

SACRED + WORTHY + EQUAL

FOR ALL TO BE FREE

Racial Justice & Juneteenth Sacred Witness Action

Monday, June 15 - Friday, June 19, 2020

Led by Bishop LaTrelle Easterling and United Methodists of the Baltimore-Washington Area

Masks and social distancing required for all in-person events.

For more information or to register, please visit bwcumc.org/justicenow*

Sacred Witness Training: We are a People with Power

Monday, June 15 from 7-8:30 PM - Virtual

Gather together, online, with Rev. Dr. Hunt, a Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. scholar, as he guides participants through the history and theology of non-violent sacred witness to resist all forms of evil, hatred, and dehumanization. Webinar link provided upon registration.*

+ Rev. Dr. C. Anthony Hunt leading

“See Something, Say Something” Immersion Walk and Rally

Thursday, June 18 from 3-5 pm - Baltimore, M.D.

Gather together at Lovely Lane UMC - 2200 St Paul Street

+ Event ends at St. Matthew's New Life

+ Bishop LaTrelle Easterling opening remarks and closing call to action

Juneteenth Freedom and Justice March & Action

Friday, June 19 from 8-10 am - Washington, D.C.

Gather together at Asbury UMC - 926 11th Street NW

+ Event ends at Black Lives Matter Plaza & St. John's Episcopal Church, Lafayette Square

+ Join with Bishop LaTrelle Easterling to demand justice now

#weriseunited #justicenow #foralltobefree #endracism #weriseunitedtoendracism #westillrise #blm

If you are unable to join us in person, connect at <http://bwcumc.org/justicenow> to learn more about virtual and social media response activities to walk alongside this movement.