

BWC YOUNG PEOPLE'S MINISTRY
PRESENTS

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT INITIATIVE

GIVING YOUTH PERMISSION AND SUPPORT TO TRY NEW, CREATIVE EXPRESSIONS OF MINISTRY IN THEIR CHURCH AND COMMUNITY VIA A SPECIFIC FOCUS AREA (SEE OTHER SIDE)

What do you wish was different in your community?

*What do you wish was different
in your youth ministry?*

GET THE PERMISSION, ENCOURAGEMENT, AND EXPERT SUPPORT TO MAKE THOSE WISHES REALITIES

THE DEETS

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Each church is responsible for providing the following:

- 1-4 Youth to take on this project and serve as the agents of ministry, providing ideas and follow-through
- Adult Mentor (could be a parent, volunteer, or staff person) to attend all meetings with the youth and provide accountability for follow-through in the project

The BWC provides each church with the following:

- Resourcer who is experienced in the church's selected area of emphasis and will meet with the church's youth and mentor team monthly, helping them plan and implement their new/renewed expression of youth ministry.
- Program Coordinator that helps keep all church teams and Resourcers on track and informed and also offers 2-3 special events for the youth during the program once in-person events are possible.

FOCUS AREAS

Each church selects one area of focus for the year based on the passion of students and the needs in the community:

- Compassionate Social Justice
- Mental Health
- Story-Based Communications
- Growing Youth Ministry
- Other (Name Your Passion)

BENEFITS

- Greater confidence
- New leadership skills
- Deeper sense of purpose and God's activity
- A more vibrant youth ministry
- A great experience to include in resumes and college apps
- Positive impact in your church and community

RHYTHM

The Youth and Mentor from a church will meet with their Resourcer each month. See timeline below for an overall flow.

