addressed in the Discipleship Council report for New Church Starts is focused on work in these areas, as well as looking at underserved communities, marginalized communities, and communities where we simply aren't on those corners proclaiming the Good News.

Rev. JW Park, DS, Central Maryland District, presented the Resolution for Closure of Mount Carmel UMC, part of a two-point Charge with Saint Paul UMC, located in Brookeville, MD, and Laytonsville, MD, respectively. He noted that the former Mount Carmel property is in the process of sale to another denomination church. Bishop Easterling opened the floor for speeches for or against the Resolution. Seeing none, she moved to a vote. The Resolution was approved.

Bishop Easterling took a question from Rev. Kevin Baker, who asked about a passed Motion from last year's Annual Conference, which directed holding any proceeds from the sale of African-American churches until after General Conference. Bishop Easterling acknowledged that those monies are still being held, even though General Conference has been postponed.

Rev. Edgardo Rivera, DS, Frederick District, presented the Resolutions for the Closure of Saint James UMC in Westminster, MD, and Bell's Chapel UMC in Dickerson, MD. As Bell's Chapel is a historically African-American church, DS Rivera states that the Conference Board of Trustees "has taken ownership of the property, and that they were working with a non-profit, created out of descendants of the families of the property out of respect and out of honoring their heritage, and they decided to sell the property to this non-profit."

Bishop Easterling recognized Rev. Dr. Jennifer Smith, Wesley Freedom UMC, for a Point of Privilege. Rev. Dr. Smith addressed the closure of Saint James, saying that: "the St. James property is currently being cared for by Wesley Freedom, and will be utilized for the Family Resource Center that is designed to serve families with physical, mental, social challenges, and particularly those, who are recovering from addiction. So, we just wanted the Annual Conference to know that that property is being utilized as a mission center and we are happy to partner with any other churches in that area in exploring ways that that facility can be used entirely for mission to serve God's people."

Bishop Easterling moved to a vote on the Resolutions for Closure of Bell's Chapel UMC and Saint James UMC. The Resolution was approved.

Bishop Easterling noted several questions as to who's responsible for the care of cemeteries, when a church is closed. John Strawbridge answered, saying that a faith community that purchases the church property often takes that on, but in some instances, the Conference Board of Trustees has worked with the closing congregation to create a non-profit cemetery association for the ongoing care and maintenance of the cemetery.

Rev. Gerard A. Green, Jr., DS, Greater Washington District, presented the Resolution for Closure of Forest Memorial UMC in Forestville, MD. The Resolution was approved.

Bishop Easterling thanked everyone involved in this historic, 236th Session of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference. Following the vote, Bishop Easterling stated that "this has been a very unusual year, and we proceeded with the new appointments of clergy to churches during this pandemic, even before we were able to hold our session of Annual Conference, and I'm so grateful for you and proud of you, because you moved, you were faithful to our itinerant system and began to lead and shepherd and be in relationship with congregations and persons that you couldn't even physically gather with, but you rose to the occasion, because of who you are in Jesus Christ. So, let us understand that all the appointments that have been made on behalf of the Cabinet for this 2020 and 2021 Conference year are now set. Glory to God."

Conference Secretary Kevin Silberzahn made a few announcements then presented the Closing Motion. Rev. Tony Love, Assistant to the Bishop, offered a closing prayer, and Bishop Easterling closed the Session.

Service of Commissioning, Ordination, and Baptism

The Service opened with the playing of the Zion Still Sings Hymn #99 We Are All One in Mission. This was followed by the Call to Worship presented by the Provisional Candidates and the Opening Prayer offered by the Ordinands. Bishop Easterling thanked the Provisional Candidates and Ordinands, then moved into the Service of Baptism.

Bishop Easterling welcomed those to be Commissioned as Deaconesses and Home Missioners. Those so Commissioned were David Kennedy, Aldrina Ezra Cabrera, and Clarissa Evangelista. Delores Martin, Conference Lay Leader, and Rev. Dr. C. Anthony Hunt, Board of Ordained Ministry Chair, presented two persons to be Commissioned for the work of a Deacon: Helen Ballew and William Raymond Carpenter Jr.; six persons to be Commissioned for the work of an Elder: Michael Anthony Carrington Jr., Kevin Highfield, David G. Norton, Emily Elizabeth Bostic Skorupinski, Melaina Trice, and Samuel Tryon; and eight persons to be Ordained Elders: Daniel Breidenbaugh, R. Lorraine Brown (Cross), Alison Thomas DeLeo, Katie O'Hern Hamilton, Walter Daniel Jackson III, Dana M. Jones, Irance Reddix McCray, and Monica Raines. Bishop Easterling commended these persons and asked if the assembled people affirmed their worthiness, by God's grace, to be commissioned or ordained, to which the people answered: We do. Thanks be to God. Bishop Easterling welcomed those to be Commissioned as Deaconesses and Home Missioners. Those so Commissioned were David Kennedy, Aldrina Ezra Cabrera, and Clarissa Evangelista. Delores Martin and Rev. Dr. C. Anthony Hunt presented two persons to be Commissioned for the work of a Deacon: Helen Ballew and William Raymond Carpenter Jr.; six persons to be Commissioned for the work of an Elder: Michael Anthony Carrington Jr., Kevin Highfield, David G. Norton, Emily Elizabeth Bostic Skorupinski, Melaina Trice, and Samuel Tryon; and eight persons to be Ordained Elders: Daniel Breidenbaugh, R. Lorraine Brown (Cross), Alison Thomas DeLeo, Katie O'Hern Hamilton, Walter Daniel Jackson III, Dana M. Jones, Irance Reddix McCray, and Monica Raines.

Bishop Easterling commended these persons and asked if the assembled people affirmed their worthiness, by God's grace, to be commissioned or ordained, to which the people answered: We do. Thanks be to God.

Bishop Easterling conducted The General Examination of all candidates.

Rev. Dr. Miguel Balderas offered the Prayer for Illumination, followed by Julia Knisley reading from scripture, Ephesians 4:1-6, 11-16.

The song My Soul Has Been Anchored in the Lord by Douglas Miller was played.

Bishop Easterling delivered a sermon, which looked at all the woes that have accosted the world in 2020. She noted that "the landscape of 2020 will both bless the candidates and test their mettle", that "being ordained a minister to preach the Word of God as disclosed in Jesus the Christ is not a safe vocation, but a dangerous and lonely road to travel." She told the candidates they "cannot be afraid to preach judgment on power...the systems and structures of power that abuse the vulnerable, take advantage of the weak, ignore the hurting, and mock the marginalized." "Every now and then," she said, "you need to preach a word that comforts the disturbed and disturbs the comfortable." She went on to say: "When the Gospel is preached full and free, it has the power to transform lives that transform lives that continue to transform lives for generations to come." She urged us all to remain in the streets, not retreat to the comfort of our Sanctuary. She recalled walking through the streets of Baltimore following the murders of Ahmad Arbery, Breonna Taylor, and George Floyd. A number of people stopped to thank them, being surprised to see the church out in the community. She said that it should not be a rarity to see the followers of Jesus Christ out among the people, caring about them and building relationships with people; that's when we are in mission. It's not when we're writing a check, sending them food, sending some checks overseas to help build schools and to dig wells. Those are good, but wouldn't it be better to actually go overseas and help dig a few wells, build a few schools and a few orphanages, and form some relationships. She concluded by saying that 2020 has taught us we do not know what's around the corner, but we always meet uncertain times with the certainty of a certain God, whose power and life-giving, liberating love is there before we get there, will hold us while we're there, and have our backs as we're exiting. She told us, as we are out there walking, better yet running, on the road that God has called us to travel, we need to make sure your anchor holds the solid rock, your soul is anchored in the solid rock. If you put your anchor in Jesus the Christ, it won't be dragged, if you put your anchor in Jesus the Christ, no matter what, it will still hold.

Bisi Adebisin introduced the Recognition of Local Pastors, and Bishop Easterling lead a pray to honor the newly appointed Local Pastors in the Baltimore-Washington Conference. The list of Local Pastors was shown on the screen: Judith Bennett, Cristin Cooper, Shelley Hawkins, John Lagenstein, Rachel Livingston, Caitlin Mossburg, Tyree Newman, Kenneth Will Newton, Luis Panesi, Warren Savage, Rebecca (Becki) Wessinger, Terri Williams, and Marvene Young.

Bishop Easterling invited all the Provisional Candidates forward for Commissioning. Bishop Easterling called upon each person, individually, to serve and continue to learn among us. Those so Commissioned were listed earlier. As the newly Commissioned Provisional Members departed, they were presented a gift from the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Bishop Easterling conducted the Examination of Elder Candidates, asking them if they believe that God has called them to the life and work of an elder? Each answered: I do so believe. Bishop Easterling prayed for all those to be Ordained. Each Candidate then proceeded to the first kneeler to pray with their sponsor, then placed a personal artifact on a side table as they moved to the second kneeler in front of Bishop Easterling. This same process is followed for all the Candidates to be Ordained. As they knelt in front of Bishop Easterling, she placed her hands upon them and told each to "preach, teach, lead, and be an Elder among us." Each Candidate responded by saying: "Thanks be to God. Alleluia." Each newly Ordained Elder, as they left the kneeler was draped with a stole and presented with a Bible by their sponsor.

Bishop Easterling prayed over the assembled people, and the newly Ordained Elders filed out to the song I Am Available to You by Carlis Moody, Jr. Bishop Easterling addressed the assembly, telling them to be assured that we did ask these Candidates the Historic Questions and because we were not sure, whether or not we would be able to gather, we actually mailed them to them, and had them sign their name, pledging that they would uphold all of those questions that have been asked of Candidates for decades before them. Bishop Easterling then offered a final benediction and the Service concluded with hymn #557 from United Methodist Hymnal, Blest Be the Tie That Binds.

Virtual Laity Session – November 14, 2020

Conference Lay Leader Delores Martin and Bishop LaTrelle Easterling gathered with more than 500 participants on Zoom, Nov. 14 to celebrate the special ways that the lay people of the Baltimore-Washington Conference answer Christ's call to serve as "the salt of the earth and the light of the world."

The pair, who intentionally seek to model the partnership between the laity and clergy, thanked those who gathered for their resilience, creativity and skilled servant work as they live as a holy presence for God in these unsettling times.

In an address to the laity, Bishop Easterling referenced the twin pandemics of the coronavirus and racism and the contentious differences that surfaced in our nation around the November presidential election. She claimed this as a season for healing and challenged United Methodists to center their lives in the Good News.

"Love is who we are," Bishop Easterling said. "When we don't live according to love, we're living outside of being who we are, we're living outside of how God created us, of who God created us to be. When we love, we are acting according to our deepest being."

As we practice ministries of disciple-making, anti-racism and eradicating poverty, "may our legacy be salt and light," she concluded. "May our transformed lives continue to transform lives to the glory of almighty God."

To open the Laity Session, Martin celebrated the vital ministries of the BWC young people. She called on three leaders from the BWC's campus ministries, who testified between the verses as an online choir sang, "This Little Light of Mine." The student leaders included: Barinaale Dube, a student chaplain at The Wesley at Howard University; Victoria Pannullo, a student leader at the Terp Hub at University of Maryland College Park; and Logan Wesley, president of United Campus Ministry at Frostburg State University.

During the Laity Session, the Conference also honored 12 people who completed their two years of Certified Lay Ministry training in March. Certified Lay Ministers work in partnership with clergy in assigned ministry tasks.

Churches and members from throughout the BWC were also honored for their outstanding ministry in 2020.

Jones Memorial in Washington, D.C. and Glenmont UMC each received $1,000 as winners of the Action and Advocacy award. Christ UMC in Baltimore won $1,000 with the Abundant Health Award. The Rev. John Rudolph of the North Carroll Cooperative Parish won the Harry Denman Award for Evangelism and the Youth Leader of the Year award went to Susan Harry of Reisterstown UMC and Andy Thornton, who led the BWC's camping ministries for many years.

The second half of the Laity Session included interactive training on anti-racism by the group Fearless Dialogues.

57. What is the number of clergy members of the Annual Conference:

a) By appointment category and conference relationship? (NOTES:

(1) Where applicable, the question numbers on this report form corresponding to each category have been placed in parenthesis following the category title. Where these question numbers appear, the number reported in that category should agree with the number of names listed in the corresponding questions.

(2) For the three categories of Appointments to Extension Ministries, report as follows:

¶344.1a,c): the number of clergy members appointed within United Methodist connectional structures, including district superintendents, or to an ecumenical agency.

¶344.1b): the number of clergy members appointed to extension ministries, under endorsement by the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

¶344.1d): the number of clergy members appointed to other valid ministries, confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.

Note: Report those in extension ministry in one category only.

See the Discipline paragraphs indicated for more detailed description of these appointment categories.

(Note: Those approved to serve as a local pastor, but not currently under appointment, are not counted as clergy members of the conference.)

81. Where and when shall the next Conference Session be held (§603.2, 3)?

In accordance with the instructions of the General Council of Finance and Administration, the Business of Annual Conference report was prepared in alignment with the beginning of the new appointment year on July 1, 2020. All actions voted on subsequent to that date are understood as being retroactive to July 1, 2020. Any actions of the Cabinet, Board of Ordained Ministry or its officers since July 1, 2020 with regard to effective dates after that time shall be reported on the 2021 Business of Annual Conference Form. (For example, a clergyperson whose medical leave is effective on September 1, 2020 will be reported at the next Annual Conference. However, a clergyperson whose retirement was to take effect on July 1, 2020 will be reported on this form.)

The business of the 235th Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference will take place on Saturday, September 12th via a remote video platform, with interactive voting. Please note that the names of those listed in this report, particularly in questions 28 (“who are elected as provisional members?”) and in question 32 (“who are elected as full members?”) anticipates the actions of the Executive Session of the Annual Conference and that question 34 (“who are ordained?”) anticipates the actions of the resident Bishop on that date.

The 236th Session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church will be convened in the fall of 2021, exact dates and location to be determined.

REPORTS

The Reports and Recommendations in this year's Journal reflect the postponement of the Annual Conference session caused by the coronavirus pandemic.

The Discipleship Council report and the BWC Going Out in Mission report from Connectional Ministries were delivered at the online Sept. 12, 2020, session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. The reports from CFA, the Board of Pensions, and Commission on Equitable Compensation were also delivered at the Sept. 12 session.

However, the other committee and institutional reports reflect the state of ministries between June 2019 and March 2020.

Ministries

Leadership Development Board

The Leadership Development Board was approved at last year's Annual Conference to equip and mature leaders and nurture a culture through which call, competency and spiritual maturity work together to develop and equip vibrant lay and clergy leadership through the Baltimore-Washington Conference. The Leadership Development Board coordinates, supports and contributes to the crafting of all leadership efforts within the Conference.

During its first year the Board developed Training Tuesdays, where individuals and groups could attend, through Zoom technology, virtual classes on various advanced training in areas such as Staff-Parish Relations Committee, Trustees, Finance, Church Council, Nominations and a Unified Board session.

Training Tuesdays offered the opportunity to engage personally through Q&As, as well as on-line comments and sharing of information. The initial response has been overwhelming. Over 450 people had engaged in six Training Tuesdays offerings at the end of 2019. The sessions were recorded and are available on the Conference website under the Leadership and Congregational Development page for ease of access for all.

During the past year a different approach to District Leadership Days was developed. The annual district training day was renamed "Connect Leadership Summit" and the format was changed to provide intensive training tracks meant for continued leadership team and skills building. More than 700 people registered for the four regional classes; however, two of the regional events were forced to close because of the coronavirus.

The Leadership and Development Board is in the planning stages for a fall training opportunity which will be titled the Next Level Leadership Academy. The Next Level Leadership Academy will provide an even more intensive training environment for local church leaders. This program will establish cohorts that will continue to work together in team building and leadership skills to connect and support one another in local church leadership roles and beyond.

In partnership with Call and Clergy Care, the Board is planning to offer group training for clergy and CLMs in Orientation to Ministry, as well as clear and substantive information for clergy about CLM training. The Board is also discussing the processes needed to develop a technology-based application for those coming through ministry of the Feel Guide.

In partnership with Lay Servant Ministries we are looking at training materials already available to use as additional resources for clergy and laity.

Lastly, we are continuing to research and develop new and effective podcasts, webcasts and even audio book capabilities to bring additional and convenient training opportunities to clergy and laity.

Respectfully Submitted,
Pastor Nona Colbert, Chair

Board of Laity

The Ministry of the Laity is responsible for making Disciples of Jesus Christ to support the mission of the Baltimore Washington Conference. The Board continues its efforts to encourage the participation of all laypersons in broader areas and understanding life of the various ministries of the Conference.

The District Lay Leaders are actively engaged in and carrying out their missions. Richard Willson, Cumberland-Hagerstown District, and Kim Carr, Annapolis District, represented the group by attending the NEJ Association of Conference Lay Leaders in ValHalla, NY, along with myself.

The Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministry continues to do exceedingly well under the leadership of Linda Flanagan. The Committee cares for the training of Lay Servants and Certified Lay Servant Ministers.

The main goal again for this year is to continue to train laity across the Conference. The 8 Districts hosted many classes that included various topics. There were four scheduled regional Leadership Days training sessions across the Conference. It is exciting to see how the Districts encourage young disciples to participate in the Lay Servant classes.

We continue to celebrate the appointment of one the District Lay Leaders (also a CLM), Rod Fry as pastor of two small churches: Ijamsville and Flint Hill UMC. He also has a thriving Motorcycle Ministry, reaching out to the secular community. His goal is to continue this ministry.

The Lay Leaders serve on many Local, District and Conference Boards and Committees, and often chairing them. Some of us were invited to speak at various churches to celebrate Annual Laity Sunday.

A continuing goal is to focus on encouraging youth and young adults to become more actively involved in the life of the church, e.g., UMW, UMM, attending Annual Conference.

New Faith Expressions Board

Purpose: To equip and encourage change makers to gather new people in new places and spaces in order to bring the Church Jesus loves closer to the people Jesus loves.

2019 was a year of transition. I (Bill Brown) transitioned from being the Interim Director of New Faith Expressions to the full-time Director. I also transitioned from researching where we have been as an Annual Conference, in terms of Church planting, to developing a strategy for moving forward in faith.

Our goals for 2019 were rather straight forward;

1. Meet with each district superintendent to begin developing a priority list,
2. Develop a process of discernment for laity and clergy as to who may be called to start new faith expressions of church, and
3. Develop a strategy to move us forward as an Annual Conference.

Each of these goals have been met and inform our work for the coming years. Since this is a fairly new ministry area for our Annual Conference, it is difficult to measure impact, however I believe our strategy will have an impact moving forward.

Our strategy places an emphasis on training, specifically training lay people how to start new expressions of Church, understanding that the Methodist movement was strongest when the laity were empowered and entrusted with this type of work. We are also emphasizing training local churches how to get to know their communities and discover the best way to reach them with new expressions of Church. We believe these new expressions of Church will manifest themselves as micro-churches, strategic partnerships or Churches starting new things.

Goals:

As we look forward, this Board has developed four goals:

1. Launch four Micro-Church Trainings, one in each region.
2. Restructure current grant model and add new Micro-grants
3. In collaboration with Hispanic-Latino Ministries develop a strategy for Hispanic-Latino church plants
4. In partnership with Path 1, launch Lay Planter Training

Advocacy & Action Board

Purpose: We inspire and equip faith communities to develop disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by collaborating with others to transform systems that disenfranchise, marginalize, and oppress. The Advocacy and Action Board is tasked with establishing a clear, consistent and impact-driven BWC presence on urgent policy matters at local, state, and national levels, and helps set Conference-wide justice priorities rooted in our Social Principles.

Responsibilities

- ☐ Develop, share, and implement a strategic plan for justice ministry throughout the conference that includes vision, values, goals, priorities, and execution strategies that is revised and re-evaluated annually.
- ☐ Coordinate, oversee, support, and contribute to the implementation of its vision through the work of social action teams, specialized committees, multicultural ministries, and forums
 - Social Action Teams:
 - Creation Care
 - Gender Equity (COSROW ¶644)
 - Gun Violence Prevention
 - Immigration Rights
 - LGBTQIA+ Justice
 - Racial Justice (CCORR ¶643)
 - Restorative Justice (R/CJAMM)
 - Wealth Equity
 - Multicultural Ministries
 - Committee on Hispanic/Latino Ministries (¶655)
 - Deaf Ministries
 - Grow Church through Ministries for Asian Americans
 - Native American Ministry (CONAM ¶654)
 - Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century
 - Specialized Committees
 - Commission on Disability Concerns (¶653)
 - Justice for Our Neighbors
 - Annual Forums
 - Small Membership Church
 - Ethnic Local Church Concerns
 - Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships
 - Caucuses
 - Black Methodists for Church Renewal
 - Baltimore Washington Area Reconciling Ministries
 - Wesleyan Covenant Association
 - Action Coordination
 - Legislative Advocacy
 - Peace with Justice
- ☐ Comply with all requirements of the Book of Discipline related to Advocacy & Action (e.g. ¶629, ¶642, ¶643, and ¶644 and relevant parts of ¶632, ¶645, ¶653, ¶654, ¶655).
- ☐ Ensure that new initiatives are aligned with the vision and strategic plan for BWC's justice ministry.
- ☐ Organize needed training for local churches and leaders on community organizing, intercultural proficiency, and justice as a spiritual discipline to grow and multiply disciples.
- ☐ Coordinate with the Office of Leadership and Congregational Development/Leader Development Board to hold Annual Forums.
- ☐ Assess strategic ministry needs and troubleshoot key pressure points efficiently and effectively.
- ☐ Create and/or identify systems to track progress and maintain connection with Advocacy & Action servant leaders and other engaged persons.
- ☐ Ensure clear communication between all aspects of the Advocacy & Action network.
- ☐ Coordinate and communicate an external master calendar for all Advocacy & Action board-related programming throughout the conference.
- ☐ Meet at least quarterly and additionally as necessary, with meaningful and productive agendas that foster a calm, confident, and focused approach to each meeting.
- ☐ Establish and maintain workgroups, task forces, and/or subcommittees, chaired by Board members or designees, to ensure effective implementation of the strategic plan.

Team Composition

- ☐ Voting members with passion and commitment to justice and service to include:

- Chairs of each Advocacy and Action Social Action Team
- Annual forum leaders
- Individuals whose collective gifts span grant administration, project management, legislative advocacy, and data analysis and evaluation, selected by the Committee on Nominations

Wellness and Missions Board

Purpose: The purpose of the Wellness and Missions Board is to equip members, of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, to create and sustain programs and ministries that meet the needs of their local congregations and surrounding communities in the areas of HIV/AIDS outreach, early response following disasters, short-term mission trips, global and national missionary itineration, holistic health and domestic violence prevention.

The Wellness and Missions Board is responsible for crafting the vision of all health ministry and mission outreach work within the Conference.

In 2019, work with the Advance and Missionary Services continued. There was less coordination with missionaries as a result of difficulties securing visas. We pray there will be fewer challenges in the year ahead.

Early Response Teams (ERTs) were deployed to the North Carolina and New York Conferences to assist in flooding events. We also welcomed two new ERT trainers. Volunteers in Missions teams deployed throughout the BWC in response to recovery following natural disasters. Outside of the Conference, support was provided in Kentucky, North Carolina, the Caribbean, and Puerto Rico.

Support for the HIV/AIDS community continued through Quality of Life Retreats ministry; 61 men and women gathered for refuge, restoration and worship three times in 2019. Many participants this year were first-timers and we praise God for their presence.

Subject matter experts from across the United Methodist Connection delivered training, developed new curricula, and coordinated special events covering a host of health topics. The Wellness and Missions Board distributed more than $30,000 to support these efforts.

In the year ahead, the Wellness and Missions Board will work to increase our capacity to equip more people in these areas by offering six ERT Trainings, by sponsoring five short term mission trips, by providing specialized training in response to identified holistic health needs of each District. Topics under development include AED operation, trauma-informed care, human sex trafficking, and suicide prevention.

A rise in facility usage fees in the DC area threatens the vitality of Quality of Life Retreats. In 2020, this Board endeavors to increase awareness of the HIV/AIDS ministry and work with local congregations, and other partners, to respond to the needs of this vulnerable population.

Rev. Heath Wilson, Chair

Quality of Life Retreats

Purpose: Spiritual Retreat offerings for people living with HIV/AIDS (PLWHA) in the regions of the Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church (BWCUMC)

Goals for 2019:

1. Provide three four-day retreats (two co-ed and one for women only).
2. Prioritize first-time retreat applicants for admission to each retreat.
3. Explore new partnerships and funding sources.

Impact in 2019:

1. Three retreats served 61 participants: 43 women and 18 men with average ages between 59 and 69 years old. Most participants were from underserved urban regions of the BWC.
2. Success in admitting a majority of first-time participants to each retreat.

3. Work continued on forming new partnerships and exploring funding sources.

Goals for 2020:

1. Provide two four-day retreats (both co-ed); reduction in number of retreats driven by significant price increases at retreat facilities.
2. Consultation with fundraising professional who has volunteered to help Quality of Life Retreats develop strategies to increase outreach to United Methodist congregations, enhance visibility within the BW Conference, and develop skills among retreat participants, volunteers, and Board members for personal visits and informational presentations to local congregations, civic groups, seminaries, etc.
3. Continue to explore alternative retreat sites and to prioritize first-time retreat applicants for admission to each retreat.

Young People's Ministry Board

Purpose: To activate, connect, and engage more young people as disciples of Jesus for the transformation of lives, churches, and communities.

The YPM Board celebrates that they met or exceeded the majority of the yearly benchmarks set to help achieve the nine goals established as part of their three-year strategic plan. Benchmarks achieved or surpassed in 2019:

- ☐ Surpassed the benchmark to engage over 200 college students through BWC connected ministries on at least six different campuses by engaging at least 280 students and adding Anne Arundel Community College and Gallaudet University as BWC connected campus ministries.
- ☐ Launched two experiments in empowering young adults in leadership through the University of Maryland Terp HUB and Young Adult Leaders Mastermind Group.
- ☐ More than 450 youth participated in some type of leadership training, far above the benchmark number of 60.
- ☐ More than 420 youth leaders participated in leadership training, far above the benchmark number of 75.
- ☐ Two young adult-led innovative initiatives (Coop's Soups and Church Mind & Matter) were launched in 2019.
- ☐ Determined 2,974 as a baseline number for how many youth and young adults participated in regional, district, conference or denomination-sponsored events in 2018.

2020 Goals:

- ☐ Engage 350 college students through BWC connected ministries on at least nine different campuses.
- ☐ Launch four new experiments in empowering young adults in leadership.
- ☐ At least 450 students participate in leadership training.
- ☐ 150 youth leaders participate in one leadership training event sponsored or referred by the conference.
- ☐ Launch at least five young adult initiatives by December 2020 and create a project plan and timeline for implementing a comprehensive process for innovations in Young People's Ministry.
- ☐ 15 churches have increased the number of youth engaged in their churches to a new level of participation.
- ☐ In collaboration with the Commission on Disability Ministry, all churches in the conference have been invited to complete a special-needs readiness assessment, and at least 75% of churches have completed it.
- ☐ In collaboration with the Wellness and Missions Board, a game plan has been drafted for supporting the mental health of youth and young adults throughout the conference and providing resources to churches to help youth leaders at local churches address mental health issues, like anxiety, depression, and suicide, with their youth.

In addition to these 2019 benchmarks and 2020 goals, the YPM board will continue to focus on creating a culture of ministry across the BWC where young people are the agents of ministry and not just recipients of ministry.

Committee on Hispanic-Latino Committee

The purpose of this committee is to “support the development, implementation, and evaluation of a Hispanic-Latino comprehensive plan of action and the strategies for working with Hispanic-Latino persons of all generations in the community (BOD 2016, ¶655).”

Goal: To identify, equip, and engage leaders to build relationships and do justice with Hispanic-Latinos in their community so that more first- and second-generation Hispanic-Latinos can love God and their neighbor.

Impact:

- Hispanic-Latino Ministries Annual Camp. About 166 people participated in the retreat, with great participation of young adults, youth, and children. The theme was “United in Christ.”
- Seventeen students received their missionary certification at the 2019 annual conference. These leaders are working with their pastors to expand the vision of their local church and bringing change to the lives of their neighbors.
- We supported the creation of the Hispanic Youth Leadership Academy (HYLA) in DC at Wesley Theological Seminary which took place in July 2019.
- Immigration Border Trip in October 2019. Twenty people participated (youth and young adults) as well as pastors and laity. Out of this project, there were five outcomes:
 - Out of the twenty trip participants, fifteen are now members of the BWC Immigration Task Force;
 - Migration Sunday resource created by participants;
 - One young adult who participated in the Immigration Border Immersion went back to volunteer at the border at the end of January. This same young adult is now supporting the youth group of Salem Hispanic UMC, a church with a large undocumented immigrant community;
 - Two participants are now connected to the Board of Child Care who has a program for unaccompanied minors in our region;
 - The group has raised more than $5,000 to support the John 3:65 Dining Room, a program of the Methodist Church in Mexico.

Goals For 2019:

- Connectional Commitment: Increase participation at MARCHA and HYLA
- Education and Advocacy: Continue the Border Immersions. The 2020 emphasis will be on Immigration and Environmental Justice
- Faithful Discipleship: Continue the lay leadership school with a focus on theology and liturgy. Also, the creation of a new curriculum on Christian education

Commission on Archives and History / United Methodist Historical Society and the Strawbridge Shrine Association

Three hundred years ago, this year, young John Wesley entered Christ Church College, Oxford University. He was destined, it seemed, to complete seminary and return to Epworth, Lincolnshire, to succeed his father in the pulpit of St. Andrew’s Church. Five years later he would indeed be ordained and serving as his father’s assistant, but ten years later he would be back at Oxford and, with his brother Charles, organizing a “Holy Club,” which their fellow students would derisively christen “Methodist.”

History had not unfolded as might have been expected. When his father died in 1735, John Wesley would prepare to take on a parish pastorate, but not Epworth, instead Savannah, in the American colony of Georgia. That wouldn’t work out as he hoped, and he would leave feeling broken and beaten. Then, in a meeting of the Moravian Brethren who he had met on his journey, he would find his “heart strangely warmed”, and gain the strength to renew his mission and ministry. The rest is history. It is, in fact, our history and, in a time of turmoil, we are reminded that our history has seldom unfolded as expected.

Our mission is to remember the unfolding of that history. The deep history of people now called United Methodists in this Baltimore-Washington area offers rare resources that may allow us to tell the story of our faith in a new way. Our United Methodist Pilgrimage Taskforce believes that engagement with the hard issues encountered by our forebearers in the faith is a fruitful way of encountering our history and growing in our faith.

The support of the Conference, particularly in preserving our collections at Lovely Lane and our premiere heritage landmark, the Strawbridge Shrine, has positioned us well to reach out in new ways. We are aware that to develop support and visitation we must go out beyond our sites, even beyond our conference bounds. The Pilgrimage Taskforce began work in 2018 with the interest of developing resources that would attract and engage visiting pilgrims with the rich and diverse stories of United Methodism in the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

The Taskforce recommends development of resources which could be made available to potential pilgrims, church study groups, and confirmation classes to promote and guide pilgrimage this area. A case study developed as a part of this effort describing the sacramental conflict between Francis Asbury and Robert Strawbridge was used in the Who Are We? study.

We are concerned, however, that current staffing and infrastructure at our places of potential pilgrimage is not sufficient to promote pilgrimage or welcome pilgrims on a large scale. We recognize that a different organization of the components of the Archives and History Program may be necessary in order to capitalize on the historical resources with which we have been entrusted.

In the coming year, in which our only firm expectation is that change will occur, we intend to research how our program might be changed and developed to fulfill our mission and ministry of memory.

Emora Brannan, President United Methodist Historical Society
Wm. Louis Piel, Interim Co-President Strawbridge Shrine Association
Douglas Tzan, Chair United Methodist Pilgrimage Taskforce

Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees holds in trust for the benefit of the Annual Conference any real or personal property, bequests, and donations conveyed to the Annual Conference, and acts to safeguard the rights and interests of the Annual Conference.

The Board of Trustees is composed of clergy and lay people from each region who volunteer their time, spirit and experience to this service, along with Ex Officio members who are staff of the BW Conference including the CFO, Controller, Facilities Manager, Cabinet representative and bishop. As chair of this committee I am grateful that every member of this board is engaged, active and attentive and possessing of insight, critical thought and Christian love. I thank each of them, and I thank our Lord for calling them to service.

The Trustees administer several funds in support of their work. Apportioned funds include the Trustees Fund (which pays property insurance, utilities, maintenance and capital expenses) and the Conference Center Fund (which pays mortgage, service contracts, computer and telecommunications, supplies and other related costs). The Trustees Fund finished 2019 slightly over budget due to reduced Mission Share income and increased insurance expense for closed church properties. The Mission Center Fund finished the year under budget. The Board of Trustees also administer non-apportioned funds; the Parsonage Reserves and Mission Center Reserves for the long-term care and replacement of those properties. The District Funds receive monies from the sale of closed church properties. Such funds are designated by Discipline for use in the urban areas or non-urban areas in which the properties are located. Lastly the Trustees administer funds for grants and loans (through the Unified Funding Taskforce). Currently the Trustees have thirty-two outstanding loans to local congregations dating back to 2011 with balances totaling just over 1.5 million dollars.

Following the specially called General Conference of 2019, the Baltimore-Washington Board of Trustees had been charged by the newly created ¶ 2553 of the Book of Discipline (2016) with developing additional standard terms supplemental to the minimum terms of the GCF&A template for local congregations of this Annual Conference wishing to disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church due to specific actions of the General Conference related to human sexuality “or the actions or inactions of its annual conference related to these issues which follow.” The Board of Trustees had made good progress in this work in balancing the duty of the Annual Conference and the rights of the local congregations, and was in the process of receiving feedback as mandated from the Cabinet, the Commission on Finance and Administration and Connectional Ministries when, in the fall of 2019, the Commission for the General Conference ruled that the vote which led to the establishment of ¶ 2553 was invalid due to voting irregularities at General Conference. Following this, the Judicial Council declined to make a specific ruling on this issue of voting. Thus, lacking Disciplinary authority to pursue such work, the Board of Trustees realigned this effort from implementation to investigation, recognizing that ¶ 2553 was one of many possible scenarios which could come to pass. As of this writing, the Protocol of Reconciliation & Grace through Separation, which includes ¶ 2553 has drawn broad support moving into the General Conference.

Also passed at the 2019 General Conference was Petition 90016 which added subparagraph 23 to ¶ 1504 requiring that any church which closes, disaffiliates or is abandoned “shall contribute a withdrawal liability in an amount equal to its pro rata share of any aggregate unfunded pension obligations to the annual conference.” The Baltimore-Washington Conference Trustees have been working with the Board of Pensions to determine a procedure for determining a church’s pro-rata share, which will be applied both to future closures and disaffiliations and also retroactively to any closure since the end of February 2019.

In other financial stewardship since the last Annual Conference; the trustees have been tracking bequests from the three different estates made to closed churches which passed in trust to the Baltimore-Washington Conference. As of this reporting, none have progressed to the point of disbursing funds. The Trustees have also worked to bring loans owed to the Conference current and to negotiate rents with several tenants of closed-church properties. A major project has been the renting of the commercial space on the ground floor of the Conference Center. After marketing the property in commercial listings, the Eternal Dermatology Clinic was identified as the best option for tenancy. Extensive work was done with the tenant’s engineers and architects to refurbish the space for their needs and more work was done to negotiate the long-term lease.

This year saw a noteworthy amount of property activity. Among the highlights was the purchase of a new episcopal residence for the Conference as approved at annual conference 2019. We were fortunate to identify several likely choices in a short timeframe, and in consultation with the Episcopal Residence Committee and with funding approval by CFA, were able to settle on an ideally located property which conforms with updated Disciplinary requirements. Concurrent with this, the trustees completely remediated the mold outbreak at the former residence and sold that property within six months. Financing was done internally so as to avoid interest payments on loans both short and long term.

Another mold outbreak at the director’s residence at Camp Manidokan demanded another full remediation and refurbishment. This prompted further consideration within the Camping long-term plan which saw that residence repurposed as a multipurpose camp building while a new pre-fabricated home was commissioned. That residence is currently under construction and due to be installed in 2020. The trustees are also proud to approve West River’s plan for a “living shoreline” project which will beautify that waterfront along with being considerably more environmentally responsible.

Responding to concerns of dangerous conditions at Mt. Hebron, the Heritage Landmark site for the Evangelical United Brethren, the Trustees coordinated the removal of several dead trees at this difficult to access property. The Trustees also supported major upgrades to the Conference Archives and Historical Society Museum at Lovely Lane. These improvements, primarily to climate control, will protect the historic documents and artifacts there, as well as making conditions healthier for the Conference staff and the many visitors and confirmation classes.

Another historically significant property, Mt. Vernon Place United Methodist Church in Baltimore City, was a particular focus as that congregation made a bold choice to value their ministry above the historic landmark building, which had begun to dominate their time, energy and funds. Turning the building over to the BW Trustees, the congregation has been re-energized to be in and of the community. The BW Trustees have worked on many fronts to find a partnership which could take possession of the building with the resources to repair and restore it in accordance with historic restrictions, and with an emphasis and maintaining a place in the building for the congregation as tenants.

Another congregation to celebrate is the Bethany Korean UMC in Ellicott City. The BW Trustees were pleased to be able to make available to that congregation the building of the former Rockland UMC, where they had been renters at the time of Rockland’s closure.

Over the last year the BW Trustees have held in trust for the Conference the properties of seventeen closed churches. Some of the noteworthy properties in addition to the aforementioned include the former Centre Street UMC in Cumberland which continues to be home to an active early learning center, the former Centennial Caroline church in Baltimore city at which the Trustees are currently in negotiations with a community service organization, St. Paul’s (part of the Big Poole charge), Mt. Zion in Frederick and Salem in West Virginia.

The Trustees are also pleased to be of service to active local churches who, over the past year, have sought Trustee help with issues relating to accessibility, parsonage rental and sale and other matters.

As of this writing it is not known what the coming year will bring for the future of the denomination, the application of Trust Clause, and the many ways in which real and personal property will be used to be the presence of Jesus Christ in the communities for various connections of Methodism. In whatever ways the Discipline allows, the Trustees are humbled to be in stewardship of these tools for the transformation of the world.

Respectfully Submitted,
John M. Strawbridge, Chair of the Board of Trustees

Conference Moving Committee

Purpose: To assist Pastors and Conference Staff in their relocation needs based on appointments and assignments within the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

Goals:

- ☐ To provide a quality and timely moving experience.
- ☐ To contain the costs, while providing quality and exceptional customer service for our pastors.
- ☐ To provide an orderly and professional move within the time constraints of the Conference.
- ☐ To provide time between moves for local churches to prepare the parsonage/office properly for the incoming Pastor.

Impact:

- ☐ In the calendar year of 2019, the moving committee assisted in over 75 moves for the Conference.
- ☐ The average cost per move was $3,470.75 in 2019.
- ☐ Most moves were accomplished in one day (1), except those which moved pastors with special concerns or long distance moves.
- ☐ Most churches had the opportunity to prepare for the incoming pastor without delays so that the new pastor could immediately start in their new ministry setting, which allowed for a better transition between Pastors and a more effective start.

This year:

- ☐ Our goal this year is to continue building on the outstanding service provided by our District move coordinators and the Moving Companies for our Pastors in the year 2019.
- ☐ To provide excellent moving assistance in 2020, in light of the unique challenges we may face this year.

With Grace and Peace,
Rev. Jeff Paulson
Chairperson of the Baltimore-Washington Moving Committee

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

The Stewardship program and the Budget of the BWC for 2020 has been completely overtaken and dominated by the Coronavirus Pandemic resulting in the closure of all of the churches of the BWC in mid-March in compliance with government directives. Local church tithes and offerings declined by 4.5% overall with 35% of churches showing a decline of 10% or more. However, 41% of our churches reported an increase in tithes and offerings over 2019. Mission shares declined by 16% in the first half leaving a hole in the 2020 budget of $1 million. CFA has reduced expenses from $14 million to $12.4 million. The Collection Rate for 2020 is now projected to be between 77 and 84%.

Virtually all of the negative impact from the Coronavirus Pandemic closures occurred in March, April and May. Many of the churches received PPP loans and we started to see the positive effect of that in May and June. The Board of Pensions announced a 3-month waiver of benefit payments and Small Church Grants for local churches with no pension obligations. The Trustees offered 3-month deferrals on conference loans. CFA also set aside $615,000 for emergency grants if any church found themselves unable to pay a pastor's salary.

The good news is that Mission shares in June increased back to near normal levels and CFA is optimistic that the balance of the year will be on budget and that the collection rate will be closer to the 84% projection. Currently 26% of our churches think they will return to some level of in person services soon but almost half are uncertain when they will return to in person services. Most churches (81%) have some form of online services and 72% now have online giving programs. And 47% of churches increased their community relief efforts during the Coronavirus Pandemic and shutdown.

We support continuing efforts to control the Coronavirus but we anticipate that those efforts will continue to adversely affect many of our local churches and the BWC well into 2021. Most experts estimate that an effective vaccine will not be widely available before mid-2021. These prospects and the effects on the 2020 budget led the CFA to recast the 2021 budget it presented to the Connectional Table in February. At the Annual Conference in September, CFA presented a revised budget that set a $13 million mission share budget and an 87.5% collection rate. This is a change from a mission share budget in 2019 of $14.3 million to $12.4 million in 2020 and now $13 million for 2021.

We still face the effect of the potential changes to be determined by the General Conference regarding The Way Forward proposals. That was postponed from May 2020 to September 2021. BWC will hold its Annual Conference right after that when CFA will present the 2022 Budget. CFA is extending its 2022 budget preparations well into 2021 so we can take advantage of full actual data from 2020 and better knowledge about both the effect of the Coronavirus Pandemic and the approach of the General Conference. CFA continues to maintain a Reserve of 15% and contingency plans for as much as a 25% decline in budget revenues.

2019 Financial Results (Pre-Audit):

Income

The mission share income in 2019 was $13,745,976 with an overall collection rate of 88.5%. The collection rate budget was set at 92.0% and the mission shares received were below budget by $549,000 (3.9%). 1.5% of this reduction was due to an increased number of church closures in 2019. Taking this into account, the collection rate for active churches remained relatively high at 90.0%. Other aspects of the shortfall were related to a noted weakness in approximately 12-15 churches of medium size who historically give 100% towards their mission share goals and for a variety of reasons had to reduce their giving in 2019 by 10-50%.

2018: 90.6%	2012: 89.1%
2017: 92.5%	2011: 90.5%
2016: 92.1%	2010: 90.5%
2015: 91.7%	2009: 89.2%
2014: 90.8%	2008: 87.0%

The number of churches contributing 100% towards their mission shares remained high with 80% of our local churches meeting that standard. The number of churches giving 100% of their mission shares was 82% in 2017 and 2018, 84% in 2016 and 83% in 2015.

The non-mission share income in 2019 was $4.1 million which was $302,000 (6.8%) less than budget. The primary factor in this result was the decision that it was not necessary to use $200,000 of closed church proceeds to support the activities related to new church starts. Non-mission share income was also down $56,000 from the loss tenant income at the Mission Center during the transition to a new tenant.

Expenses

The operating expenses in 2019 were $17.7 million which was $1,014,000 (5.4%) less than budget. The decision to underrun the expense budget by slightly more than 5% was made in response to the shortfall in total income of $851,000.

Tight control of the spending plan enabled salary and benefits savings of $175,000 in addition to delayed releases of grants for new church starts and new faith ministries that accounted for under spending of $610,000. Discipleship Ministries also contributed savings of $148,000 or 4.8% of the budget. The most significant financial pressure was on the legal expenses that exceeded budget by $110,000 due to higher than normal activities.

Overall, the resulting net income prior to audit was a positive $163,000 which is 0.9% of budget. Good expense control in 2019 ensured that the net result was positive even in light of the shortfalls in overall income.

BWC Apportionment Base:

The apportionment base for a local church is comprised of the total expenses of a local church as they are reported in the annual collection of statistical data, minus dollars that are spent on mission, outreach, debt service and capital projects. The mission shares for a local church is derived by multiplying the apportionment base by the benevolence factor that is established by the Annual Conference when the budget is approved. The 2021 budget will reduce the benevolence factor to 17.55% which yields a mission share that is most commonly in the range of 9-12% of total local church expenses or income.

The apportionment base for the Conference is an aggregated total of the apportionment bases that are calculated for each local church. The reported base decreased by 3.2% in 2019 which is a significant change from the 8-year trend that has remained relatively flat. The apportionment base trends with the year-over-year changes are as follows:

2018:	$ 87,713,316 (-0.7%)
2017:	$ 88,283,704 (+1.0%)
2016:	$ 87,449,322 (+0.4%)
2015:	$ 87,072,403 (-0.8%)
2014:	$ 87,780,638 (+1.1%)
2013:	$ 86,835,908 (+0.8%)
2012:	$ 86,169,509 (-1.3%)
2011:	$ 87,341,343 (-2.1%)
2010:	$ 89,250,232

COVID-19 Update

Starting in mid-March 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic shuttered Conference churches. The 2020 General Conference was postponed from early-May 2020 until August 2021. The 2020 Annual Conference was postponed from late-May 2020 at the Marriott Waterfront in Baltimore and held on September 12, 2020 as a virtual event hosted at the Mission Center. As of the writing of this report in September 2020, most churches in the Conference continue to worship online as they work on plans to resume in-person worship.

As congregations moved to online services and online giving during the pandemic, a survey from July 2020 reported that tithes and offerings on average were down by 4.5% compared to the giving trends in the prior year. Local churches also reported that expenses had been reduced by 5.4% on average in response to the reduced donations.

The Small Business Administration offered all businesses and non-profits 2.5 months of payroll costs as part of the Payroll Protection Program (PPP). 58% of Conference churches applied for the PPP Funds and more than 89% of churches were successful in receiving those funds. When accounting for the PPP Funds, the average income for Conference churches increased by 1.3% through the first half of 2020 compared to 2019.

Overall, the 4.5% decline in tithes and offering within the Conference was more than offset by the receipt of PPP funds by local churches. In fact, 56% of churches reported their total income during the pandemic was higher than the prior year.

We are thankful that many churches reported that they are finding a way to meet their COVID financial challenges.

At the same time, it is important for us to realize that 15% of BWC churches struggled with total income declines of greater than 20%.

2021 Budget:

The proposed budget for 2021 builds on the strategic initiatives that were first introduced in the 2017 budget. These initiatives include:

1. Increase Level of CFA Reserves from 10% to 15%

The CFA Reserves reached the 15% goal at the end of 2019. The goal was accomplished in only 3 years.

2. Accelerate Payment of Conference Debt

The consolidated loan for the West River Dining Hall and the Mission Center will be reduced to a balance of $665,000 with the proposed 2021 budget with a small accelerated debt payment of $85,000. The loan balance stood at $5.2 million at the end of 2016 prior to starting the accelerated payments. The Conference remains on pace to pay off the loan in 2022 which will be 6 years ahead of schedule with $1.0 million total savings in interest payments.

3. Fund Retiree Medical Benefits from Reserves

Retiree medical benefits will continue to be funded from the Board of Pension reserves without any additional funding coming from mission shares. The retiree medical funding in 2021 is set at $1,640,000 which is based on the current expense trends for this benefit.

The 2021 budget reduces the benevolence factor from 17.6% to 17.55%. This reduction continues to support CFA's multi-year plan that the average church's mission shares be no more than 10% of their overall income. That level is currently calculated at 11.2% based on the 2019 statistics. This is the same level calculated in 2018. The metric is down from 12.3% in 2011.

Overall, the budget proposal specifies a mission share income of $13,034,887 which is a reduction of $1.0M or 7.2% from the prior year. The budget assumes a mission share collection rate of 87.5% which is a reflection of the reduced collections observed during the pandemic. The non-mission share income is increased by $72,000 to $4,665,000 which is driven by increases in external grants and event income.

The expense budget reflects a large reduction in the General Church apportionment of $557,000 or 15.7% to $3.0 million that is anticipated to be approved at the postponed 2020 General Conference. A staff salary freeze was also included in the 2021 budget as the local churches recover from the impacts of the pandemic.

Summary

CFA will maintain its focus on the effects of the Coronavirus Pandemic on the churches of the BWC in both 2020 and 2021. We will continue to monitor local church tithes and offerings as well as local church income. We are optimistic that most of the BWC churches are recovering from the abrupt closures of our churches in mid-March and the loss of revenues in March, April and May. Monthly actual receipts of mission shares in June, July and August have recovered and are very close to the budgeted amounts. This indicates we can be optimistic that we can continue the rest of the year very close to budget.

State and local governments are also easing restrictions on churches to restart in person services and that will help many of our churches make decisions when to restart in person worship services and other events in their buildings. This, of course, assumes that there is not a resurgence of the infection rates of the virus and increased hospitalizations that could precipitate renewed lockdown orders.

The 2021 Budget reflects the experience to date on the 2020 Budget. Mission share revenue is set at $13 million for 2021 which is $1 million less than the budget for 2020. The recast Collection Rate for 2021 is 87.5% which is a reach for us given the projected CR for 2020 between 77 to 84%. The General Conference was moved to September 2021 from its original schedule in May 2020. The mediated proposal on The Way Forward will thus not be decided until then. The concerns we had on the financial effects of that which we anticipated for 2020 have also been deferred and are still unknown. Some of the impact may be seen in 2021 but more likely in 2022.

The Annual Conference for BWC is currently set to follow General Conference in September/October 2021 which will be when the 2022 Budget would normally be approved. CFA is considering extending the preparation time for that budget by at least 3-4 months from our normal schedule, which would allow us to have actual data for all of 2020 to make our calculations. We believe this will help us make our budget assumptions more accurate for 2022.

The BWC began 2020 with a stable financial position and that has allowed us to weather the Coronavirus Pandemic economic storm reasonably well. We are concerned about a few of our churches which are struggling and CFA will continue to monitor those and seek ways to assist them. As a denomination we continue to face trying times, but we are blessed as we have increased our spiritual outreach into our communities, trying to serve all our neighbors as Christ would have us do.

Respectfully Submitted,

Phil Potter, President, Council on Finance and Administration
Paul J. Eichelberger, Conference Treasurer

NARRATIVE SUMMARY OF THE 2021 PROPOSED CONFERENCE BUDGET

Budget Assumptions

Benevolence Factor – Proposed 2021: 17.550%

The benevolence factor is the percentage churches are apportioned based on their operating expenditures less exclusions. The percentage for 2021 is .05% less than the percentage used in 2020 (17.600%).

Mission Shares Collection Rate - Proposed 2021: 87.5%

The projected collection of the amount apportioned to churches in the 2021 Budget is 87.5%. The percentage for 2021 is 3.5% less than the budgeted Collection Rate for 2020 (91%) based on the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Revenue

Mission Shares: $13,034,887

A church's share of the local and global mission work and operating expenses of the Annual Conference as determined by the mission shares formula.

Grants: $227,300

This represents grants given directly to the conference for ministry and mission. For example, General Church grants to operate the Episcopal Office and residence.

Event Registration: $2,263,462

This includes Annual Conference registration, workshop registrations, Retreat and Camping Ministries registrations (majority of line item) and other conference events.

Publications: $4,100

This includes sales or rentals of publications, DVDs, paid UMConnection subscriptions, and other materials.

Individual Gifts:

Gifts from individuals for specific programs. These are for the conference, specifically, rather than for ministries outside of the conference. No such gifts are anticipated in 2021.

Reimbursements: $100,000

The conference receives reimbursements from denominational agencies for specific operating programs. The Mission Center tenant leases are also captured in this revenue category.

Other Income/Sources of Funds: $2,020,504

Miscellaneous income or sources of funds, such as the funding from agency reserve funds. For example, Retiree Medical expenses (majority of line item) are 100% paid from the Board of Pension Reserves. The funds from the sale of discontinued churches are used to fund a portion of the New Faith Expressions.

Interest: $50,000

An estimate of the interest the conference will earn on operating funds in investment vehicles.

TOTAL OPERATING REVENUE: $ 17,700,253

Discipleship Council Report

The Discipleship Council: (a) functions, as necessary, on behalf of the Annual Conference in between sessions; (b) ensures that Conference resources align to our vision, mission, and critical issues; and (c) discerns, develops, reviews, and evaluates the strategic direction of the Conference toward its vision and goals. It coordinates and consults with the Conference Council on Finance and Administration regarding the annual budget.

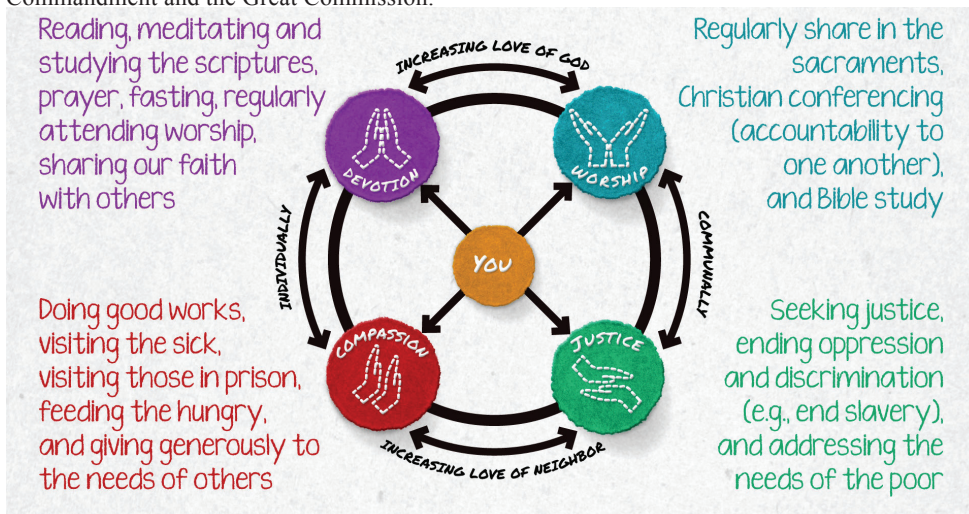

As we began our ministry year, we centered our work around the mission and vision of the Annual Conference, the BWC inspires and equips local faith communities to develop disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world so that more transformed lives transform lives. Deepening discipleship is at the heart of everything we do — leader development, new faith expressions, young people’s ministry, advocacy & action and wellness & missions — all undergird this.

We accomplished the following:

1. Celebrate the achievements of our new Discipleship Agencies represented by the following boards: Leader Development, New Faith Expressions, Young People’s Ministry, Advocacy & Action, Wellness & Missions). Details progress towards their goals may be found immediately following this report.
2. Identify, develop and implement meaningful, shared metrics regarding ministry effectiveness. We began a multipronged approach to discern the most meaningful ways to measure ministry effectiveness starting with the number of people who are engaged and maturing in Wesleyan Discipleship as well as the impact being made in communities in which our churches and ministries reside. Through the development and implementation of a shared metrics systems we seek to reclaim the core aspects of Wesleyan Discipleship.

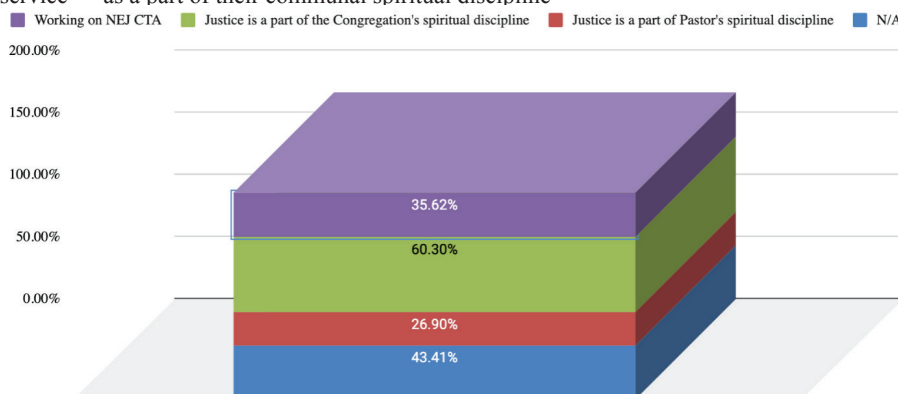

Wesley and the early Methodists were particularly concerned about inviting people to experience God’s grace and to grow in their knowledge and love of God through disciplined Christian living. They placed primary emphasis on Christian living, on putting faith and love into action. This emphasis on what Wesley referred to as “practical divinity” has continued to be a hallmark of United Methodism today. As United Methodists, we unite as disciples engaged in “witness[ing] to Jesus Christ in the world and following His teachings through acts of compassion, justice, worship, and devotion under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.” (The General Rule of Discipleship, ¶ 1117.2a)

John Wesley taught that God’s grace is unearned and that we were not to be idle waiting to experience grace, but we are to engage in the means of grace. The means of grace are ways God works invisibly in disciples, hastening, strengthening; and confirming faith so that God’s grace pervades in and through disciples. As we look at the means of grace today, they can be divided into works of piety (worship and devotion) and the works of mercy (compassion and justice). All together these encompass the Great Commandment and the Great Commission.

Therefore, our discernment process led us to the following impact factors that determine ministry effectiveness:

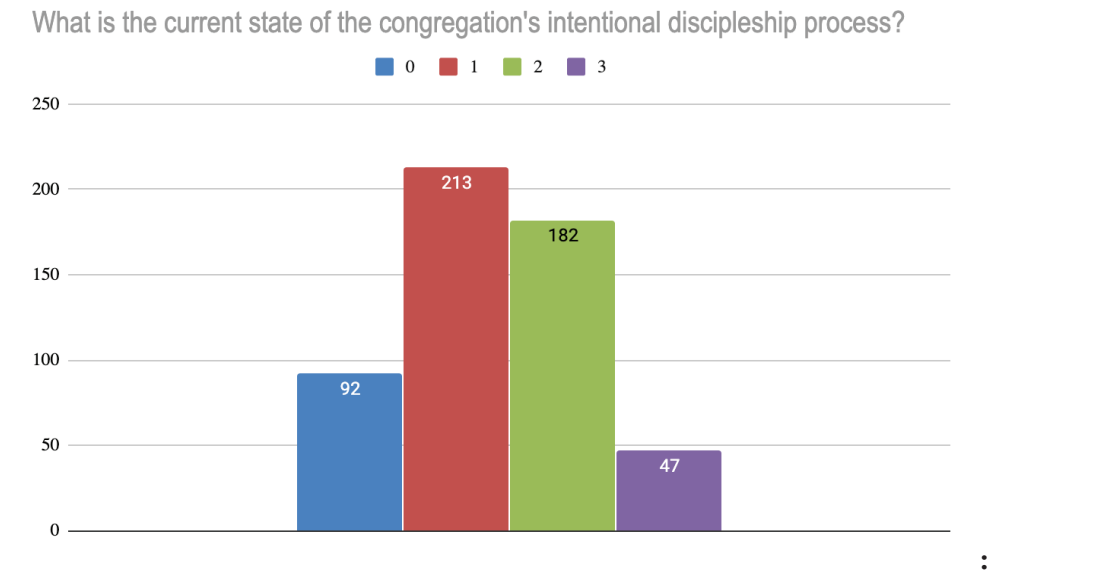

- a. NEW connections in church and community. This includes new relationships, new participation, new pathways to discipleship
 - b. Synergy – this includes ministries that are replicable and sustainable and have a healthy balance between input and output.
 - c. Ministries are connected to maturing in Wesleyan discipleship. This relates to the ministry’s “why.”
 - d. Lead to transformative experiences
3. Developed a “pilot” Transformed Lives, Transform Lives survey that we hope helps measure maturation in Wesleyan discipleship in the areas of Devotion, Worship, Compassion and Justice. The purpose of the survey is to measure whether or not BWC churches and ministries are making progress on the mission (making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world). This pilot survey will also help us to determine whether measuring transformation in our holistic understanding of Wesleyan discipleship is helpful to individuals and ministries at the local church as the annual conference needs to measure whether or not we are being effective in our mission of inspiring and equipping local faith communities for their mission. The survey format includes open-ended questions that identify growth/transformation in the four areas of Wesleyan Discipleship. We believe the open-ended format will be more inviting to respondents and it also reflects our theology of Christian perfection. Process of discipleship is intentional and ongoing through our lives.
 4. Began gathering data about pathways to maturing discipleship. We accomplished this through additional questions in the Pastors’ reports during the 2019 Charge Conference season. Pastors were asked to respond to questions about their church’s engagement in justice and specifically, the NEJ CTA on racial justice. Pastors were also asked to respond to questions regarding the congregation’s process for intentional discipleship and how they measure impact. As we reviewed the data gathered from those reports, we celebrate the fact that in the area of justice:
 - a. More than 1/3 of pastors reported concrete congregational engagement with the NEJ Call to Action
 - b. 60% of our congregations practice justice — not just compassionate service — as a part of their communal spiritual discipline

Note: The reason this adds up to more than 100% is that some answers described multiple categories.

Additionally, in the area of intentional discipleship practices among congregations we celebrate the number of persons reporting that congregations are:

- a. talking about implementing an intentional discipleship process (213)
- b. working on implementing an intentional discipleship process (182)
- c. identified as able to serve as a teaching congregation to develop and use an intentional discipleship process. (47)

KEY0=We are not able to talk about developing an intentional discipleship process as there are many other urgent matters

1=We are talking about implementing an intentional discipleship process

2=We are working on implementing an intentional discipleship process

3=We could serve as a teaching congregation on how to develop and use an intentional discipleship process

Lastly, in the area of congregations’ process for measuring impact, the responses affirmed that congregations are open to learning how to measure impact better; and that many recognize that participation numbers don’t tell the whole story and sometimes are inadequate. This is vital information that we can use as we continue to refine the development of a process for measuring outcomes.

We are grateful for all of the pastors who took time to respond to these questions and all the information obtained is worthy of celebration because it affirms for us that in the midst of uncertain and challenging times within the life of our denomination, congregations within our annual conference are remaining focused on one the core tenets of our faith – Wesleyan discipleship.

- Developed, approved and published a statement of support in response to the Protocol for Reconciliation and Grace through Separation. We affirm and support the deliberate and thoughtful process that undergirded this agreement; and we also support the Protocol’s call to hold in abeyance any charges related to LGBTQIA+ clergypersons or those performing same sex weddings and the deep spiritual work needed of prayer, fasting and study. The link to our full statement can be found at <https://www.bwcumc.org/news-and-views/discipleship-council-supports-protocol/>
- Two resolutions were referred to Discipleship Council at 2019 AC: Resolution 15 (Resolution to Do No Harm through Marriage Prohibitions) and Resolution 18 (Resolution to Create a LGBTQIA+ Mission of the BWC). In our time of discernment and deliberation, DC determined that no further action was needed on these resolutions because the protocol addressed the underlying concerns.
- We continue to celebrate the work of Project Transformation, our first ministry partnership through MROC. Their second summer was 2019 where 65 children participated in the program (located at Hughes Memorial and Brighter Day Ministries). Of the children that participated: 81% improved their reading level and 16% maintained their reading level. Additionally, of the 11 young adults that were engaged in service with PT DC: 80% reported having a life changing experiencing. We thank God for the 250 volunteers that helped to support this ministry effort. We also applaud the potential expansion of this ministry model – in collaboration with pastors and congregations of the Baltimore-Metropolitan district -- in Baltimore City during the summer of 2020!

In the coming year we seek to:

- c. Provide support to the annual conference in addressing any critical issues that arise in a manner consistent with our foundational doctrinal standards and the fact that we are one in Christ Jesus.
- d. Continue to measure progress toward Discipleship Agency goals which are essential to the mission of inspiring and equipping local faith communities to make disciples of Jesus Christ.
- e. Continue to support the NEJ CTA goals. One specific step toward fulfilling that goal is that our Fall 2020 CT meeting will include a training for all AC leaders in intercultural competency. This will equip all those who are leading ministry teams/areas with the necessary understanding and tools to ensure full inclusivity within their ministry areas.
- f. Continue to crystalize our system for measuring ministry effectiveness at the local faith community level. One next step in this area is to convene a group of churches (pastor + lay person) who identified their congregations as potential teaching congregations for intentional discipleship to develop some shared, meaningful conference metrics/approaches to measuring missional impact. We will engage relevant persons into conversation about equipping these churches to train/coach other congregations in developing an intentional discipleship process. We anticipate this could take the form of a pilot study that would match teaching congregations with congregations that are ready to engage in creating intentional discipleship pathways.

Submitted By: Rev. Jessica Hayden, Discipleship Council Chair, and Christie Latona, Director of Connectional Ministries:

Rules Committee

Purpose: review the rules of the session, review and update all references to the Book of Discipline, review any resolutions that propose to amend the Rules of the Session, and prepare amendments to the Rules of the Session.

Goals:

1. Update Rules following Annual Conference 2019
2. Prepare for Annual Conference 2020

Impact:

1. We have submitted two resolutions pertaining to the Rules for Annual Conference 2020.

This year: We are continuing to get ready for the upcoming Annual Conference as well as for a possible called special session and will develop an agenda for the rest of the year in response to Annual Conference 2020.

Rev. Mark Gorman, Chair

BWC Out in Mission

The following report was shared as a video by Connectional Ministries Director Christie Latona at the Sept. 12 Annual Conference Session.

When John the Baptist was in prison and wanted to know whether Jesus was actually the long-awaited Messiah, he sent word asking, “‘Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?’” (Matthew 11:2)

In many ways, the layers of health and justice pandemics over the past 6 months and prior have challenged us to answer the question: “Are you the church, or shall we expect someone else?” Just as Jesus sent word back to John, the people of the Baltimore-Washington Conference have lived a hearty response in this challenging season, “The hungry have been fed, the fallen have been encouraged, the sick have recovered, disciples have been made and reclaimed, and Christ has been present and glorified in homes, on street corners, in parking lots, and through peaceful, prophetic prayer and protest. Christ is the ONE who makes us ONE and enables us to go out in mission no matter what!”

The inhumane treatment of George Floyd, Brionna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery, Jacob Blake and too many more at the hands of police and vigilantes brought us to our knees and demanded even bolder action. From peaceful, prayerful protest to commitments to becoming an anti-racist church to monthly preaching and teaching on the gospel messages of all served as a wake-up call and created renewed focus on addressing white supremacy and oppression, and ministries of racial justice were strengthened throughout the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

The Baltimore Metro district went out in mission together in an immersion prayer and action walk from Lovely Lane to St. Matthews to witness and learn of the differences in lived experience. Many churches participated in See Something, Say Something and the community noticed as people honked in support as they drove by and thanked us for being out in mission.

Congregations from across the conference are being good neighbors. At Tom's Creek UMC in Emmitsburg, this includes delivering fresh homemade bread to those homebound and those on front lines like nurses and first responders; delivering bouquets of fresh cut flowers to shut ins and those they have not seen; delivering 2600 meals to people in need and those that cannot get out and providing 60 backpacks for children as the school year begins.

The Mission Central Parish (made up of 7 churches) has raised $6,500 to date for shoes for kids and distributed $12,000 worth of food to families getting ready for school. The Parish vision is that mission-focused ministry grows disciples for Jesus and empowers churches of all sizes while working together for the greater good. These churches, plus others in the Baltimore Suburban District, are dreaming and working towards eliminating lunch debt.

From Father's Day until a week before school starts, United Methodists in Cumberland join with community partners and other denominations to deliver and serve 800 meals a day for school-aged kids in parks and other public spaces. 10 out of 14 United Methodist churches in town provide the person power to make lunches and pack and deliver coolers around town. It is a lifeline for a lot of elementary age children in the area, and is a vibrant example of meeting community needs together.

During the dual pandemics, churches in the Washington East district started collaborating to worship, feed, study and serve communion together. People -- lay and clergy -- are coming together across racial lines of difference to talk, rally and march together. Fostering relationships is at the heart of going out in mission together.

At Ager Road UMC, leaders of the Greater Washington District invested in rebuilding and renovating the church parsonage to provide affordable housing to a local family. This ongoing commitment to leveraging church properties to provide just housing is done in loving memory of the Rev. Adrienne Terry.

Annapolis church leaders gathered at two district events in January and February to reimagine ministry and to see where God was forming some common ground. From projects focused on connecting with young people to partnerships with seniors and mental health facilities to cooperative parish ministries, leaders prepared themselves to build, test, measure and pivot where needed so that more transformed lives transform lives.

When we go out in ministry as a part of our connectional system, legacies are possible that outlive any single congregation. In Central Maryland that happened when Rockland UMC which closed last year, had their church property given to Bethany Korean UMC, a newer congregation which reaches a growing Korean population in the area.

Responding to the desperate needs of immigrants at the Mexican border, the conference sponsored an immersion trip of discovery and outreach for young people, that focused on the intersection of race and immigration and awakened new understanding and support of life-giving ministries.

This year, in which United Methodists set out into the unknown it is clear that -- in the midst of it all -- transformed lives STILL transform lives. Thanks be to God!

Discipleship Council

September 12, 2020

Greetings! My name is Jessica Hayden, chairperson of Discipleship Council. We are grateful for the energy and faithfulness of our ministry team that allowed us to have an impactful year. As all of us have learned during the dual pandemics, rooting ourselves in purpose and mission is essential, both in the local church and the conference, as we all made necessary pivots.

As we began our ministry year, we centered our work around the mission and vision of the Annual Conference, the Baltimore-Washington Conference inspires and equips local faith communities to develop disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world so that more transformed lives transform lives. Deepening discipleship is at the heart of everything we do—leader development, new faith expressions, young people’s ministry, advocacy & action and wellness & missions—all undergird this.

This centering work is important for us so that we can fulfill our responsibility to ensure that Conference resources align to its vision, mission, and critical issues; as we discern, develop, review, and evaluate the strategic direction of the Conference toward its vision and goals

One of our primary goals for the year (pre-COVID) was to identify, develop and implement meaningful, shared metrics regarding Conference ministry effectiveness.

We began a multi-pronged approach to discern the most meaningful ways to measure the number of people who are engaged and maturing in Wesleyan Discipleship as well as the impact being made in communities in which our churches and ministries reside.

We began with discussing what effective metrics would include. We responded to the question, “How do we know world transforming discipling is working?” Or “how do we determine ministry effectiveness. We know it’s working when:

- NEW connections in church and community. This includes new relationships, new participations, new pathways to discipleship
- Synergy – this includes ministries that are replicable and sustainable and have a healthy balance between input and output.
- Ministries are connected to maturing in Wesleyan discipleship. This relates to the ministry’s “why”.
- Lead to transformative experiences

As a reminder, here is the Wesleyan discipleship we are reclaiming

As United Methodists, we unite as disciples engaged in witnessing to Jesus Christ in the world and following His teachings through acts of compassion, justice, worship, and devotion under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

This is rooted in the Great Commandment as we seek to increase in our love of God (through acts of devotion and worship) and increase in our love of neighbor (through acts of compassion and justice) both personally and communally.

Our action and participation is required in order for this not to be a theoretical exercise.

As you and I follow Jesus through engaging in acts of devotion, worship, compassion and justice under the guidance of the Holy Spirit we grow as well-rounded disciples.

The words that surround this Wesleyan Rule of Discipleship are the means of grace. John Wesley taught that God’s grace is unearned and that we are not to be idle waiting to experience grace. We are to engage in the means of grace. This is not an exhaustive list or a list of “to do’s.” The means of grace are ways God works invisibly in disciples, hastening, strengthening, and confirming faith so that God’s grace pervades in and through disciples.

Amidst this pandemic we are learning that practicing the means of grace is not dependent upon our ability to gather for in person worship. Virtual spaces have become spaces for worship, prayer, studying of scriptures.

Ministries of compassion continue to occur as individuals and churches respond to the physical, social and spiritual needs of their neighbors. We have also witnessed the reclaiming of the discipline of justice as individuals and churches have led and participated in marches and protests that call out the sin of racism and work to dismantle it.

We continue to reclaim our Wesleyan discipleship even as we respond to the changing ministry and social landscape.

During the 2019 Church Conference season we began gathering data about pathways to maturing disciples through additional questions in the Pastors' reports. Pastors were asked to respond to questions about their church's engagement in justice and specifically, the NEJ Call To Action on racial justice. Pastors were also asked to respond to questions regarding the congregation's process for intentional discipleship and how they measure impact.

As we reviewed the data gathered from those reports we CELEBRATE the fact that -More than 1/3 of pastors reported concrete congregational engagement with the NEJ Call to Action
 -60% of our congregations practice acts of justice—not just compassionate service—as a part of their communal spiritual disciplines

The reason this adds up to more than 100% is that some written answers described multiple categories

We celebrate the number of people reporting that congregations are: talking about implementing an intentional discipleship process (213) working on implementing an intentional discipleship process (182) identified as able to serve as a teaching congregation to develop and use an intentional discipleship process. (47)

We celebrate this information as it affirms for us that in the midst of uncertain and challenging times -- which at that point in time involved denominational stress--congregations within our annual conference are remaining focused on one the core tenets of our faith: discipleship.

We celebrate that congregations are open to learning how to measure impact better—that many recognize that participation numbers don't tell the whole story and sometimes are inadequate.

All of the data gathered from the Pastor's Reports and from the Discipleships Board Reports inform our approach to the 2020 Goals. We continue to measure progress on board goals which are essential to the mission of inspiring and equipping local faith communities to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Continue to support the NEJ CTA goals. The BaltimoreWashington Conference's (BWC) approach to the NEJ Call to Action (CTA):

- Is rooted in building relationships and creating a culture that allows all persons and cultures to feel safe in having bold conversations and confronting racism;
- Embeds cultural competency and antibias work throughout BWC's existing networks, trainings and gatherings;
Uplifts what is happening at the grassroots level;
- Invites faith communities to engage in conversations and experiences that help them take the next faithful step toward becoming racial justice change agents;
- Optimizes existing opportunities to include training and conversations; and
- Incorporates better assessment and accountability into our systems so that racism is dismantled and multiculturalism enabled.
- We have been making reports on progress Annually to the Northeastern Jurisdiction's Vision Table, Multi-Ethnic Center and Episcopacy Committee. And we have posted those on our NEJ Call to Action webpage.

As a continuation of the NEJ Call to Action for Racial Justice, the Discipleship Council developed the Commitment to Becoming an Anti-Racist Church invitation.

Being anti-racist is believing that racism is everyone's problem and understanding that we all have a role in stopping it. That being said, being anti-racist is a different journey for White people than for Black people and other people of color. No one is born racist or anti-racist; these result from the choices we make.

Making a commitment to become anti-racist is rooted in our Christian discipleship. As we see embodied in the person and ministry of Jesus Christ who proclaimed good news to the poor, freedom for the prisoners, recovery of sight for the blind and that the oppressed be freed, as Christ-followers, we must choose to be anti-racist both individually and collectively.

As we commit to transform our lives, our churches and our society, we acknowledge we each enter this work in different places. Just as the process of intentional discipleship will develop contextually based on the culture, dynamics and needs within each local church; a pathway toward becoming an anti-racist church is also a contextual process that involves meeting people where there are and providing them the resources, grace and accountability to take the next faithful step toward becoming an anti-racist, both individually and collectively.

The expectation is not that a pathway toward becoming an anti-racist church looks the same among congregations. Instead, the expectation is that congregations within the BWC would make a commitment to be on a path. The Commitment to Becoming an Anti-Racist Church offers a shared framework. And we celebrate the more than 300 disciples and 144 churches and church-related institutions within the BWC who have already indicated that they are on this pathway.

Working together, we strive to achieve the following goals:

Increase by at least 10% per year the number of churches who are on a pathway to becoming an anti-racist church so that by 2022 all of our BWC churches are on a path toward becoming racial justice change agents.

Each local church reports on its progress as related to the NEJ Call to Action on Racial Justice and on its internal and external conversations annually at church/charge conference with 10% more churches engaged than the year before so that by 2026 100% of our churches are doing work to grow in our Inter-cultural Competence Covenant (traits of beloved community) throughout the conference.

Therefore we invite you to pray about how God is calling you and your church to be engaged in dismantling racism not for a moment but for a lifetime. As a continuation of the NEJ Call to Action for Racial Justice, we are asking individuals and churches to pledge their Commitment to Becoming an Anti-Racist Church by signing their name to the document that may be found on the conference's racial justice resource page at bwcumc.org/justicenow.

There are two frequently asked questions by those that are considering signing the commitment: "Are individuals or churches supposed to sign?" and "What happens once we do?"

Whether you are one person who is working to move your church toward becoming an anti-racist church or if your church leadership or church as a whole has made the commitment, please sign the commitment. In order to understand the magnitude of commitment, we are asking that each person in your church who has been a part of the decision making process and/or have made a personal commitment, to sign the form.

Your digital signature — along with your church's name, city, and state — will become a part of this movement to make different choices about how you are participating in the dismantling of racism. All BWC congregations will be asked to report on progress on the NEJ Call to Action at their Church Conference in the fall of 2020 and thereafter. While all churches have access to our vast online resources (bwcumc.org/justicenow), those churches who have made the commitment to do this sacred work will be given priority for consultation and cohort formation if desired. There are monthly check-ins for support, encouragement, resourcing and more.

Together we will seek justice, do the work and end racism as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Finally, our third 2020 goal is to continue crystalizing our system for understanding ministry vitality.

We celebrate the effective ministry that is taking place within our local churches before and in the midst of the pandemic. The more we learn about and understand the forms of ministry that are most effective in our varying contexts, the more lives are transformed. The BWC represents diverse and vibrant expression of God's kingdom and there is no one-size model fits all for effective ministry. We want to know what is working well and where pastors or congregations need support so that we can share in the work of making disciples for Christ.

One next step will occur this fall during church/charge conference season. This year's church profile includes elements from last year's Pastor's report and are directly related to the Discipleship Council's work.

Specifically, churches will be invited to provide information on:

- How church members are engaged in Wesleyan Discipleship through rating their participation in WITNESS, COMPASSION JUSTICE, WORSHIP AND DEVOTION
- Defining the current state of the congregation's discipleship process?
- Describing the congregation's current level of vitality
- Identifying where the congregation is on the pathway of becoming an anti-racist church.

As we continue to develop and refine this system of understanding, we will strengthen our ability to inspire and equip local faith communities to better develop disciples for the transformation of the world so that more transformed lives transform lives.

BWC Commits to Becoming Anti-racist Annual Conference

As a continuation of the NEJ Call to Action for Racial Justice, Baltimore-Washington Conference leaders are asking churches to pledge their Commitment to Becoming an Antiracist. Together, we will seek justice, do the work, and end racism as disciples of Jesus Christ. The following information is posted on the BWC website at <https://www.bwcumc.org/ministries/advocacy-action/racial-justice/commit-to-becoming-an-antiracist-church/>, which also contains a link for churches and individuals to sign their commitment.

As people of God, we lament and confess the sin of racism and we commit to work without ceasing, led by the Spirit of God, to resist and deconstruct racism wherever it exists. Our hearts have been broken by the recent deaths of Ahmaud Arbery, Breonna Taylor, George Floyd, and Rayshard Brooks; and we know that their killings are among too many children of God whose lives have been ended as a result of the dehumanization and devaluation of Black lives. We lament the deaths of all impacted by this sin and violence that has plagued our beloved country for far too long. We mourn with all who have seen loved ones taken from them, have experienced racial violence, and those who've lived with the pain and trauma of ignored, rationalized and/or justified interpersonal, institutional, and structural racism.

According to Ibram X. Kendi and others, there are no non-racists. There are only anti-racists — those who challenge racist ideas (policies) wherever they encounter them (including within themselves) — and racists — those who support racist ideas (policies) through their actions or inaction. Being anti-racist is believing that racism is everyone's problem and understanding that we all have a role in stopping it. That being said, being anti-racist is different for White people than for people of color. No one is born racist or anti-racist; these result from the choices we make.

As we see embodied in the person and ministry of Jesus Christ, who proclaimed good news to the poor, freedom for the prisoners, recovery of sight for the blind and that the oppressed be freed, as Christ-followers, we must choose to be anti-racist both individually and collectively.

In order to become an antiracist church, we believe that White people must acknowledge and confess their participation in systems of racism and White privilege. Just as we approach God in a spirit of confession in our worship, we believe that the transforming love of Jesus Christ is most fully experienced when we begin from a place of humility and acknowledge our sins both known and unknown. We believe in the power of repentance, forgiveness, and reconciliation offered in Jesus Christ to transform individual hearts and social systems. It takes commitment to walk together in this sacred, yet difficult, work.

As we commit to transform our lives, our churches, and our society, we acknowledge that we each enter this work in different places. We acknowledge that some people have been fighting for human rights for a significant amount of time, some people have actively engaged in the NEJ Call to Action for Racial Justice, and some don't want to engage in this conversation at all. We acknowledge that no matter what we put in this document, it will not be enough for some and far too much for others. The chasm of experience between being a White person and a Black person in America must be crossed. This bridge requires not only faith in God, but enough faith in one another to begin the journey of healing and hope.

We know that all people are sacred and worthy. We are made equal by God, who created humanity in God's own image. Out of our deep love of God and neighbor, when we see people being treated as less than equal, we will speak out.

Therefore, we invite you to pray about how God is calling you and your church to be engaged in dismantling racism, not for a moment, but for a lifetime. As a continuation of the NEJ Call to Action for Racial Justice, we are asking churches to pledge their Commitment to Becoming an Antiracist Church by signing below. Together, we will seek justice, do the work, and end racism as disciples of Jesus Christ.

DISCIPLES SEEK JUSTICE

Our mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Our shared history includes a primary emphasis on Christian living, on putting faith and love into action.

Live: Our church commits to include the spiritual discipline of justice as a part of our understanding of discipleship and congregational vitality. John Wesley's Rule of Discipleship needs to be understood and resurrected today: "(T)o witness to Jesus Christ in the world and to follow His teachings through acts of compassion, justice, worship, and devotion under the guidance of the Holy Spirit."

Resist: Our church will regularly uplift our shared baptismal vows to encourage believers to a) repent of the sin of racism; b) resist evil, injustice, and oppression as it relates to racism; so that, c) we might be able to live into the vow to be in union with people of all ages, nations, and races.

Organize: Our church commits to directly engage with our local leaders and officials to work toward ending racism, poverty, and violence based upon the liberating Gospel of Jesus Christ, our United Methodist Social Principles, and Book of Resolutions. Specifically:

- ☐ Resolution 5031: Humanizing Criminal Justice;
- ☐ Resolution 3378: Racism and Economic Injustice Against People of Color in the US;
- ☐ Resolution 3422 Speaking Out for Compassion: Transforming the Context of Hate in the United States;
- ☐ Resolution 3371: A Charter for Racial Justice in an Interdependent Global Community;
- ☐ Resolution 3376: White Privilege in the United States.

DISCIPLES DO THE WORK necessary that results in naming and addressing racism when they witness it and working toward becoming a level 4 racial justice change agent. Each church's leadership needs to engage in doing the work.

Listen: We will build relationships across lines of difference as we listen deeply and get to know someone who doesn't look, think, or act like us. Download this resource sheet for help. Listen to the pain, experience, hopes, and shared humanity and consider how you might be an agent of love and healing. Pray for what God is calling you to do as a result.

Learn: Our leaders will educate themselves on how to have conversations about race. This resource from the National Museum of African-American Culture and History includes the following topics: Bias, Being Antiracist, Community Building, Self-Care, Race and Racial Identity, Social Identities and Systems of Oppression, Whiteness, Historical Foundations of Race.

Lead: Our leaders, once they know better, do better by exposing and eradicating racist stereotypes, naming microaggressions, and speaking up. They will help others learn how to have conversations about race and use their power to talk about racial justice in worship, small groups and service ministries; include more voices at the table; and create more equity.

DISCIPLES END RACISM because racism is a sin. Our church acknowledges that perfect love casts out fear and will persist in the work of ending racism. We will seek to love all people as Jesus loves, whatever their racial and ethnic heritage, and work together to restore the broken body of Christ. These deep wounds can be healed but the healing process delicate and will require humble involvement from those who have previously remained silent.

Truth: Our church will discover and tell the whole truth about our church’s history with regards to racism. This may include looking at the language in our deeds, tracing our churches’ role during the time of slavery and segregation, and looking at the historical accuracy of how the images in our churches depict Jesus. Truth-telling also includes confronting our racism and affirming that Black lives and all lives of color really do matter.

Change: During a season of prayer and fasting, our church will repent and identify what change is needed to be intentionally anti-racist given the uncomfortable truths we have discovered. We will persist even when we don’t want to.

Love: Our church will participate in vital conversations in cross-racial and/or cross-cultural groups followed by a discerned, collective action in the wider community.

CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP

THE BALTIMORE-WASHINGTON CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH CONFERENCE LEADERSHIP REPORT 2019

*“...The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ.”
Ephesians 4:2-8; 11-13 (NRSV)*

In an effort to honor these gifts and our diversity, we seek to engage all in building up the body of Christ. The Conference Commission on Nominations seeks¹ to have regional, racial, gender, age and lay/clergy inclusiveness in all committees, commissions, boards and agencies (hereinafter “agencies”) and chairpersons. This includes working toward having 20-30% of all agencies comprised of persons under 40.

We recommend that agencies identify their meeting dates for the year no later than September 1 of the current year. Care should be given to scheduling meetings at times when most laity are available to increase lay participation. If a member of an agency is absent from two consecutive meetings without an acceptable reason, that person shall cease to be a member.

The terms of office for a particular agency are as follows per Book of Discipline (hereinafter “BOD”) and Baltimore-Washington Conference (hereinafter “BWC”) policies:

1. The quadrennial system is an established part of The United Methodist structure. All members of agencies shall be elected for a quadrennial unless restricted by Discipline, charter, or some other requirement. In the event of such legal restrictions, the Tenure Limitation is still to be observed.
 - a. All quadrennial terms shall commence on July 1 following the adjournment of the first Annual Conference (hereinafter “AC”) session following General Conference, except the Conference Treasurer, whose term shall begin on January 1 of the following year.³
 - b. When persons are elected quadrennially, they serve a maximum of two terms, except for the Board of Ordained Ministry members which may serve a maximum of 3 terms (BOD, ¶635.a).
2. All other terms shall commence on July 1 following the AC Session in which persons are elected or announcement of election is made.

Each agency member’s name is followed by numbers in parentheses and letters:

1. Numbers indicate when a term is up and how many terms have been served on³ that particular agency.
 - a. Quadrennial terms have one number that represents how many quadrennium a person has served; e.g., (1)-elected quadrennially and in first quadrennium; (2)-elected quadrennially and in second quadrennium.
 - b. Other terms have two numbers: “when the term expires”-“how many terms served”; e.g., (18-1)³ means term expires in 2018³ and person is serving in the first term, (18-2)³ means term expires in 2018³ and the person serving is in their second term.
2. Letters indicate the region in which a member’s church³ is located:
 - a. BA-Baltimore Region, SO-Southern Region, WA-Washington Region, WS-Western Region
 - b. Agency members are urged to immediately contact the chairperson of the agency to which they have been elected, if they are appointed to or transfer membership to a church outside the region identified, in order to allow replacement by a regional representative.
3. Chair of each Committee is designated by a * before their name.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Recommendations from the Council on Finance and Administration

The proposed budget of $17,700,253 shall be adopted for 2021, including a mission share income budget of $13,034,887. This represents a decrease of 7.2% in the mission share asking compared to the 2020 budget. The Benevolence Factor (BF) for 2021 is set at 17.55%, a reduction from 17.6% in the 2020 budget. The collection rate assumption for 2021 is set at 87.50%, which is 3.5% lower than the 2020 rate.

As required by The Book of Discipline, the ratio for World Service and Conference Benevolences shall be set as follows: 33% for World Services and 67% for Conference Benevolences.

The firm of Ellin & Tucker is approved as independent auditors to audit the Conference Treasurer's financial records for 2020.

The date for closing the 2020 Conference financial books shall be set at January 12, 2021, with all payments to be received by the Treasurer's Office no later than that date.

The Baltimore-Washington Conference grants authority to the Council on Finance and Administration, in consultation with the Bishop, the Cabinet, and the Discipleship Council to act on financial matters between sessions of the Annual Conference.

Submitted by:

Phil Potter, President

Paul J. Eichelberger, Chief Financial Office and Treasurer

Recommendations from Commission on Equitable Compensation

The Commission on Equitable Compensation is recommending that the base salary for the 2021 Clergy Salary Table be increased by 1.75% or $786, which will make the base salary $45,678.

The Commission is also proposing an increase in the recommended housing allowance of 0.5% or $101, which will make the recommended housing allowance $20,364.

Kim Ayres, Chair

Recommendations from Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits

The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits requests that the Annual Conference adopt the following recommendations:

1. That BWC continue to provide retiree medical to all eligible participants.
2. That in accordance with paragraph (e) of Supplement One (Pre-1982), the surviving spouse pension benefit shall continue to be 85% of the participant's formula.
3. That the special grant for Madelyn Hoffman be continued.
4. Pre-1982 Service – Past Service Rate (PSR): That the Annual Conference shall approve the following pre-1982 prior service funding plan in compliance with the Disciplinary requirement listed in ¶1506.8: The Past Service Rate (PSR) for 2020 is confirmed at $749. The PSR for 2021 will be set at $768 = 2.5% increase.
5. That the Annual Conference shall approve the following funding plans based on the receipt of a favorable opinion from Wespath Benefits and Investments in compliance with the Disciplinary requirement listed in ¶1506.6.

Funded status and contributions are based on actuarial valuations as of January 1, 2018,

Pre-82 Plan: By General Conference mandate, Pre-82 liabilities are to be fully funded by December 31, 2021. Baltimore-Washington Conference is already fully funded, with its assets with the Pre-82 Plan equal 135% of its liabilities.

Corridor Funding: Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP-DB) and Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities. The funded Ratio for this funding is the same for all Conferences

Plan	Assets	Liabilities	Funded Ratio
CRSP-DB	$2.049	$1.913	107.1%
MPP Annuities	$3.997	$3.718	107.5%

Post-Retirement Medical: Based on an actuarial report received in April 2020, the Post-Retirement Medical plan is reported to have a current view funding ratio of 146.6%. The ongoing view funding ratio is 214.4%.

The funding plan as of December 31, 2019 is summarized below.

	Current View	Ongoing View
Discount Rate	3.20%	6.50%
Plan Liability	$32,256,124	$22,057,379
Plan Funding	$47,300,000	$47,300,000
Funded Status	$15,043,876	$25,242,621
Funded Ratio	146.6%	214.4%

6. That the following resolution, as required for IRS compliance, shall be approved:

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the Baltimore-Washington Conference

The Baltimore-Washington Conference (the “Conference”) adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active

Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the Discipline), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (“GBOPHB”), during the years 2020-2021 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, retired or disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergy person to perform services related to the ministry of the Church or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergy person's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy person's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy person's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolution to Close the Bells Chapel United Methodist Church, Dickerson, MD

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: Conference Takes Title of a Local Church Under Exigent Circumstances

Submitted by: Rev. Edgardo Rivera, Frederick District Superintendent

RESOLUTION:

Whereas, in the Frederick District, the congregation of Bells Chapel United Methodist Church on the old Centreville Charge, located at 830 Mount Ephraim Rd., Dickerson, MD 20842, was transitioned to a Limited Service church in 1976, and

Whereas, the situation exists where Bells Chapel United Methodist Church no longer serves the purpose for which it was organized or incorporated, and

Whereas, the Bells Chapel United Methodist Church property is no longer used, kept, or maintained by its membership as a place of divine worship for The United Methodist Church, and

Whereas, on July 31, 2020, between sessions of the Baltimore-Washington Conference with the consent of the presiding Bishop, a majority of the District Superintendents and the Frederick District Board of Church Location and Building, the Conference Trustees declared that exigent circumstances existed that required protection of Bells Chapel United Methodist Church's property, for the benefit of the denomination, in accordance with paragraph 2549 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (2016);

Be it resolved, that the Baltimore-Washington Conference does hereby declare Bells Chapel United Methodist Church closed as of July 31, 2020, and

Be it further resolved, that the Conference Board of Trustees are authorized to take possession of the real and personal, tangible and intangible property of Bells Chapel United Methodist Church and to make a determination of how the property may best be used for the Kingdom of God.

EFFECTIVE DATE: September 12, 2020

Resolution to Close the Boring United Methodist Church, Upperco, MD

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: Local Church voluntarily transfers title to Conference Trustees

Submitted by: Rev. Ann Laprade, Baltimore Suburban District Superintendent

RESOLUTION:

Whereas, in the Baltimore Suburban District, the congregation of Boring United Methodist Church on the Boring:

Boring-Piney Grove-Mt. Gilead UMC Charge, located at 14819 Old Hanover Rd., Upperco, MD 21155, has served God faithfully through the United Methodist Church for many years, and

Whereas, in recent years the congregation has experienced a decline in membership and financial stewardship, and it is no longer feasible to keep it open and operational as a church, and

Whereas, during a Church Conference on September 22, 2019, between sessions of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, the leaders of Boring United Methodist Church voted to voluntarily transfer title to all its real and personal, tangible and intangible property to the Conference Board of Trustees following procedures set forth in paragraphs 2540 and 2541 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (2016);

Be it resolved, that the Baltimore-Washington Conference does hereby declare Boring United Methodist Church closed as of September 30, 2019, and

Be it further resolved, that the Conference Board of Trustees are authorized to take possession of the real and personal, tangible and intangible property of Boring United Methodist Church and to make a determination of how the property may best be used for the Kingdom of God.

EFFECTIVE DATE: September 12, 2020

Resolution to Close the Deer Park United Methodist Church, Reisterstown, MD

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: Local Church voluntarily transfers title to Conference Trustees

Submitted by: Rev. Ann Laprade, Baltimore Suburban District Superintendent

RESOLUTION:

Whereas, in the Baltimore Suburban District, the congregation of Deer Park United Methodist Church on the Upperco: Deer Park Charge, located at 6107 Deer Park Rd., Reisterstown, MD 21136, has served God faithfully through the United Methodist Church for many years, and

Whereas, in recent years the congregation has experienced a decline in membership and financial stewardship, and it is no longer feasible to keep it open and operational as a church, and

Whereas, during a Church Conference on November 3, 2019, between sessions of the Baltimore-Washington Conference, the leaders of Deer Park United Methodist Church voted to voluntarily transfer title to all its real and personal, tangible and intangible property to the Conference Board of Trustees following procedures set forth in paragraphs 2540 and 2541 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (2016);

Be it resolved, that the Baltimore-Washington Conference does hereby declare Deer Park United Methodist Church closed as of June 30, 2020, and

Be it further resolved, that the Conference Board of Trustees are authorized to take possession of the real and personal, tangible and intangible property of Deer Park United Methodist Church and to make a determination of how the property may best be used for the Kingdom of God.

EFFECTIVE DATE: September 12, 2020

Resolution to Close the Forest Memorial United Methodist Church, Forestville, MD

Budget Implications: None

Rationale: Local Church voluntarily transfers title to Conference Trustees

Submitted by: Rev. Gerard Green, Greater Washington District Superintendent

RESOLUTION:

Whereas, in the Greater Washington District, the congregation of Forest Memorial United Methodist Church on the Forestville: Forest Memorial Charge, located at 3111 Forestville Rd., Forestville, MD 20747, has served God faithfully through the United Methodist Church for many years, and

Resolution to Preserve our United Methodist History

In March 2020, prior to the postponement of the General Conference Session, the Connectional Table voted to remove the resolution, “Preservation of Our United Methodist History,” from consideration by the annual conference, and instead, move forward with the resolution’s request to publish the Protocol Of Reconciliation and Grace Through Separation in the Conference Journal. The resolution’s maker, the Rev. Deborah Scott, and Bishop LaTrelle Easterling, one of the Protocol’s signatories, concurred this this decision.

PROTOCOL OF RECONCILIATION & GRACE THROUGH SEPARATION

Statement of Principles

1. Whereas, The United Methodist Church and its members—after careful reflection, discussion and prayer—have fundamental differences regarding their understanding and interpretation of Scripture, theology and practice;
2. Whereas, The United Methodist Church at its February 2019 Special Session of the General Conference in St. Louis did not resolve their differences specifically related to the full participation of LGBTQ persons in the life of the Church;
3. Whereas, The United Methodist Church and its members are at an impasse, the Church’s witness and mission is being impeded, and the Church itself as well as its members have been injured;
4. Whereas, The United Methodist Church and its members have a deep desire to fulfill our long-stated mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
5. Whereas, The United Methodist Church is committed to recognizing, respecting and protecting the rights and personal dignity of every person, including people of all races, sexual orientations, genders, national origins, ages, and social classes;
6. Whereas, the undersigned came together as an outgrowth of a consultation initiated by Bishop John Yambasu and other Central Conference Bishops, and were asked to represent various constituencies of the Church in reaching a gracious and dignified resolution of the impasse;
7. Whereas, the undersigned propose restructuring The United Methodist Church by separation as the best means to resolve our differences, allowing each part of the Church to remain true to its theological understanding, while recognizing the dignity, equality, integrity, and respect of every person; and
8. Whereas, the undersigned, in recognition of the regional contexts and divergent points of view within the global United Methodist Church, propose separation as a faithful step with the possibility of continued cooperation around matters of shared interest, enabling each of us to authentically live out our faith;

NOW, THEREFORE, the undersigned, seeking to serve The United Methodist Church, hereby agree as follows, to this Protocol of Reconciliation and Grace Through Separation (“the Protocol”):

ARTICLE I: Agreement and Commitment to this Protocol

1. This Protocol is unanimously agreed to by each of the undersigned laity, pastors, and bishops of The United Methodist Church. The undersigned further covenant to fully support this Protocol and each other in our joint effort to seek its implementation. Each of the undersigned also agree to recommend the Protocol’s implementing legislation to be voted upon and adopted by the 2020 General Conference of The United Methodist Church.
2. The United Methodist Church and its members aspire to multiply the Methodist mission in the world by restructuring the Church through respectful and dignified separation.
3. The undersigned will continue to work together to develop legislation to implement the Protocol, to be voted upon and adopted by the 2020 General Conference of The United Methodist Church. The undersigned will not challenge the constitutionality or legality of legislation implementing this Protocol and will jointly and individually defend the provisions of the Protocol and any enabling legislation in case of review by the United Methodist Judicial Council.
4. The undersigned agree to use their best efforts to persuade any groups or organizations with which they are affiliated to support the legislation necessary to implement the Protocol. Consistent with the commitment in Article I, Paragraph 1, the undersigned will not participate in or support legislation or other efforts that are inconsistent with the principles and terms of the Protocol and the implementing legislation. They may support other efforts to the extent that all signatories to this Protocol agree that such efforts are consistent with the Protocol.
5. The undersigned agree that each of the provisions of this Protocol is integrated with and integral to the whole and shall not be severable from the remainder of the Protocol. Further, should any provisions of the Protocol be deemed illegal by either the United Methodist Judicial Council or by civil courts, the entirety of this Protocol shall be considered null and void.

6. The undersigned agree that they will bring no claims for, nor will they support any claims for, additional assets of the post-separation United Methodist Church or any of the denominations that will arise from this Protocol and will not be parties to such litigation.

ARTICLE II: Definitions of Terms

1. LGBTQ shall mean the community that includes several subsets of persons who share similar discrimination because of their sexual orientation or gender identity/expression. The letters of the acronym stand for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer (a non-binary, self-identifier).
2. Methodist denomination pursuant to this Protocol shall mean all Methodist denominations created through this Protocol and The United Methodist Church.
3. Post-separation United Methodist Church shall mean The United Methodist Church after the formation of new denominations under this Protocol.
4. Protocol shall mean this agreement by which the parties hereto agree to support the development and implementation of the legislation necessary to implement the terms of the Protocol.

ARTICLE III: Process and Timeline for Implementation of the Protocol

To implement this Protocol, The United Methodist Church and its members will adopt the following process and timeline for accomplishing restructuring:

1. Registration with the Secretary of the Council of Bishops of intent to form a new Methodist denomination pursuant to this Protocol must occur not later than May 15, 2021.
2. Central Conferences may choose with a two-thirds vote to affiliate with a Methodist denomination pursuant to this Protocol other than the post-separation United Methodist Church. If a Central Conference does not vote, it remains a part of the post-separation United Methodist Church. Such an affiliation vote shall be taken no later than December 31, 2021.
3. Annual Conferences, whether in the Central or Jurisdictional Conferences, may choose to vote on whether to affiliate with one of the Methodist denominations pursuant to this Protocol. If an Annual Conference does not vote, it shall remain a part of the post-separation United Methodist Church. In order for an Annual Conference to consider affiliation with a denomination pursuant to this protocol other than the post-separation United Methodist Church, a motion may be made on the floor of an Annual Conference session to conduct such an affiliation vote. If supported by 20% of those voting at the Annual Conference session, an affiliation vote must be conducted before July 1, 2021. In order to affiliate with a Methodist denomination created under this Protocol other than the post-separation UMC, the vote to affiliate must be supported by 57% of those voting.
4. Any local church desiring a different affiliation than the Methodist denomination pursuant to this Protocol selected by its Annual Conference may conduct an affiliation vote. If a local church does not vote, it remains part of the Methodist denomination pursuant to this Protocol selected by its Annual Conference. If such a vote occurs, the church council shall determine a voting threshold of either a simple majority or two-thirds of those present and voting at a duly called church conference in order for the motion opting for a different affiliation to be adopted. A vote on a motion to opt for a different affiliation shall occur in a church conference held not more than 60 days after the request for such a vote is made by the church council. Such church conferences must be held in consultation with the District Superintendent who shall authorize such church conferences to be conducted. Decisions about affiliation by a local church pursuant to this Protocol must be made by December 31, 2024.

ARTICLE IV: Financial Agreement Terms of this Protocol

To foster this restructuring process, the following steps will be taken with respect to the finances of The United Methodist Church:

1. Local Church Property, Assets, and Liabilities
 1. A local church that affiliates with a Methodist denomination pursuant to this Protocol other than the post-separation United Methodist Church retains its assets and liabilities. The Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church to which the local church belongs at the time of separation will not exercise its trust clause and shall release such local church from the provisions of any and all trust clauses. The local church, prior to its separation, shall be expected to maintain its connectional responsibilities through the date of separation.

At separation, such a local church shall not be required to pay any sums to the Annual Conference other than previously documented loans from the Annual Conference which shall be repaid according to the terms of such loans.

2. In the event such local church (or its successor) subsequently chooses to close, or a Methodist denomination pursuant to this Protocol with which they affiliate ceases to exist, the property of such local church will be subject to a lien in favor of Wespeth on its assets in the amount of that local church's then proportionate share of future unfunded pension liabilities.
3. Should a local church disaffiliate from The United Methodist Church and not become part of a Methodist denomination pursuant to this Protocol, it must comply with paragraph 2553 of The United Methodist Book of Discipline.

Annual, Jurisdictional, and Central Conference Property, Assets, and Liabilities

1. The property, assets, and liabilities of Annual, Jurisdictional, and Central Conferences shall be retained by those entities regardless of the affiliation decision with a Methodist denomination pursuant to this Protocol that each makes under this Protocol.
2. Financial Agreements
3. A total sum of $25M shall be paid by the General Council on Finance and Administration over the ensuing quadrennium to the traditionalist Methodist denomination established pursuant to this Protocol after it is formed and incorporated.
4. A total sum of $2M shall be escrowed by the General Council on Finance and Administration for payment to potential additional Methodist denominations established pursuant to this Protocol after they are formed and incorporated over the ensuing quadrennium.
5. As an acknowledgment of the historical role of the Methodist movement in systems of systematic racial violence, exploitation and discrimination, and as a fair and just step in addressing the impact of such harms, a sum of $39M shall be allocated by the General Council on Finance and Administration in their budget recommendations over the next two quadrennia to support communities historically marginalized by the sin of racism. The goal of these earmarked funds shall be to strengthen ministries by and for Asian, Black, Hispanic-Latino, Native American, and Pacific Islander Communities, encourage the full participation of historically marginalized communities in the governance and decision-making of the church, and ensure that the vital work of training the next generation of leaders by Africa University will be maintained. The Connectional Table in consultation with the National Plans, the Program Agencies of the Church, and the Council of Bishops shall be responsible for determining and evaluating programmatic priorities in relation to these earmarked funds. $13M of this sum represents a contribution from the post-separation Traditional Methodist Denomination, made possible by their decision to forgo receiving these funds and instead contribute them to this fund. This $13M sum shall remain in the possession of and be administered by the post-separation United Methodist Church for this purpose. In addition, the post-separation United Methodist Church will contribute $26M for a total of $39M over 8 years for this purpose. Churches which align with the traditional Methodist denomination under this Protocol shall have the option to participate in programs and grants which serve their respective ethnic groups if they otherwise meet the requirements for such participation through this 8-year period.
6. The pension plans of The United Methodist Church will remain in place for all current clergy and lay employees affiliated with The United Methodist Church, regardless of the Methodist denomination under this Protocol with which they affiliate. The undersigned support the existing and proposed legislation submitted by Wespeth that addresses assumption of unfunded pension liabilities by Methodist denominations under this Protocol, and the ability of the clergy who are associated with Methodist denominations under this Protocol to continue to participate in pension plans administered by Wespeth. All other property, assets, or liabilities of The United Methodist Church, including its general boards and agencies, shall remain with the post-separation United Methodist Church and other Methodist denominations under this Protocol shall have no claim or entitlement to such property, assets, or liabilities.
7. The Council of Bishops of the post-separation United Methodist Church shall offer to enter into ecumenical agreements with Methodist denominations formed under this Protocol. Such ecumenical agreements may include participation in Boards and Agencies, continuation of various mission activities, or any other matters within the scope of ecumenical agreements.

ARTICLE V: Moratorium

1. As one expression of reconciliation and grace through separation, the undersigned agree that all administrative or judicial processes addressing restrictions in the Book of Discipline related to self-avowed practicing homosexuals or same-sex weddings shall be held in abeyance beginning January 1, 2020 through the adjournment of the first conference of the post-separation United Methodist Church. Clergy shall continue to remain in good standing while such complaints are held in abeyance.
2. The undersigned agree that if there are churches proposed for closure, the church and annual conference shall delay final actions on closure of churches until after the 2020 General Conference of The United Methodist Church, except in those situations where there are exigent circumstances and/or a congregation has voluntarily discerned it is necessary to close a church due to a lack of participation or financial insolvency.

ARTICLE VI: General Conference 2020

In order to enable all parties to transition to their preferred future, the Council of Bishops is asked to work with the Commission on General Conferences and other church agencies to accomplish the following:

1. The Council of Bishops requests a declaratory decision from the Judicial Council regarding the constitutionality of the proposed legislation related to this Protocol to take place prior to the opening session of the 2020 General Conference.
2. The Council of Bishops requests a report from the General Council on Finance and Administration related to the financial impacts of this Protocol to be shared prior to the 2020 General Conference.
3. The Council of Bishops, working with the Commission on the General Conference, identifies an appropriate time on the Agenda of General Conference for the Protocol and any related implementing legislation to be presented.
4. The Council of Bishops will provide meeting space for those interested in creating other expressions of a Methodist denomination pursuant to this protocol at the adjournment of the 2020 General Conference session.
5. The Council of Bishops will call the first session of the General Conference of the post- separation United Methodist Church to organize itself and, if such legislation has not been passed, consider matters pertaining to the Regional Conference plan.
6. 6. The Council of Bishops will call the first session of the United States Regional Conference to consider legislation related to changes in the adaptable portions of the Book of Discipline including the repeal of Traditional Plan legislation and all other portions related to LGBTQ persons.

ARTICLE VII: The Signatories to the Protocol

The undersigned persons, after voluntarily participating in multiple confidential mediation sessions with mediator Kenneth R. Feinberg, agree to the terms of this Protocol and will collectively and individually work to support adoption of the Protocol, including the development of all legislation necessary to implement it.

INSTITUTIONAL REPORTS

Wesley Theological Seminary

In his book, A New Church and a New Seminary, President David McAllister-Wilson writes, “Leadership requires a seminary to foster both wisdom and courage.” For 138 years, that stance has been a hallmark of Wesley Theological Seminary. Now, during this challenging and divisive time in the church and society, Wesley remains committed to fostering wisdom and courage, preparing graduates to lead innovative ministries while remaining grounded in our biblical and theological traditions for the sake of God’s inbreaking kingdom. We are grateful for so many partners in this mission, and we look forward to what God will do in and through us as we seek to faithfully minister to the world in the future.

Working toward God’s vision for the church

Wesley is pleased to announce new opportunities for UMC congregations to explore, clarify, and pursue thriving in their communities. Through the Thriving Congregations Initiative, Wesley will work with three cohorts of regional congregations in a two-year process of prayer, community engagement, congregational visioning, and coaching, with the goal of following Jesus in mission and ministry. Interested congregations can contact innovation@wesleyseminary.edu for more information. This work, funded by a $1 million Lilly Endowment, Inc. grant, raises Wesley’s role as a leading research and development seminary for the whole church and complements Wesley’s other Lilly Endowment-funded projects focused on congregational vitality.

The Religious Workforce Project is an expansive study of the current and future nature of religious work, particularly in local congregations, so as to understand what opportunities and constraints may exist in the future and to adapt resources and training accordingly. Through the Wesley Innovation Hub, Wesley has worked with 18 congregations in the greater Washington area to experiment with ministries with young adults outside the church. Together, these projects forge insight into future ministry and local church development, influencing the way students are trained in master’s, doctoral, and course of study education, but also informing workshops, podcasts, articles, and training for church leaders working in their communities across the country.

Is God calling you – or someone you know?

Research shows that the primary way people learn about and begin to consider seminary options is through their pastor or an alumnus. Whether you feel called or you know someone who does, Wesley is ready to work with you as we make theological education more accessible and relevant to the realities of ministry today—for laity and clergy, for those seeking a degree or certification or continuing education, and for ministry from within or beyond the church.

Wesley offers an 81-hour Master of Divinity, a 36-hour Master of Arts, and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies, any of which can be focused around specializations in public theology, urban ministry, arts and theology, missional church, or African American church leadership.

For full time students, we offer modern and affordable on-campus housing and food service in the nation’s capital. Our Community Engagement Fellows program prepares students to engage in entrepreneurial, community-based ministry. Generous stipends are available for each Fellow while they complete their MDiv degree. Our 3+3 Fast Track BA/MDiv program with Shenandoah University allows students to complete both degrees in six years, entering ministry more quickly and with less debt.

For people with work, ministry, and family commitments, Wesley’s Master of Divinity degree can now be completed via online, weekend, short-term intensive, and weeknight courses in 5 years. Check out upcoming flexible course offerings for Summer and Fall 2020 at www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/try-a-class-3.

Wesley works with each student to make seminary affordable. Thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations, and friends, Wesley provides more than $2 million annually in scholarships.

2020 OFFICIAL JOURNAL

In addition to our regular merit awards, ranging from 50% to 100% tuition with stipends, Wesley has released special additional scholarships. Inspired by the Young People's Address at both the 2019 and 2020 General Conferences, Rising Generation awards are full-tuition scholarships for people recommended by Wesley alumni, campus ministers, or Christian camping or service ministries who feel called to leadership in the church as it is becoming. Recognizing that many people experience God's call mid-career, Wesley is excited to offer its new Next Call in Ministry scholarship for students who have worked in a non-ministry setting for at least 10 years. In addition, the Generación Latinx Scholarships are full-tuition awards for emerging Latinx/Hispanic leaders for ministries both within and beyond the church.

Take your ministry to the next level

In addition to full master's degrees, Wesley offers graduate certificates for those preparing for specialized ministry! The new Certificate for Children and Youth Ministry and Advocacy (CYMA) is designed for people who work with and advocate for children and young people, whether in churches, schools, or non-profit organizations. The non-residential certificate can be completed in 12 to 15 months through online coursework and up to two residential sessions. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/cyma-3. The Certificate in Faith and Public Life explores the foundations of public theology, religious freedom, and civil discourse through graduate courses. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/public-life/

Wesley is a leader in Doctor of Ministry programs in specialized tracks that can include international study. Wesley is pleased to offer two new Doctor of Ministry tracks for 2021: "Curating Community Through the Arts," aimed to empower leaders with both conceptual and practical skills needed to utilize the arts in ministry that also generate and sustain communities; and our latest Cambridge, England-based DMin track, "For the Sake of the World: Church Transformation in Wesleyan Perspective," for leaders concerned with exploring renewed ministry possibilities grounded in the life and ministry of John Wesley. The 2021 options are rounded out with new cohorts in our popular D. Min. programs, "Soul Care" and "Church Leadership Excellence." Find out more or apply at www.wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/.

Enrich your congregational outreach and explore new dimensions of ministry

The Lewis Center for Church Leadership continues to be on the leading edge of research for the local church. The Lewis Center's Leading Ideas e-newsletter is the go-to source for over 20,000 people in ministry each week. Stay on top of their latest developments by subscribing to their podcast or newsletter at www.churchleadership.com. Also look for new practical online courses at www.lewisonlinelearning.org.

The Community Engagement Institute at Wesley is celebrating its 10th anniversary in 2020. It embraces a vibrant vision to be the premier center for churches and faith-based organization engaging their communities. The innovative online Health Minister Certificate Program prepares congregations for public health work in their parishes. Contact Dr. Tom Pruski at tpruski@wesleyseminary.edu for more information or to register for future certificate classes.

The Center for Public Theology, situated on Capitol Hill and under the leadership of Distinguished Professor of Public Theology Mike McCurry, equips pastors, seminarians, people of faith, and the media to create spaces for civil dialogue at the intersection of religion and politics. For more information, visit <http://www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/>.

The Luce Center for Arts and Religion (LCAR) is the only seminary-based program uniting arts and theology. This past year, LCAR was privileged to receive the Ralph and Birgitta Peterson Collection of Modern Religious Art, including works by Marc Chagall, Henri Matisse, Andy Warhol and others, brought to the center by new LCAR Director, Dr. Aaron Rosen. Visiting Professor Dr. Devon Abts brings a new component to Wesley's commitment to the arts and theology with her expertise in poetry and theology. For information on upcoming workshops and show at the Dadian Gallery, visit www.luceartsandreligion.org.

Faculty leading the way

Our internationally regarded faculty are the heartbeat of transformative education at Wesley. Our faculty continue to advance theological scholarship with new research, publications, and courses. During this past year, we celebrated the ministries of four retiring faculty members: Drs. Deborah Sokolov, Eileen Guenther, Sam Marullo, and Lucy Hogan. We also welcomed exciting new scholars to the Wesley community: Aaron Rosen, PhD, as our Professor of Religion and Visual Culture and new Director of the Henry Luce III Center for the Arts and Religion (LCAR); Visiting Instructor of Practical Theology Timothy K. Snyder, as Senior Researcher at the Lewis Center for Church Leadership; and Devon Abts, PhD, who serves as Assistant Director and Visiting Assistant Professor at LCAR. This summer, we look forward to welcoming New Testament professor Dr. Laura C. Sweat Holmes.

Boston University School of Theology

Dear Colleagues in Ministry:

I am grateful to have one last opportunity to thank you for your moral, prayerful, and material support of the Boston University School of Theology (BUSTH), and also to highlight the promising future of the School as a new Dean joins our stellar faculty, staff, and students in summer 2020 to carry on the mission of the School in partnership with all of you.

BREAKING NEWS:

- ☐ Students: We continue to increase and celebrate diversity in our student body, creating opportunities for in-depth exchanges and a rich community life.
- ☐ Faculty: We welcomed two faculty this year: Filipe Maia as Assistant Professor of Theology, and Luis Menéndez-Antuña as Assistant Professor of New Testament. Both are extraordinary teachers who delight in working with students.
- ☐ Scholarships: We continue to offer free tuition to UMC registered candidates for ordained ministry, and to build student scholarships and housing as key priorities. BUSTH also offers leadership fellowships to support students in ethnic, gender, and sexuality studies: Raíces Latinas, Sacred Worth, Howard Thurman, Indigenous Studies, Korean Studies, Women in Leadership, and African Studies.
- ☐ Two new Programs: Faith and Ecological Justice (FEJ) and Raíces Latinas Program in Theology, Leadership, and Research (RL). FEJ leads programs to build ecological awareness, theological research, church collaborations, and community activism in ecological justice. RL sponsors programs to expand Latin American and Latinx theological study and research, and to enhance the leadership of students, young people, and leaders in Latino/Latina communities.
- ☐ Online Lifelong Learning: We have launched an exciting new program, offering online mini-courses, workshops, and reading groups for professional and spiritual enrichment.
- ☐ Theology and the Arts Initiatives: Exhibits highlight sacred spaces in Boston; wilderness photography; a 1619 visual lament of 400+ years of slavery; voices and faces of Colombia; and paintings of a gay man struggling with the church.
- ☐ Campaign: Our BUSTH development campaign concluded with the raising of $29.4 million to support students, faculty, and vital programs.
- ☐ Website and Viewbook: Check out our new BUSTH website (www.bu.edu/sth) and Viewbook.

PARTNERING FOR MINISTRY AND TRANSFORMATION:

- Creative Callings: In partnership with local churches, we seek to create “a culture of call.”
- Engagement with the UMC: Many of our students are delegates, volunteers, and singers in General Conference 2020.
- Continuing Scholar Program: BUSTH courses are open to alums and local clergy for small lifelong learning fees.
- Doctor of Ministry: The DMin in Transformational Leadership flourishes with lively student cohorts that are broadly ecumenical, culturally diverse, and global. The model includes intensives, online courses, and faculty mentoring.
- Religion and Conflict Transformation Clinic: The Clinic provides internships in local churches and organizations that foster just peacebuilding.
- Travel seminars: Immersion journeys open worlds to students in the borderlands of Arizona and Mexico, Cuba, Peru, Israel-Palestine, Civil Rights landmarks, and centers for ecological-spiritual renewal.
- Ecumenical partnerships: We now have four denominational Communities of Learning: Wesleyan/Methodist, Episcopal/Anglican, United Church of Christ, and Unitarian Universalist.
- Partnership with Hebrew College: Together we are able to enrich interreligious learning through joint courses and public events, and also co-sponsor The Journal of Interreligious Studies and the State of Formation for emerging leaders.

TAKING ACTION GLOBALLY AND LOCALLY:

- Campus action: Work to improve accessibility and sustainability. BUSTH is the first certified Green School in BU and is active in the Green Seminary Initiative. We have also been named as one of the “Seminaries that Change the World.”
- Internships in global service and peacemaking: Students participate in apprenticeship ministries across the world.

COMMITMENT TO JUSTICE:

- Faculty and students have been active in UMCOR efforts to support victims of hurricanes and fires, and in collaborative services to support people suffering the consequences of immigration practices, disability inequities, or racial violence.
- In Town Hall meetings, the community has deep conversations on issues that divide, seeking to develop capacities for relating across difference and to create a community based on the dignity of all.

BUSTH looks to the future. We celebrate transformational leaders of the United Methodist Church, who love with their whole hearts and follow Jesus Christ with their whole lives. Your legacy and witness give us hope and courage for the future.

Blessings and gratitude,
Mary Elizabeth Moore, Dean

Candler School of Theology

Since our founding in 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated more than 10,000 students, shaping thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders who are dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current shifts in our denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to our community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes, and others have worked, worshiped, learned, and prayed alongside United Methodists, and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and our mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As we move forward, we will continue to invite and welcome those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition. Indeed, we will continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

This year, Candler has continued to strengthen our deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018-2019, we awarded $6.3 million in financial aid, with 100 percent of master of divinity (MDiv) students receiving support and financial coaching. In fall 2019, we announced a major expansion of our financial aid program to include full-tuition scholarships for all MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church, and new merit scholarships covering 75% of tuition for qualifying MDiv students who identify as pan-Wesleyan, and those pursuing chaplaincy through Candler's new chaplaincy concentration. In addition, all incoming students in the master of divinity, master of theological studies, and master of religious leadership programs will receive awards covering at least 50% of tuition.

This year also saw the launch of two pilot "formation communities," off-campus student housing that focuses on intentional living and spiritual formation. Students from multiple degree programs applied to take part in these pilot groups. At the start of the year, the housemates created a "rule of life" to guide their days together, emphasizing prayer, fellowship, and celebration. A house chaplain—a Candler faculty member or church leader—supports them and shares in the journey. The ten students who took part this year describe feeling a richer sense of community and deeper connections to God and one another in the midst of their busy lives. It is clear that this fulfills a need for our seminarians, and we eagerly anticipate the program's growth in the coming years.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 470 from 12 countries and 38 states, with 40 percent people of color (U.S.) and a median age of 27 among MDivs. Students represent 42 denominations, with 45% of all students and 50% of MDivs coming from the Methodist family.

We offer six single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while completing their degrees.

Candler draws strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us in person or online at candler.emory.edu.

Duke University Divinity School

In 2019, Duke Divinity School (DDS) welcomed 215 new students from 33 states and eight countries. The Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.) and Master of Arts in Christian Practice (M.A.C.P.) degree programs received record enrollments of 35 and 22 students respectively. The Master of Theology (Th.M., 14 students), Doctor of Ministry (D.Min., 20 students), and Doctor of Theology (Th.D., 4 students) all had strong enrollment. There are 16 Theology, Medicine, and Culture (T.M.C.) fellows, a record number. The M.Div. degree program gained 110 new students, more than 32 percent being minority students. Female students made up 44 percent of incoming M.Div. students.

The Duke Endowment awarded DDS a $12 million grant in support of DDS's three core priorities and traditions: Thriving communities enlivened by healthy congregations and gifted pastors, embodied wisdom through rigorous intellectual vitality, and creative institutions that inspire imaginative and transformative leadership including the Thriving Communities Fellowship program, which will provide 52 new scholarships over the next four years.

DDS launched the Duke Divinity: Black Pastoral Leadership Collaboration which will draw on original research in Black church traditions and historical examples of effective Black church leadership to train and build networks of effective leaders for the Black church of today and the future.

Two new faculty members, Brent Strawn and Brett McCarty, joined the faculty in 2019. Strawn, Professor of Old Testament, is an ordained elder in the North Georgia Conference. McCarty, Assistant Research Professor of Theological Ethics, is a theological ethicist whose work centers on faithful action within health care.

The Hispanic-Latino/a Preaching Initiative is in its fifth year of providing high quality theological education to current and aspiring Hispanic-Latino/a ministers. 21 students from multiple denominations are taking courses this year.

L. Gregory Jones, Dean

United Theological Seminary

For nearly 150 years, United Theological Seminary in Dayton, OH, has been preparing faithful, fruitful leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Students

In the Fall 2019 semester, United equipped 459 women and men for leadership in the Church, including 272 masters' students and 187 doctoral students. An ecumenical community of many denominations, races and nationalities, United welcomed students from 11 countries, 42 states, and 37 denominations, with the student body comprised of 49% African American, 42% Caucasian, and 10% ethnic/racial minorities. The Seminary prepared 165 Course of Study students and served 36 students through the Hispanic Christian Academy, a 3-year Spanish online course of ministry program for Hispanic/Latino lay pastors and leaders. Altogether, approximately 660 students followed God's call through United Theological Seminary.

Alumni/ae

United graduates are making an impact in their communities as they spread the Good News.

- ☐ 88% of alumni/ae are currently employed in or retired from ministry
- ☐ 70% serve in local parishes
- ☐ Rev. Dr. Brad Kalajainen (DMin '99) received the 2019 Effective Ministry Award for his transformative leadership of Cornerstone UMC in Grand Rapids, MI.
- ☐ Rev. Dr. James Bushfield (MDiv '79, DMin '92) received the 2019 Distinguished Alumnus Award for his leadership and ministry in the Indiana Conference of The UMC.
- ☐ Rev. Dr. Sandra Coley (DMin '14) received the Outstanding Doctor of Ministry Award for her advocacy of organ donation among African American communities.

New at United

United introduced a 36-hour Master of Arts (MA) degree, designed for those who wish to earn a degree while completing the requirements for Advanced Course of Study in pursuit of ordination in The United Methodist Church. The MA program is available fully online, on-campus or in a combination.

United continues to offer innovative learning through its Live Interactive Virtual Education (LIVE) environment introduced in 2018. In the first year, 59 students participated in LIVE courses, connecting with classmates on campus in Dayton, OH, and across the country by attending classes in real-time via simultaneous webcast.

Becoming Debt-Free

United remains committed to becoming debt-free by the seminary's 150th anniversary on October 11, 2021. Thanks to the support of generous donors, United has received more than $2.5 million toward its goal of raising $4 million to "burn the mortgage." Becoming debt-free as an institution will enable United to focus on generating income for scholarships that lighten the load of student debt for seminarians.

In Romans 10:14, St. Paul writes: "How shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? AND HOW SHALL THEY HEAR WITHOUT A PREACHER?" For 150 years, United has been preparing faithful and fruitful Christian preachers and leaders who proclaim the Good News of God's unconditional love which has come to us in Jesus Christ. Thanks be to God!

MEMOIRS

Clergy

Donald Atkinson

Donald Atkinson, a retired provisional member, died Dec. 12, 2019. He served the Lutherville Charge and at New Waverly. He entered incapacity leave in 2005, and retired in 2011.

Funeral services were held Friday, December 20, 2019, at Union Memorial United Methodist Church, with a Wake Service Saturday, December 21, 2019 at Garrison Forest Veterans Cemetery.

Glenn Barrick

The Rev. Glenn O. Barrick, a retired Local Pastor, died June 15, 2020. He served at Cranberry UMC for 18 years.

He was born in Baltimore, the son of Calvin Earl and Carmela Lucy (Azzara) Barrick and loving husband to Dianne (Lacey) Barrick for 31 years.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force and spent several years in Italy where he indulged his love for Italian food.

He was the pastor of Cranberry UMC when he retired in 2017. During his time at Cranberry, he formed many deep and lasting friendships while sharing his love and passion for Jesus Christ. He was a lifetime member of the Cranberry United Methodist Men or CRUMMS as they like to call themselves. He enjoyed many lively conversations with this wonderful group of men who supported him through many health events in his life.

Barrick was also a Spiritual Director in the Seven Mile Walk With Jesus community and touch many lives through this ministry. He was also a lifetime member of the American Legion Post #135 in Perryville. Glenn retired in 2016 from Genesis Health Care as a Senior Voice Systems Engineer. He enjoyed cooking, eating crabs, and watching the Ravens with family and friends. Glenn loved all his pets over the years which included dogs, cats, and horses. He had enjoyed home improvement projects and woodworking in his younger years. Everyone who met Glenn knew that he liked to joke and have a good time. He was a happy, giving individual to the very end.

In addition to his wife Dianne of 31 years, Glenn was survived by his son, Daniel Barrick and wife Lisa of Clayton, DE; daughter, Colleen Barrick and husband Mario Clem of Sharpsburg; sister, Antoinette Kekich; brother, Leo Barrick; two grandchildren, Reed and Cecelia Barrick; two nephews, Joseph and Albert Kekich; and niece, Deborah Singer.

Curtis Campaigne

The Rev. Curtis “Curt” Campaigne, a retired Elder, died July 20, 2019. He served on the staff of Asbury UMC in Washington, as well as at Anacostia, St. Paul’s in Chevy Chase, and Hollywood UMCs. He and his late wife, Betsey, also attended St. Paul UMC in Lusby for several years.

Born in Goshen, New York, on June 2, 1942 to Laura E. and William M. Campaigne, Curt attended the University of Vermont in Burlington and graduated with a BA in Psychology & Philosophy in 1964. He began ministry there in the Troy Conference in 1965 and transferred to the Baltimore Conference in 1969. He continued his education at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, DC and graduated with a Master of Divinity in 1968. Curt was then ordained as a Pastor in the Baltimore-Washington Conference. He served Asbury UMC in Washington, DC; Anacostia UMC from 1974 to 1976; St. Paul’s UMC in Chevy Chase; and Hollywood UMC in Hollywood, from 1982 until his retirement in 1988.

Curt married Elizabeth “Betsey” Bennett Campaigne on July 18, 1970. Curt and Betsey were blessed to have a wonderful 40th wedding anniversary celebration at the Solomons Island Yacht Club on July 18, 2010, with family and friends from different “seasons” of their lives.

Curt loved being on the water and had a passion for sailing. For several years in the 1980's, he led the Sailing Camps at the West River UMC Camp in Severn. Curt also had a love for classical and organ music, a beautiful voice, and enjoyed playing the organ and piano.

Preceded in death by his wife (Elizabeth "Betsey" Bennett Campaigne), Curt is survived by his brother, Gordon Campaigne, and Gordon's wife (Connie) and their daughters (Carol and Heather) and their families; his son, David, and David's wife (Kristin) and their two children (Jonathan and Maya); and his daughter, Christina Watson, and Christina's husband (Dale) and their three children (Claire, Nate, and Corban).

Richard Chambers

The Rev. Richard C. Chambers, 92, a retired pastor in the Baltimore-Washington Conference, died March 4, 2020.

Born April 6, 1927, in Cumberland, Maryland, he was the son of the late Lorenzo H. and Nellie C. (Shatzer) Chambers. He married his wife Marian E. (Hardman) Chambers on April 29, 1948. She died on March 1, 2015.

Chambers served in the Methodist church for 40 years including those in Kentucky, Virginia, Martinsburg WVa., Hagerstown, and Waldorf. He attended the Grace Bible Church of Greencastle. He was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather, who not only loved his family, but his Lord and Savior.

Richard was a graduate of Greenville College, Greenville, Illinois, in 1954, and Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Kentucky in 1956. He was a US Army veteran of World War II.

Surviving family are two sons, Mark Chambers of Bunker Hill, WVa.; Paul Chambers of Marion, Virginia; three daughters, Connie Anderson of Canal Fulton, Ohio; Cynthia House and Cathy Staggs both of Greencastle, Pennsylvania; one brother, William Chambers of Cumberland, Maryland; 14 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

Robert Fringo

The Rev. Robert Fringo, a retired Elder, died Aug. 31, 2019. Robert Joseph Fringo, the son of Joseph Salvatore Fringo, a Brooklyn Borough Gas Co. repairman, and his wife, Florence Loretta Hansen Fringo, a homemaker, was born at home in Brooklyn, New York.

After graduating in 1946 from Alexander Hamilton High School, he began his college studies at Brooklyn College before transferring to Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College), from which he earned his bachelor's degree in 1955.

It was while he was attending the old Fisherman's UMC in Brooklyn that he fell under the influence of the Rev. Carroll A. Doggett, then a student at Union Theological Seminary in New York City, who became the church's student minister and later an ordained Methodist minister.

Fringo obtained his divinity degree in 1958 from Westminster Theological Seminary as a member of its last graduating class when it was located in Westminster.

In 1956, Fringo became pastor of Exeter Memorial Methodist Church on North Milton Avenue, where he remained until 1958, when he was assigned to three churches that made up the Fells Point Parish: East Baltimore Station UMC; Broadway UMC; and Caroline Street UMC.

During the 1960s, he joined with local political and community leaders, clergy and other activists in the civil rights movement, and in August, 1963, was on the Mall in Washington to hear Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s "I Have a Dream" speech. He also participated in the anti-Vietnam War movement.

Fringo was the founder in the 1960s of the Plumb Line, converting a Fells Point storefront into a parish office and community outreach center with programs that helped the needy. It also housed one of the city's first Well Baby clinics, his daughter said.

From 1975 to 1983, Fringo was pastor of two churches concurrently: Emory UMC and Mount Zion UMC, both in Ellicott City, and from 1983 until his retirement in 1996, he led the congregation of Halethorpe-Relay UMC in Halethorpe.

Fringo didn't really fully retire, however, and two years later began working as a staff minister of visitation at Loch Raven UMC, a position he held until 2014.

From 1998 until 2014, when he finally fully retired, he was a substitute minister at Idlewylde UMC in Towson, and at Camp Chapel UMC in Perry Hall.

Gene Funk

The Rev. Gene Funk, a retired pastor who served in ministry in the Baltimore-Washington Conference for more than 50 years, died Oct. 7, 2019. There was no funeral or memorial service.

Rev. Funk was a resident of Mount Desert, Maine, at the time of his death. He began ministry in the Baltimore Conference in 1957, serving at Jessup-Harwood, then serving the people of Lansdowne (1960). He went on to serve pastorates in Reisterstown (1972), Christ UMC in Columbia (1984), and St. John's in Lutherville (1989) until his retirement.

Albert Galloway

Albert Galloway died April 19, 2020. After serving for three years at Marvin Memorial UMC in Silver Spring, he entered the hospital chaplaincy at Indiana University Hospital in 1965, and later became the director of the chaplaincy program, "Lifeline Foundation." Rev. Galloway retired in 2003.

Galloway died on his mother's birthday. He was born December 15, 1934, in Baltimore, to Edith and Albert, Sr. He received his call to ministry while at the Chautauqua Institution in New York. Galloway graduated from City College High School (Baltimore), Tennessee Wesleyan University (Athens, Tennessee), and received his Master of Divinity from Drew Theological Seminary in 1960. After serving for 3 years at Marvin Memorial UMC in Silver Spring, he entered the hospital chaplaincy at Indiana University Hospital in 1965, later becoming the director of the chaplaincy program which included University, Riley, and Long hospitals. In 1968, he was listed as a founding member of the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education (ACPE) and served as its Certification Chair.

In 1988, Galloway and his wife, Charlotte, moved to Florida where he served as chaplain to LifeLink of Florida, a nonprofit organ and tissue recovery organization. Working with patients receiving organs, families donating organs, and the staff who oversaw this important labor of love, he found the perfect place he wanted to serve and did so until he retired in 2003. The couple returned to Indiana where she continues to reside.

Galloway was preceded in death by his parents; his sisters, Lois Galloway and Patricia Green; and foster sisters, Dorothy Edwards, Lillian Payne, and Florence Byrnes Standiford. He is survived by his loving wife of 62 years, Charlotte; his three sons, Eric (Beth); Paul (Henry); and Steve (Stephanie); and grandchildren, Allison, Sarah, Luke, Max, and Paul.

Galloway's love of the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts, the Baltimore Orioles, and the state of Vermont never wavered. His wish to be returned to Vermont is something the family plans to honor.

Mae Harrison

Rev. Mae Harrison died on June 29, 2019.

Harrison began ministry in 1991 at Zion UMC in Lincoln Park. She also served Van Buren UMC in Washington, D.C., from 1994 to 1996. In 1996, she became pastor of Hopkins UMC in Highland, Maryland, moving from there to Mt. Rainier to serve Cedar Lane UMC (2000). She concluded her service in the Baltimore-Washington Conference officially at Church of the Redeemer in Temple Hills, (2007 to 2013), but would go on to faithfully care for the people of Shiloh Community UMC in Newburg during her retirement.

Harrison was born in Rockingham, North Carolina and received her Bachelor of Arts and Master of Divinity degrees from Howard University. She obtained her Doctorate of Ministry from Wesley Theological Seminary. She was ordained as an Elder in 1993.

Harrison left her lifelong dream of teaching to accept the Lord's call into the ministry after her then two-year-old son, Daniel N. Harrison, II, was healed of leukemia. She gave this testimony many times in the five churches she pastored in her 22-year full time ministry, including lectures, workshops, Bible studies, women's conferences, summer camps, vacation bible school, and endless number of innovative programs.

However, her legacy is her son, now 46, who was recently found to have brain cancer. God healed him once and the family believes he can do it again.

Harrison leaves to cherish her memory her husband of 49 years, Daniel; two sons, Daniel II, and John Dumas (Evangeline); a granddaughter, Ciana Harrison; five brothers, Thaddeus (Betty) of Springdale, Maryland, Curtis (Classie), Edward (Lisa) of Ellerbe, North Carolina, Kevin (Jacqueline) and Albert Everett (Marie) of Rockingham, North Carolina; six sisters, Deloris (Dwight) Hunter of Upper Marlboro, Reba Brewington of Camp Springs, Irene Waddell of Rockingham, North Carolina, Ruby Shannon (James) of Pinehurst, North Carolina, Loretta (James) Kelly of Snellville, Georgia, and Rosaline Asbury of Rockingham, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers: David Lee, George and Dumas Brewington, Jr. She is also survived by nieces, nephews, cousins, and long-time best friends.

John Jennings

Retired Elder, the Rev. John T. Jennings, Jr., died on September 8, 2019.

Jennings began formal ministry in 1994 at Grace UMC in Fairmont Heights. In 1996, he took leadership of a two-point charge connecting Petworth and Van Buren UMCs. He served St Mark's in Laurel from 2001 until his retirement in 2008. In July of 2011, Jennings again returned to his ministry roots in Washington, D.C., pastoring the people of Albright Memorial.

He is survived by his wife, Geraldine B. Jennings, children, grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Rollins Johnson

The Rev. Rollins R. Johnson, 87 of Westminster, Maryland, died May 25, 2020, at Charlotte Hall Veterans Home. Beloved husband of the late Doris Lee (Pirkey) Johnson, he was August 19, 1932, in Baltimore, the son of the late Phillip O. and late Lottie C. (Driver) Johnson.

His occupations included Postmaster of Reisterstown Post Office and Ordained Methodist Minister. He was a proud U.S. Army Veteran, having served in Korea. Rollins was wounded in the Battle of Pork Chop Hill and was awarded the Purple Heart, and the Silver and Bronze Stars.

Devoted father of the late Cynthia Johnson Eustice.

He is survived by his son-in-law Eric Eustice, sister-in-law Gerry McKenzie, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Richard Kroll

The Rev. Richard Kroll, a retired Elder who was serving as a chaplain at Jefferson Memorial Hospital in Ranson, West Virginia, died April 21, 2020. He served congregations in and around Manchester (1971) and Benevola (1976), before moving to Halethorpe (1979) and then back to the Western Region: Otterbein UMC in Martinsburg (1983), Williamsport UMC (1994), and Asbury in Charles Town, West Virginia from 2003 until his retirement in 2012.

Kroll was born on November 23, 1946 in Washington, D.C., to the late Arthur and Charlotte Bennett Athey Kroll. He graduated high school from Fork Union Military Academy in Fork Union, Virginia. He also graduated from Tusculum College in Tusculum, Tennessee, and graduated from Duke University School of Divinity in Durham, North Carolina.

Kroll retired after 42 years serving in the UMC in the Baltimore-Washington Conference. After retirement, he served as pastor of visitation at First Christian Church in Hagerstown. He belonged to the Masonic Lodge in Manchester, Maryland. He volunteered as a guide and mentor with the God and Country Program of the Boy Scouts of America. He also volunteered at Harpers Ferry National Park.

He is survived by his wife of 45 years Mary Lois Catherine Rupp Kroll; also survived by a number of cousins.

Angela Maves

The Rev. Angela Maves, a Deacon, died from a brain tumor on the morning of Dec. 8, 2019.

Born in Doncaster, England, she grew up on her family's farm. After moving to America, Maves became a chaplain at George Washington University Hospital where her daughter had been born. Maves also served as a Methodist Deacon at Dumbarton Church in Georgetown. In her personal time, she pursued her real passion: hosting groups of Native American youth in order for them to learn about the workings of the United States government, and for them to visit cultural artifacts still controlled by the Smithsonian Institute.

The power of the world always works in circles...The wind in its great power whirls... birds build their nests in circles...even the seasons form a great circle in their changing.

Black Elk

Ever since she saw the movie "Soldier Blue" 40 years ago, Maves had been passionately drawn to Native American history, culture, and spirituality. Maves fished with the Inuit in the Arctic, attended a Native American seminary, and most recently, filmed a Dakota traditional Elder at a Midwestern petroglyph site. What most attracted Maves to Native American spirituality, she said, is the focus on Mother Earth: the grounding in the feminine and the maternal. "It provides a necessary balance to Methodism," she said. "I need them both."

Maves shared an insight from Amma, a spiritual leader from India, who said that the mother archetype is not restricted to women. It's a principle inherent in both men and women. It is Love and compassion, or what Native Americans call "all my relatives" and it's the web of connection.

Michael A. H. McKinney

The Rev. Michael A. H. McKinney, a retired Elder, died January 15, 2020. He began ministry in the South Carolina Conference in 1987 and transferred to the Baltimore-Washington Conference in 2004 to serve Union UMC in Upper Marlboro. He went on to serve the people of Annapolis who worshipped at the Mt. Zion-Fowler Cooperative Parish from 2009 until his retirement in 2011.

McKinney was born on May 2, 1949, in Charleston, South Carolina, to the late Arnold H. McKinney and Suzie R. McKinney. He was educated in the Catholic School System of Charleston, SC-Immaculate Conception and Bishop England High School Class of '67.

He earned a BS Degree from Shaw University, a M.Div. from Gammon Theological Seminary, and a Ph.D. from The International Outreach School of Religion. He was a Life Member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.

McKinney was an educator at heart. After retirement, he loved working with students, particularly at District Heights Elementary and Potomac High School where he even was the golf coach. He and Beverly loved to travel, and he always had to carry his golf clubs wherever he went. Michael is probably the only grandfather that answered to three different names: Tajah called him "Big Daddy"; Ieszan and Isis called him "Granddad"; and Sydney called him "PopPop." He responded to each name with abundant love.

Survivors include his wife Beverly Spencer McKinney; sons Michael Siekiem Kontom McKinney, Charlton V. McKinney, Kyle C. McKinney, stepson Patrick Rollins; sisters Arnelle Grant (Joseph), and Carla McKinney Grif-fith; grandchildren Tajah Tyson, Ieszan McKinney, Isis McKinney, Sydney Rollins; aunt Constance Brown; as well as many nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

Rev. Robert E. Mitzel

Rev. Robert E. Mitzel, a retired Elder and member of Emory UMC in Ellicott City, died April 18, 2020. At the time of his death, he was 97 and the oldest pastor in the Baltimore-Washington Conference.

He was born on July 25, 1922, on Keswick Road in Baltimore, the fifth of six children. He met Doris Justice on this same street. She later became his wife of 60 years. Bob and Doris attended Mt. Vernon Methodist Church in Hampden, where they taught Sunday School and were active in other church activities.

After high school graduation from Baltimore City College in 1942, Mitzel enlisted in the Navy and served in the South Pacific aboard a subchaser. In 1943, he was recommended for officer training and returned to the United States to attend Notre Dame University and then Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, Ohio. After graduating with high honors, he attended seminary at Drew University in New Jersey. During seminary, he married Doris.

After graduating from Drew, Mitzel was ordained in the Baltimore Conference of The Methodist Church. He served for a short time as assistant pastor at Lovely Lane Methodist Church in Baltimore. He then served as pastor in the Chesapeake Charge, comprised of four small churches in southern Anne Arundel County; and the Maryland Line Charge, comprised of five small churches in northern Baltimore County. He pastored Emory UMC in Ellicott City and Bells UMC near Andrews Air Force Base. While serving at Bells, Mitzel earned a Doctor of Divinity degree from Drew Theological School. He went on to serve at Cheverly UMC in Cheverly and Trinity UMC in Prince Frederick.

Throughout the years, Mitzel had a heart for service. He helped establish a credit union for Methodist ministers and served as the chaplain for volunteer fire departments in Anne Arundel, Baltimore, and Howard counties. He was president of the Community Action Council in Howard County. He opened a community swimming pool for low-income families in Ellicott City. Bob and Doris often opened their home to visiting foreign missionaries. They even became missionaries themselves, transporting farm animals to Bolivia, constructing an agricultural storage facility in Ghana, serving the Appalachian poor in Kentucky, helping build a church in Alaska, and building Habitat for Humanity houses with Jimmy Carter in DC and in Canada.

In 2003 Bob and Doris moved into the Charlestown Retirement Community where he was characteristically active. He served as president of the Resident Council where he assisted in the creation of a vision statement for the future of Charlestown. The fellowship and Theological Table Talk of retired clergy at Charlestown helped him to continue his religious studies. The great love and kindness of Bob's friends sustained him after the loss of his wife in 2006.

Mitzel is survived by his three children, Donna Welles, Glenn Mitzel, and Patricia Farrar. He is also survived by eight grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers Mitzel wished that donations be made to enable children to attend camp at the West River United Methodist Center, which he helped found in 1951. Make checks payable to "BWC Treasurer" and mail to West River United Methodist Center, P.O. Box 429, Churchton, MD 20733, with a note "Doris and Bob Mitzel Endowed Campership Fund."

Cora Moore

Cora Moore, a retired diaconal minister died June 30, 2020.

Rev. Douglas E. Moore

The Rev. Douglas E. Moore, a retired Elder in the Baltimore-Washington Conference, who in 1957 led one of the first sit-ins to protest racial segregation in the South and later served a tumultuous stint on the D.C. Council in the 1970s, died Aug. 22 at a hospital in Clinton, Md. He was 91. His body lay in state at Wilson Building in Washington, D.C., on Sept. 12.

Moore settled in Washington in 1966 and gained prominence in the city as an acolyte and self-described "personal pastor" of black-power leader Stokely Carmichael. In 1974, he won a D.C. Council seat, but his reputation as a volatile provocateur, along with an incident in which he bit a tow-truck driver, led to his loss of a committee chairmanship and a stay in jail. He never again held elective office, although he continued seeking it, most recently with a mayoral run in 2002.

An obituary in the Washington Post notes, Moore "first drew attention as a 28-year-old clergyman in Durham, N.C., where he brought a confrontational approach to the nascent civil rights struggle. He drank from 'whites-only' public water fountains, then would exclaim, 'Good white water!'

"He said activists such as the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., who had been a classmate at the Boston University School of Theology, relied too much at the time on the power of oratory, instead of action, to achieve racial equality.

"'I was more educated than most of the whites that segregated against us,' Rev. Moore once told the Washington Informer, a local publication that covers the African American community. 'I was just tired of riding on the back of transportations, walking through 'colored' entrances, sipping out of different water fountains and [being] made to feel by other black folk that it was okay.'"

He is survived by his wife, Doris Hughes-Moore.

A celebration of life was held Sept. 14 at Asbury UMC in Washington, D.C. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in memory of Rev. Douglas Moore to the Howard University Political Science Scholarship Fund.

Rev. R. Bruce Poynter

The. Rev. Robert Bruce Poynter died June 30, 2019.

He was born in Newark, N.J. March 5, 1927. He began his ministry in the Newark Conference in 1951. He became associate pastor at Lovely Lane Methodist Church in 1954 and then went on to serve North Avenue (1957), University Methodist in College Park (1961), and Bethesda (1967), before becoming University Chaplain and Vice President for Student Life at American University in 1970. In 1986, he became vice president of Wesley Theological Seminary until his retirement. In 2001 he served as interim senior pastor of Metropolitan Memorial in Washington, D.C. He was a member at Trinity UMC in Frederick Poynter is survived by his wife of 68 years, Karolyn Ruth Poynter; sister, Ruth (Poynter) Carrara; daughters, Michal Caldwell, Sara Gallmann, Rachel Bennett, Rebecca Kirkner; and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A memorial service was held Aug. 29, in the Chapel at Homewood

Rev. Moses Sangha

Moses Shanthi Sangha was born April 14, 1949, in the city of Hyderabad, India. He died Oct. 9, 2019. "When God calls, we have to be prepared to go," Sangha told his family.

These words guided him from a childhood surrounded by generations of a loving Christian family and nourished in the tradition of the British Methodist Church. At birth, he was given the name Moses in honor of his mother's father, and the middle name, "Shanthi," meaning peace.

His wife, Sonja, and he were married in May 1977.

In his calling to the ministry, Sangha exemplified peaceful leadership. He began his professional ministry in the Church of South India, serving in Andhra Pradesh province for 10 years. He relocated to America in the late 1980s, preparing the way for Sonja and their children to join him and begin her own public entrance into ministry.

In those early days, he gathered a small but faithful community of followers in regular meetings at Grace UMC in Takoma Park, under the ministry of Rev. Allen Stewart. This small group would go on to become the founding membership of First India Church. Meanwhile, Sangha went on to follow the Lord's leading, serving Community UMC in Laurel (1990), Oakland and Flohrville UMCs in southern Carroll County (1994), Cedar Lane in Mt. Rainier (1996) and pastoring for 11 years at Ager Road UMC in Hyattsville (2000). From 2012 until his passing, Sangha was the pastor of Glenn Dale UMC and the surrounding community between Bowie State and Goddard Space Flight Center.

Rev. Saroj Sangha reflected that her husband loved what he did and was always "a pastor at heart." Around the house, Moses was a jack of all trades who could fix everything from mechanical problems with family cars to personal computers. During their 42 years of married life, Saroj and Moses stuck together across two continents and raised three children. Their oldest son, Dayan, lives in Reston, Virginia, with his family. Sadly, their son, Naveen, passed away on May 14, 2019, just five months before his father. Moses officiated at the service for his son, one of the most difficult tasks he ever had to undertake. At the same time, his father's heart was encouraged by word that their daughter, Archana, of Silver Spring, was expecting a child in the new year. Baby Arya joined Leander and Nathan as the third of Moses and Sonja's grandchildren.

Sonja shares that is learning to live without Moses, but knows what it is to live with Jesus.]She draws comfort from the words of the Lord, shared in Matthew's gospel, "Well done, good and faithful servant." This epitaph marks Moses' resting place in the Glenn Dale cemetery, as the joy of doing God's work has marked his life and ministry.

A Celebration of Life Service for Sangha was held Oct. 19 at Glenn Dale UMC in Glenn Dale.

Rev. Dr. Kathy Spitzer

The Rev. Dr. Kathy Spitzer, a retired Elder who served as pastor of congregations in the Cumberland-Hagerstown and Frederick districts before retiring in 2014, died June 4, 2020, at her home in Berkeley Springs, W.Va.

She wrote her own obituary. It follows.

Helen Keller penned, “Life is either a daring adventure or nothing at all.” And so it is. Since being diagnosed with cancer, my journey has been a joy, beautiful, grateful and endearing. We have one journey and I decided to make it good.

I was born in Berkeley Springs July 31, 1949. I lived in Berkeley Springs until I was 4-years-old, that when we moved to Great Cacapon. I lived in Great Cacapon until I was 6 and it was a great place to grow up. My hobbies were marbles, softball and fishing. I mostly rode a stick horse playing Wyatt Earp.

In 1967, I graduated from BSHS. I was honored to serve as President of the Thespian Club and to be elected Band Sweetheart. During these years I became best friends with women whom continue together as the years have passed.

I went to WVU and graduated with a Bachelors and Masters in Elementary Education.

In 1977 I attended Christ for the Nations in Dallas, Texas where I was licensed to preach. Upon my return, I served the Alpine Charge and filled pulpits when asked and spoke at revivals.

Overall, I taught school in Morgan County for 30 years. I loved (mostly) every moment. So many friends were made and I learned a peanut butter and sweet pickle sandwich is succulent.

While I was teaching, I became the youth leader at First UMC, under Reverend Owen Womach, who approached me about going to Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. I was teaching and going to seminary at night. Soon after, I was serving as a student pastor for the Sleepy Creek Charge. I finally graduated from seminary and was commissioned and ordained.

During an eight-day silent retreat, which I attended yearly, I heard of Oasis Ministries. They were offering a 3-year training program for Spiritual Director. I graduated from the program. I loved being a spiritual director, helping people discover their questions. I was a member of Spiritual Directors International.

I went back to Wesley Theological Seminary to work on my doctorate in Spirituality and Story.

Since ordination, I was sent to serve at Arden UMC in Martinsburg. I loved being there and they were life giving and life changing for me. All the churches I served were a blessing.

After I retired from the church, I enjoyed traveling. When the cancer was diagnosed, plans changed. Yet meeting all the people at the cancer center, brought me joy, laughter, and much love. Your journey changes and it's been a daring adventure, starting with God who formed me, and my parents Bill and Betty Spitzer.

You wouldn't be reading this if it wasn't for them. I acknowledge my awesome brother, Roland, who faces every-day with struggles from Parkinson's and Mary who has been a fruitful caregiver to him.

I also recognize, Cassie Thurston, Jodi Spitzer and Nikki Stoneberger. My nieces and nephews: Kari Tracy, Kristian Thurston, Sidney Baker, Kirsten Baker, Frankie McCumbee, Matthew McCumbee, Brady Longerbeam and Chloe McDaniel. I also recognized my great nephew Blake.

Lastly, I give thanks be to God for Ron and Sue Nagley, who took me in and made my days brighter, happier, healthier and full of love.

What a daring adventure!

What stories to tell!

What memories are made!

Spitzer's memorial service was Aug. 1, at Arden UMC.

Judith T Stone

Judith T Stone, a retired local pastor, died Feb. 26, 2020, as she was driving, on her way to attend her church's Ash Wednesday service.

She served at Delmont UMC from 1997 to 2012 and retirement. Before her death, she had begun serving a three-point charge in the Jessup area. "Her final desire on this earth was the intention to share in fellowship and love of our Savior, Jesus Christ," her family said.

Stone was born in Baltimore to the late Dorothy Rae and George W. Tye Sr. Her greatest joy was spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren and her great-grandson.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 56 years, Dan C. Stone.

She is survived by her loving children, Andrew Stone and his wife, Tracey, Holly Stone and Heather Dunkerly and her husband, Todd; cherished grandchildren, Caitlin Pizarro and her husband, Mario, Courtney Litzenberger, Jessica Stone, Christian Litzenberger, Mason Piper, Brittany Stone, Chloe Litzenberger, Madeline Piper, Emily Stone, Claire Litzenberger, Alexis Stone, Megan Piper and Matthew Piper; and her adored great-grandson, Mario Bryce Pizarro.

Her children wrote that "Our beloved mom was honestly not the same after the death of our dad, just one year ago. She missed him terribly. She kept busy with family, teaching ceramics classes, Eastern Star and church. She was so excited to have been asked to help the church once again as an assistant pastor. The night before she passed was spent helping with her church's pancake supper and talking with the young adults about planning worship services and her upcoming sermon series. Her final day was focused on serving the Lord and planning how to share the good news of the Gospel with others, to bring them closer to Jesus and the hope for eternal life."

A Celebration of Life service was held at Dorsey Emmanuel UMC. Interment was at Lakeview Memorial Park in Sykesville. In honor of her two grandchildren and the love for her church, donations may be made to the following: Autism Society of Baltimore-Chesapeake, P.O. Box 10822, Baltimore, MD 21234; or Dorsey Emmanuel UMC, 6951 Dorsey Road; Elkridge, MD 21075.

Rev. Henry Swain

The Rev. Henry Swain, a retired Elder in the Baltimore-Washington Conference, died May 23, 2020, at age 95.

He was born in Baltimore on Dec. 14, 1924, to the late Catherine Hannah and Clarence Raymond Swain. He grew up in Washington, D.C. After graduating Anacostia High School, Swain served in the US Navy from 1943 to 1960. Following his Navy service, he graduated with a BA from American University followed by a Master's Degree from Wesley Theological Seminary. He then served as a pastor at several local churches including Bells UMC, Petworth UMC, Faith UMC, and Lanham UMC until his retirement in 1989.

On Dec. 9, 1990, Swain married Betsy O'Branovich and they resided in St. Petersburg until 2009. While in St. Petersburg, he served as the minister at Westminster Shores Nursing Home. In 2009, they moved back to Maryland to be close to family. His hobbies and interests included amateur radio, model trains, and baseball.

Daniel G. Taylor

Daniel G Taylor, of Fort Ashby, W.Va., was a retired local pastor who died March 17, 2020 at age 70.

He was born Aug. 12, 1949, in Jacksonville, Fla. Taylor was the son of the late the Rev. Cecil L. Taylor and Ella Jane "Janie" (Nader) Taylor. He was preceded in death by his bride of 42 years, Terrellyn Dorothy (Wolford) Taylor.

Taylor was pastor of Melvin/Fairview Avenue Charge of United Methodist Church. He was a retired U.S. Army Chief Warrant Officer who served two tours of duty in Vietnam on PBRs. He was a military policeman who became a Special Agent for the Army Criminal Investigations and Military Intelligence. His duty stations included Vietnam, Panama, Korea, and locations in the United States. He was awarded numerous decorations, including the Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal, three Army Commendation Medals, and Army Achievement Medal.

Upon his retirement from the U.S. Army in 1988, he moved from Texarkana, Texas, to Cumberland to take over the family ministry. He became assistant director of Union Rescue Mission of Western Maryland Inc. and was promoted to executive director when his father, the founder of "The Mission," died in 1996. Taylor retired from the ministry in 2012.

Throughout his military and civilian life, he was a member of many humanitarian and civic organizations such as Ancon Masonic Lodge of Balboa R. of Panama, Lions Club International, Shriners International Society, Girl Scouts of America, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Vietnam Veterans of America.

Taylor was a 1967 graduate of Fort Hill High School and held degrees from both Butler University, Indianapolis, Ind., and West Virginia University, Morgantown, W.Va.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Kristin Marie (Kochel) Taylor; his daughters, T. Noelle Kesner, and Sarah Dunlap and her husband, Raymond; his brother, John L. Wolford and sister, Janie Shuck; his grandchildren, Taylor Kesner and Xander Dunlap; his aunt, Mary Emily Shafer; his nieces, Phoebe Rochelle Wolford, Leslie (Wolford) Taylor-Neumann, Tammy Nichols, and Karen Huggins; his nephew, Rhett Wolford; many cousins, and great-nieces.

He was buried at Sunset Memorial Park in Cumberland.

Rev. Roland J.R. Timity

In 1992, he began serving Mt. Zion UMC in Annapolis and stayed until his retirement in 2005.

A celebration of life was held Oct. 26 at First Baptist Church in Columbia.

Rev. Maurice “Jack” Vineyard

The Rev. Maurice “Jack” Vineyard, a retired Elder, died Aug. 18, 2020, at the age of 84.

He was born in Maryville, Tennessee, on June 10, , to Lillian (Trotter) and Murray Vineyard. He attended business college in Knoxville, Tenn. before enlisting in the U.S. Air Force. Vineyard worked in the chaplain’s office while serving in the Philippines and Korea. He went on to attend and graduate from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., and became an ordained United Methodist pastor.

While still in Tennessee, Vineyard met the love of his life. Mayme Hudson Carmichael asked him to a Sadie Hawkins dance and there began a true love story that would last for 64 years of marriage. Jack and Hudson had two children, Stephen John Vineyard and Shannon Jean (Vineyard) Priddy.

During his career in the ministry, Vineyard served many parishioners with grace, love, and humor. He had a quick easy laugh that would fill a room, and he never met a Dad Joke he didn’t like. He enjoyed performing his one man show in which he portrayed Mark Twain.

After his retirement, Jack and Hudson enjoyed spending their next 20 years in “The Woods,” in Hedgesville W.Va. before moving to Gaithersburg, in 2017.

Jack is survived by his wife, Hudson; their son, Stephen and wife, Lucy; their daughter, Shannon and husband, Michael Priddy; and grandchildren, Tifini, Shane, Blake, Brooke and Brock.

A Memorial Service was held at Silver Spring UMC. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Loaves and Fishes Food Pantry in Hedgesville WV.

Rev. Ingrid Wang

Rev. Ingrid Yee-Ying Wang, 64, of Crofton died June 16, 2019, while surrounded by her loving family.

She was born to General Tien-Pi and Bih-Hui Wang in 1954 in the Air Force Hospital in Pingtung, Taiwan. She was raised by her Second Aunt and lived with her parents and siblings over summer and winter vacations. She lived in California for more than 20 years before moving to Maryland in 1996, she worked at Potomac UMC as a program coordinator. After she graduation from Wesley Theological Seminary, she was ordained by The United Methodist Church and served as a pastor for nearly ten years.

Wang lived with lung cancer after being diagnosed in 2016. Anna Brito

Ana Brito, a leading lay woman in the Baltimore-Washington Conference, who was a four-time General Conference delegate and a pioneer in the BWC's Hispanic/Latino Ministries, died June 5. Born in Cuba in 1926, she created a program to serve local immigrants learning English at Bethesda UMC and later Epworth UMC. This ministry grew into the Ana A. Brito Foundation. Memorial gifts may be sent to the foundation.

Joseph Thomas Price

Joseph Thomas Price, a leader in youth ministry in the Baltimore-Washington Conference died April 23, 2020. He was born July 30, 1954. During his high school years, he began directing student choirs at the urging of his pastor. Price relocated from New Jersey to the DC suburbs to work with a theatre company in 1984. That Hyattsville theatre company did not last long, but he did meet a young lady from Ohio named Becki. They began a relationship together that endured through more than 30 years of marriage, their common faith carrying them through several personal losses and his very public battle with cancer.

Tom joined Becki in the financial services industry, both working out of home offices that they carved out of first one and then another "fixer-upper" home. When they went searching for a church home, they found their Presbyterian background giving way to the Christ-centered ministry of the Rev. David Simpson at Oakdale-Emory UMC. Price stepped into familiar territory directing the youth choir, along with Becki, and watched as the dozen kids invited friends to join the Joyful Noise.

By the time Rev. Simpson introduced the Bishop Felton Edwin May to the group, Joyful Noise had grown to over 100 youth of all abilities. The group toured throughout our conference and beyond, raising money for missions, including more than $2 million dollars for Compassion International and a parallel program initiated in partnership with Zimbabwe, where United for Children operated in conjunction with the General Board of Global Missions to sponsor several hundred children in local ministries associated with the United Methodist Church there. Price was in the business of investing, investing in seeing lives turned around by the joy of Christ, seeing especially the power of Jesus at work in the lives of youth and children.

Bishop May invited Price to become the Director of Youth Ministry for the Baltimore Washington Conference. What began in 1998 as a lively Washington West district event for 200 youth became "ROCK" as the new millennium rushed in. His passion for leadership raised the volume on the exponential growth of the annual "retreat" that brought youth and adults from surrounding states. Thousands participated each year, with hundreds of youth responding each year to the invitation to begin or deepen a relationship with Jesus. As the ministry expanded, so did Price's job description. He became the BWC's director of video production. He was actively involved in keeping the message of the Gospel relevant and compelling to each new generation, each year.

In 2012, he made the difficult decision to retire, due to disability following a car accident. He was never far from sight, continuing to support the youth ministry of the conference and the ROCK retreat, even in spite of the physical and emotional challenges of facing an uncertain future with cancer. "My life is in your hands" was his constant refrain.

When Price took his final breaths in this world, he had entrusted his wife with a sense of expectation for the years ahead, and his sister, Judy Sullivan, with an assurance of eternity. He left many friends and former students and members of his choirs with a lasting, vibrant sense of the living presence of God.

This is a video that some of the Joyful Noise "kids" (many of whom are now in their 40s!) put together, singing Thank You by Ray Boltz. It is a witness to the many lives Price has touched: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ObzmaOpt41E>

This is a video tribute that GNTV put together for his work at ROCK, a youth retreat for 5000 youth in Ocean City that he and Becki ran for more than 20 years: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FGstdiyr4o&feature=youtu.be>

Dolores Shaw

Dolores Shaw, 95, was known as “the face of Lovely Lane UMC.” She was the church’s tour guide for the age and died Jan. 7, 2020. She touched the lives of so many for over 50 years as she shared her extensive knowledge of the history of Lovely Lane with Confirmation Classes, international visitors, and then would climb the stairs to play the majestic organ.

Dolores Virginia Shaw (nee Curiel) was the daughter of the late Antonio E. Curiel and Mary (Witmer) Curiel and was raised in Lauraville, Maryland, where she resided until shortly before her death. Her marriage in 1942 to Wilton Harrison Shaw whom she met while a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship at Lauraville United Methodist Church. They had one son, Robert Wilton Shaw, in 1949.

Dolores first worked as organist and choir director at Govans Christian Church followed by several years at First Christian Church in Roland Park. Her final job was that of Secretary at Lovely Lane United Methodist Church, a position she held for 50 years, loving every minute of her various duties. She conducted tours of the Church for many groups who came from all over the world to see Lovely Lane, the Mother Church of American Methodism.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her name to Lovely Lane United Methodist Church, 2200 St. Paul Street, Baltimore, MD 21218 would be appreciated.

Calvin Williams

Calvin Williams died in September. He served for several years as the Lay Leader of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. He was a member of Good Hope Union UMC in Silver Spring. He is survived by his wife Dorothy.

Linda Worthington

Linda Worthington, who wrote more than 800 obituaries and several thousand news items for the Baltimore-Washington Conference during her career as a writer and editor, knew where berries could be gathered by the side of the road between Washington and Luray, Virginia; lived and worked in mission in Vietnam, Thailand, and Senegal; traveled to 35 countries; and belonged to a duck-pin bowling league, died Oct. 20.

That’s the thing about obituaries. There’s always a comma toward the end of the sentence in that first paragraph, and then the word “died.” In the past few years, one of Linda’s primary jobs with us was writing the obituaries and memorials for the Journal. Linda tended to the souls of the Baltimore-Washington Conference clergy and their spouses. She listened to people’s tears, collected their stories, and honored all the joy, pain, and enthusiasms of their living by preserving their memories. And she did this, like she did everything, with touches of humility, grace, and earnest devotion.

After her death, many people lifted up what a conference “bedrock” and “institution” she was. Because she was. She began working in the BWC in 1998. She loved language. She yielded her red proof-reading pen with little mercy and some aplomb. She was a reader, a journal-writer and, on her commute in her VW bug, she was known to do the Word Scramble in the Washington Post. Her heart beat for justice — justice for all people. She had strong convictions. In one of the cubicles she once worked in, she hung up pictures and cards featuring doves — for peace, and for the hope that kindness and mercy and shalom would prevail. She understood the point of righteous anger. She was a woman who took stands and a visionary who was willing, every once in a while, to break a lance for an ideal. Every Christmas, she gave us jams and salsa she had canned. The little jars held so much love, and the mint jelly went really well with Welsh lamb.

One of her loves was Chevy Chase UMC. She believed the local church had the power to change the world. She believed every person should be trying their very best at whatever passions God placed in their hearts. She also believed strongly in the power of the laity, that they were the heartbeat of the church. She received a master's degree from Wesley Seminary.

Her dearest passion was her family, including her children: Kirby; Judy, who is married to John Ogram; Laurel, who is married to Greg Maxwell; and Melissa, who is married to Chris Kallfelz; her granddaughter, Ruth Johnson; a step granddaughter, Alicia, who is married to Matthew Bean; and three great grandchildren. They were her pride and joy.

But she also collected people — people who stayed at her home while they studied in the area, people she worked with in the World Hunger Education Service and the International Voluntary Services Alumni Association and others she encountered. Even though we've never met them, we can tell you about Koichi in Tokyo and Pascal in France.

For Linda, sharing people's stories provided opportunities to see God's intentions being lived out in our midst. She shared many of these stories in the Making a Difference section of this newspaper, which included news briefs from area churches. Linda understood what really made a difference.

When God created Linda, God looked at the mold and not only threw it away, but stomped on it, mangled it, and mutilated it before it was tossed. To say that Linda was a "tough ol' bird" is meant as a compliment. Nothing seemed to slow her down until the very end. She was an inveterate advocate of social justice, never letting go of her convictions around full inclusion in the church, racial and economic justice, and the fact that Duckpin bowling was way better than Tenpin bowling.

To say that Linda was one-of-a-kind is an over-simplification. Linda loved her family, her Lord, her church, and her life, usually in that order. She travelled extensively with family and friends, and always documented the trips — and the latest family news — in her annual newsletter, "The Worthington Wanderer." That homemade newsletter always came out around New Year's... but not January 1. That's because it came out around the Vietnamese New Year which, as we all came to learn, is celebrated on the first day of the first month in the Lunar Calendar.

Linda's dedication to the task at hand knew practically no limits. She would finish editing a project and then come back and ask for more. She worked day and night during several Annual Conference Sessions, never missing a beat or an ill-placed semicolon or comma.

In the end, what took Linda from this life to the next was an illness that attacked her heart. That doesn't surprise us because Linda, for all her grumpy-curmudgeonly-gruff exterior, was a person with a huge heart. It was the biggest and easiest target for disease to attack.

In the 1930's, in the decade she was born, some American women were called "broad's" or "dames." These were women who looked life square in the face and scowled at adversity. They had panache, didn't let others define them, and were authentically who God created them to be. Linda was a feminist, so we would never have called her a good, old-fashioned dame. But she was, in a way. A grand dame, with a grand heart, who made a difference in our church and in our lives. Linda Crandall Worthington died. Her obituary will continue to be written in the lives of those for whom she once wrote and all those who loved her.

Rest in peace, thou good and faithful servant. You were an inspiration, a pain-in-the-neck, and a joy to behold. And if anyone knows you, you're up there in heaven, editing the Holy Beacon (or whatever Heaven's newspaper is called), and removing serial commas left, right, and center. You will be missed.

VIII. ROLL OF THE HONORED DEAD

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration of
The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

REPORT ON THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office (Affiliate) (collectively referred to as the Conference), which comprise the Combined Statements of Financial Position as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the related Combined Statements of Activities and Cash Flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the combined financial statements.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of combined financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the combined financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the combined financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the combined financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined financial statements.

We believe the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

ELLIN & TUCKER

BASIS FOR QUALIFIED OPINION

As more fully described in Note 8 to the combined financial statements, the Conference accounts for post-retirement health benefit obligations on a pay-as-you-go basis. In our opinion, accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the funded status of the post-retirement health benefit obligations be recorded in the Combined Statements of Financial Position and changes in the funded status be recognized as changes in net assets in the year the change occurs. The effects on the combined financial statements of the preceding practice are not reasonably determinable.

QUALIFIED OPINION

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter discussed in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the combined financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Conference as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and Affiliate

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. (BWC) was formed to provide for the promotion of the Christian faith, missionary, and benevolent causes.

BWC Borrower, LLC was formed to finance, manage, and maintain property and operate a management business for this purpose. BWC is the sole member of BWC Borrower, LLC.

The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office (Episcopal Office) was formed to manage many aspects of BWC, including presiding over sessions, overseeing fiscal and program operations, and ensuring fair process.

PRINCIPLES OF COMBINATION

The combined financial statements include the accounts of BWC, BWC Borrower, LLC and the Episcopal Office (collectively referred to as the Conference). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

ACCOUNTING STANDARDS CODIFICATION

All references in the combined financial statements to the Codification refer to the Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB). The Codification is the single source of authoritative GAAP in the United States.

NEW ACCOUNTING STANDARDS ADOPTED

In May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), as amended by subsequent ASUs (collectively, ASC 606) which amends the existing accounting standards for revenue recognition and establishes principles for recognizing revenue upon the transfer of promised goods or services to customers based on the expected consideration to be received in exchange for those goods or services. The Conference adopted ASU 2014-09 effective July 1, 2019 using the modified retrospective transition method. The adoption of ASU 2014-09 did not materially impact the timing and measurement of revenue recognition. As a result, the Conference did not recognize a cumulative effect adjustment to the opening balance of net assets. The prior year comparative information has not been restated and continues to be reported under the accounting standards in effect for those periods.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and Affiliate

In June 2019, the FASB issued ASU 2018-08, Clarifying the Scope and the Accounting Guidance for Contributions Received and Contributions Made, which clarifies when a grant should be accounted for as a contribution or an exchange transaction. The Conference adopted ASU 2018-08 as of July 1, 2019 under the modified prospective approach. The adoption of ASU 2018-08 did not materially impact the combined financial statements.

BASIS OF ACCOUNTING AND PRESENTATION

The combined financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with GAAP. Under the accrual basis of accounting, support and revenue are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded when incurred. Net assets, revenues and expenses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Net assets with donor restrictions consist of assets whose use is limited by donor-imposed, time or purpose restrictions.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of combined financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the combined financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Conference considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Conference maintains its cash in financial institutions which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Conference believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

FUNDS DUE TO OTHERS

Amounts represent proceeds from the sale of a church property, which is due to the Greater Washington District.

INVESTMENTS

Under the Codification, investments are recorded at fair value. Investments received as gifts and bequests are recorded at fair value at the gift date. To adjust the carrying value of the investments, realized and unrealized gains and losses are reported in the Combined Statements of Activities. See Note 3 for further discussion of the valuation of investments. The Conference invests in a professionally managed portfolio that contains stocks and bonds of publicly traded companies, mutual funds, and pooled investments. Such investments are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market, and credit. Due to the level of risk associated with such investments and the level of uncertainty related to the changes in the value of such investments, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near-term would materially affect investment balances and the amounts reported in the combined financial statements.

OTHER RECEIVABLES

Other receivables include amounts due from individuals and organizations related to the Conference for pension and medical costs. At December 31, 2019 and 2018, management recorded an allowance for uncollectible accounts of $908,756 and $795,551, respectively.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment greater than $2,500 are recorded at cost if purchased or fair value at the date of the donation if gifted. Lesser amounts are expensed. Depreciation is determined using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets.

MISSION SHARES

The Conference receives a significant portion of its revenue in the form of mission shares from local churches that are members of the Conference. Mission shares are accepted from the local churches; however, they are not a legal obligation. As such, mission shares are recognized as revenue when received, since the amount to be received is undeterminable until paid by the local churches. The Conference's mission share policy is to include mission shares received by Tuesday following the second Sunday subsequent to the date of the accompanying Combined Statements of Financial Position. Mission shares are used to fund mission and ministries of the Conference and General Church World Services.

MEDICAL PAYMENTS

The Conference receives premiums from local churches that are members of the Conference. These premiums are used to pay for medical insurance for clergy and lay employees of the Conference.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions are recorded when the donor makes a promise to give to the Conference that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and reported as support within net assets with donor restrictions or net assets without donor restrictions depending on the existence and nature of any donor restrictions.

CAMPING REGISTRATION AND EVENTS

The Conference receives registration fees for camps owned and operated by the Conference. The Conference also hosts numerous seminars and conferences throughout the year, for which registration fees are collected by the Conference. Revenue is recognized in the year such services and events occur.

PROGRAM EXPENSE

Apportioned funds categories represent the following:

- Discipleship – All department staffing costs for the Councils on Ministries and Human Resource Development as well as the activities of the ministries, missions performed within the Conference, establishing new churches, growth of existing churches, activities and programs undertaken to develop both clergy and lay religious education, and spiritual enrichment of all clergy and lay persons within the Conference
- Stewardship – All financial and administrative components of the Conference, including the treasury function, trustees, pension and health benefits for clergy and lay employees and costs of the Conference Center offices
- Leadership – Costs for departments linked directly to the Bishop’s office
- General Church and Jurisdictional Mission Shares – Funds collected by the Conference from local churches and designated by the Conference to send to General Church and World Services

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

NOTE 2 INCOME TAXES

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from filing tax returns as a religious organization. In addition, the Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Conference is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code.

The Conference follows the provisions of Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes under the Income Taxes Topic of the Codification. The Codification requires the evaluation of tax positions, which include maintaining its tax-exempt status and the taxability of any unrelated business income, and does not allow recognition of tax positions which do not meet a “more-likely-than-not" threshold of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Management does not believe it has taken any tax positions that would not meet this threshold.

Less: Investment Fees	133,600	116,669
Total	$ 10,406,428	$ (2,846,388)

The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of the Codification establishes a hierarchal disclosure framework, which prioritizes and ranks the level of market price observability used in measuring investments and other financial instruments at fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 – Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical investments as of the reporting date. The Conference considers its investments in common stocks and mutual funds to be Level 1 investments.

Level 2 – Pricing inputs are other than quoted prices in active markets, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date, and fair value is determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies. The Conference considers certain nonpublic mutual funds and pooled investments to be Level 2 investments.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and Affiliate

Level 3 – Pricing inputs are unobservable for the investment and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the investment. The Conference does not currently hold any Level 3 investments.

In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may be categorized into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, an investment’s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Conference’s assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the investment. There were no changes in these methodologies during the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

The following are descriptions of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Common Stock and Mutual Funds: Valued at quoted prices in an active market

Nonpublic Mutual Funds: Valued at the net asset value per share that may be redeemed at the date of the Combined Statements of Financial Position

Pooled Investments: Investments through the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church (General Board), which consist of diversified nonpublic mutual funds and are valued using the net asset value per share that may be redeemed at the date of the Combined Statements of Financial Position

The methods described above may produce a fair value that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The table below presents the balances of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the hierarchy as of December 31, 2019:

NOTE 7 PENSION EXPENSE

The Conference participates in three multi-employer pension plans, which are administered by the General Board. The Conference provides pension benefits for members of the clergy under the three plans. Services provided prior to January 1, 1982 are covered by a defined benefit plan (Pre-82 Plan). The General Board estimated the Conference’s portion of the Pre-82 Plan assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $26,000,000 and the total plan assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $147,000,000.

Services provided subsequent to December 31, 1981 are covered by the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), which has components of both a defined benefit and defined contribution plan. The Conference did not contribute any funds to MPP during 2019 or 2018. The General Board estimated MPP assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $169,000,000.

Services provided subsequent to December 31, 2006 are covered under the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), which has components of both a defined benefit and defined contribution plan. The Conference contributed approximately $2,410,000 and $2,510,000 to CRSP for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively. The General Board estimated CRSP assets exceeded accumulated benefits by approximately $113,000,000.

The risks of participating in a multi-employer plan are different from a single-employer plan in the following aspects:

- a. Assets contributed to the multi-employer plan by one employer may be used to provide benefits to employees of other participating employers.
- b. If a participating employer stops contributing to the plan, the unfunded obligations of the plan may be borne by the remaining participating employers.
- c. If the Conference chooses to stop participating in its multi-employer plan, the Conference may be required to pay the plan an amount based on the underfunded status of the plan, referred to as a withdrawal liability.

Lay employees of the Conference are covered by a defined contribution plan (Plan). The level and funding of retirement benefits to individual participants of the Plan are determined annually by the Conference within certain guidelines established by the General Board. The Conference contributed approximately $316,000 to the Plan for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

NOTE 8 POST-RETIREMENT HEALTH BENEFITS

Post-retirement health benefits for all retired personnel and their spouses, widows, and widowers are provided under a discretionary plan administered by the General Board. The Conference accounts for the obligation on a pay-as-you-go basis, and the cost of post-retirement health benefits was approximately $1,392,000 and $1,355,000 for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively. GAAP requires the funded status of post-retirement obligations, representing the difference between plan assets and accumulated post-retirement obligations, be recorded in the Combined Statements of Financial Position and changes in the funded status be recognized as changes in net assets in the year the change occurs. At December 31, 2019, using the most recent actuarial report available, the accumulated benefit obligation for post-retirement health benefits is approximately $47,300,000 at an assumed discount rate of 3.2%. For 2019, the assumed annual rate of increase in the cost of covered health care benefits is 6.5%. It is assumed to decrease gradually to 5% in 2023 and remain at that level thereafter. A one percentage point increase or decrease in the assumed health care cost trend rate would have an approximate 12% to 15% effect on the accumulated benefit obligation.

NOTE 9 COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Conference leases office space in Washington, D.C. and Frederick, Maryland under leases, which expire through July 2022.

At December 31, 2019, the future minimum rental commitments are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	2020	$ 71,974
	2021	74,368
	2022	49,216
		$ 195,558

Rent expense was approximately $70,000 and $75,000 for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

Year Ending December 31,	2020	$ 93,007
	2021	95,055
	2022	84,669
	2023	69,353
	2024	71,607
	Thereafter	394,491
		$ 808,182

Rental income was approximately $61,000 and $30,000 for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

(See Independent Auditors' Report)

The Conference has approximately $1,700,000 of contingent receivables. These contingent receivables are conditional donations made by the Conference to churches that are members of the Conference and are required to be repaid only if the churches cease to be members.

NOTE 11 ENDOWMENT FUNDS

The Conference's endowment consists of various donor restricted funds established to provide a source of income for ongoing donor advised program expenses. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

INTERPRETATION OF RELEVANT LAW

The Conference is subject to the Maryland Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) and, thus, classifies amounts in its donor-restricted endowment funds as net assets with donor restrictions because those net assets are time restricted until the Board of Directors appropriates such amounts for expenditure. Most of those net assets also are subject to purpose restrictions that must be met before reclassifying those net assets to net assets without donor restrictions. The Conference has interpreted UPMIFA as not requiring the maintenance of purchasing power of the original gift amount contributed to an endowment fund, unless a donor stipulates the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, when reviewing its donor-restricted endowment funds, the Conference considers a fund to be underwater if the fair value of the fund is less than the sum of (a) the original value of initial and subsequent gift amounts donated to the fund and (b) any accumulations to the fund that are required to be maintained in perpetuity in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument. The Conference has interpreted UPMIFA to permit spending from underwater funds in accordance with the prudent measures required under the law. Additionally, in accordance with UPMIFA, the Conference considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) Duration and preservation of the fund
- (2) Purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- (3) General economic conditions
- (4) Possible effect of inflation and deflation
- (5) Expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- (6) Other resources of the Conference
- (7) Investment policies of the Conference

ENDOWMENT SPENDING POLICY

The Conference follows the specific spending requirements of each endowment and, if there are no donor stipulations, the income is used for the purpose and mission of the Conference.

NOTE 12 LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

The Conference’s financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year of the Combined Statements of Financial Position date are as follows:

	2019	2018
Cash and Cash Equivalents	$ 14,666,245	$ 14,652,762
Investments	68,372,591	53,133,926
Notes Receivable	950,526	1,276,599
Mortgage Receivables	1,859,800	2,098,665
Other Receivables	73,400	90,686
Total Financial Assets	85,922,562	71,252,638
Receivables Scheduled to be Collected in More Than One Year	(1,776,475)	(3,705,837)
Contractual or Donor-Imposed Restrictions:
Endowment Funds	(4,249,391)	(2,944,045)
Donor Contributions Restricted to Specific Purposes	(628,883)	(602,786)
Financial Assets Available to Meet Cash Needs for General Expenditures Within One Year before Board Designations	79,267,813	63,999,970

Financial Assets Available to Meet Cash Needs for General Expenditures Within One Year after Board Designations	$ 23,468,955	$ 13,497,075

As part of the Conference’s liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. Additionally, the Conference has Board-designated net assets without donor restrictions that could be made available for current operations if necessary.

RETURN OBJECTIVES AND RISK PARAMETERS

The Conference's investment policy is to provide a common investment vehicle, which will generate a stable and continuously growing income stream to support operations. The overall investment goal is to preserve the purchasing power of the future stream of endowment payout for those funds. Other goals include maximizing return within reasonable and prudent levels of risk and maximizing the value of the endowment while maintaining liquidity needed to support spending in prolonged down markets. The Conference seeks a return on investment consistent with levels of investment risk that are prudent and reasonable given medium- to long-term capital market conditions and investment objectives.

NOTE 13 DONATED SERVICES

No amounts have been reflected in the combined financial statements for donated services, as no objective basis is available to measure the value of such services. However, a substantial number of volunteers donate significant amounts of time to the Conference's program services, fund-raising campaigns, and general administration.

NOTES TO COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, CONTINUEDThe Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and Affiliate*NOTE 15 SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Conference has evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure in the combined financial statements through October 21, 2020, the date the combined financial statements were available to be issued.

In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak of a novel coronavirus (COVID-19) global pandemic and recommended containment and mitigation measures worldwide. This contagious disease outbreak, which continues to spread, has adversely affected workforces, customers, economies, and global financial markets. There is significant uncertainty around the breadth and duration of business disruptions related to COVID-19 as well as its impact on the global economy. Therefore, the Conference is currently unable to determine the extent of the impact to its future financial condition or results of operations.

In April 2020, the Conference was approved to receive a loan of $1,186,600 under the Small Business Administration's Paycheck Protection Program. Either a portion or all of the loan may be forgiven provided that the funds are used for the specific purposes outlined by the Paycheck Protection Program.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc.

We have audited the combined financial statements of The Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc., Subsidiary and The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office as of and for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, and our report thereon dated October 21, 2020, which appears on Pages 1 and 2, was qualified for accounting for post-retirement health benefit obligations. Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the combined financial statements as a whole. The Combining Schedule – Statements of Financial Position, Combining Schedule – Statements of Activities Without Donor Restrictions and Statements of Activities – The United Methodist Church, Washington Area Episcopal Office are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the combined financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the combined financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements or to the combined financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, except for the effects on the supplementary information of the qualified opinion on the combined financial statements as described above, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the combined financial statements as a whole.

CORRECTION FORM, 2020 JOURNAL

Much of the information in this Journal, including addresses and phone numbers are pulled from Arena, the online database of the Baltimore-Washington Conference. If you find your personal or church contact information is incorrect, please follow the instructions below. Each person is responsible for keeping their own information up to date.

Logging into Arena:

1. In your browser, go to arenaweb.bwcumc.org.
2. If you know your username and password, type them in the fields provided.
3. If you've forgotten your username or password, click on "Forgot your Password" in the body of that page. Follow the instructions to request your username and password. This information will be sent to the e-mail address linked to your record.
4. We highly recommend you change your user name and password to something that's easy to remember. You may do so by clicking on "My Account" on the right navigation and following the instructions below.

Changing your contact information:

1. Follow the instructions above to log in.
2. Once logged in, on the right navigation, click on "My Account."
3. Type changed information into the appropriate fields.

Errors in appointment history or church relationships may be reported directly to your District Administrator by June 30, 2021.
