

Millian Memorial UMC

In 2007, the Rev. Oswaldo Cuevas Gaete began a Hispanic mission church called “La Casa del Alfarero” at Millian Memorial UMC. In November 2009, all members of “La Casa del Alfarero Mission Church” at Millian were informed that they were considered members of the Millian Memorial Church and that the church is in the process of becoming multicultural. The vision is to be a dynamic, spirit-filled, multicultural, multigenerational church numbering in the thousands and impacting our neighborhood, nation, and world through radically inclusive community building.

Salem UMC

Baltimore Metropolitan Area

The first Hispanic-Latino Ministry in Baltimore city began as a social justice outreach in 2001. Later, it started a worshipping community in the Canton area of Baltimore. On Pentecost Day in 2006, Salem United Methodist Church (Highlandtown) open its doors to Baltimore Hispanic Ministries to do ministry in their midst. In 2010, these two worshipping congregations became a bilingual ministry to make the church a community center where people experience God's love, acceptance, and radical hospitality.
