Each district has a Moving Coordinator who can also answer your questions concerning the Conference Moving Policy and procedures.

- Retired pastors are entitled to a move within conference boundaries upon retirement. (Paragraph 4-e Conference Moving Policy)
- The conference, through the committee is responsible for reimbursement for any move originating or locating outside of conference boundaries. However, the pastor is responsible for arranging and paying for the move, and reimbursement will not exceed the average cost of conference moves by moving companies in the preceding year.
