

WE ARE LOOKING FOR SUMMER INTERNS!

Project Transformation DC is looking for college-age young adults seeking hands-on ministry with children in Washington, DC

INTERNS:

- Earn a living stipend of $2,000 + free room and board
- Work in teams to coordinate summer programs for children in low-income communities
- Live in intentional Christian community with other interns who share a passion for ministry and service
- Take weekly trips to learn from local leaders and explore different kinds of ministry both within and outside of the church
- Form lasting relationships with the children, families, and other interns

Applications can be found at: www.projecttransformationdc.org
