Each year, United Methodist Women and the BWC Wellness and Missions sponsors a weekend where participants prepare for faithful living and action by studying mission studies. These studies motivate, inform, and enrich our commitment to global ministry. This year's studies are:

Finding Peace in an Anxious World explores ways to discover peace through scriptural and spiritual disciplines so that we can be rooted in God and energized to live fully as disciples of Christ.

The Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools study will raise awareness of this crisis in the lives of Black girls, thereby providing an opportunity for missional engagement and social justice advocacy by Christian women, congregants, and the community of faith.

First offered 2019, “Women United for Change” dives into the exciting 150-year history of United Methodist Women and its predecessor organizations. Learn what women organized for mission accomplished for the church and the world—you might be surprised!
